FULLBACK BELTON OLLISON moves straight through the middle from the Southern Oregon 11-yard-line for the first Owl score Saturday night in the conference game with SOC at Ashland. The Southern Oregon defenses were caught completely off guard inasmuch as OTI lined up for a pass play and then the snap went direct to Ollison who powered right down the middle. Moving in for a block on the play is OTI's Jack Bitzer (No. 72). Two unidentified SOC men are attempting to make the stop. SOC won the game 33-12.

 Southern Oregon and Oregon College of Education—both displaying offensive power—are deadlocked for first place in the Oregon Collegiate Conference with 2-0 records.

Southern Oregon dropped previously unbeaten Oregon Tech out of a first place tie Saturday night by clipping the Klamath Falls team, 33-12.

The Southern Oregon victory was sparked by Lee McGill, who scored twice. One touchdown was on a 50-yard pass-run play.

A freshman from Calgary, Alta., was the key factor in OCE's 31-6 crushing of Portland State. Quarterback Jim Bowen accounted for 350 of his team's 553 yards gained as the Portland team suffered its third straight loss in conference play.

The conference's two unbeaten teams will meet next Saturday, when Oregon College of Education travels to play Southern Oregon at Ashland.

Eastern Oregon and Portland State—both without a league win—will meet in La Grande Saturday. Oregon Tech will step out of the conference Saturday to meet Dixie Junior College at Klamath Falls.

NEW NICKNAME NEEDED
 NEW YORK (UP)—The Athletic Department and student newspapers are conducting a contest at New York University in an effort to give the school a different athletic nickname than "Violets."

A prize of $50 will be presented to the student who comes up with the best new nickname.

PC Football Roundup

 UCLA imported coach Red Sanders from Vanderbilt eight years ago to rebuild a shattered football empire and he is doing it again today with a weakened eleven that has been deprived of its seniors and barred from the Rose Bowl because of Conference violations.

"Sanders' Raiders" dragged seventh-ranked Oregon State down from its undefeated pinnacle last Saturday with a smashing 26-7 upset that obscured the rest of the football action on the West Coast.

While Dan Peterson—168-pound Bruin center—turned in a whale of a game in the line his teammates constantly hurled back Oregon State's vaunted offense with solid linebacking and roared over for four tallies of their own.

Tailback Don Long passed for one of the touchdowns and scored another while Kirk Wilson kept the Beavers off balance with his customary punts of 50 yards.

Oregon, in the meantime, moved to the head of the class among the four teams left eligible to go to the Rose Bowl by hanging on for a 14-13 triumph over Washington State.

Trailing 14-0 in the last period, the Cougars sought to duplicate their rally of a week before against Stanford but a missed point after touchdown by quarterback Bob Newman stopped them. Newman plunged over for the score to make it 14-13 with a minute to play and then his placement hit an upright and bounced off to the side.

Jack Crabtree had put Oregon ahead with a short buck then Jim Shanley hooked up on a 36-yard pass play from Leroy Phelps for the other touchdown before the Cougars woke up.

PCC race, rallied to down winless Washington, 21-14. Chuck Shea, erstwhile third-stringer who has become a life-saver at fullback, scored twice for the Indians while gaining 129 yards in 29 carries. One of his touchdowns came on a 22-yard run.

California won its first game of the season in five attempts by downing Southern California, 12-6, as the Trojans lost their fourth straight in as many outings. Jack Hart and Darrell Roberts scored from close up to cap a pair of sustained drives.

College of the Pacific rallied for the second straight week to gain a 7-7 tie and remain at least undefeated. This time the Tigers scored in the last period to pull even with favored Idaho. As time ran out, COP then moved to the eight but was hurled back to the 12 from where an attempted field goal by Chuck Chatfield went wide.

Ken Hall gave Idaho a 7-0 lead in the first quarter and Tom Flores evened it for the hosts.

San Jose State, which had been out of its league as far as coach Bob Titchener was concerned, finally got into it by blasting San Diego State, 46-0. Seven different men scored for the Spartans with quarterback Dick Vermeil at the controls.

Cal Poly handed Fresno State its latest loss, 14-7 when fullback Walt Gurney set up the clinching touchdown with a 73-yard punt return. New Mexico blasted sluggish Arizona, 27-0, in a top regional tilt.

Browns, Colts Upset In Pro Grid Action

By DON WEISS
The Associated Press

Philadelphia bounced Cleveland, Detroit stunned Baltimore — and just like that it's a jamup today in the National Football League.

Five teams hold a share of first place. Everyone's been whipped at least once and what looked to be a possible pullaway for the Browns and Colts now has all the earmarks of another flip-flop donnybrook.

Both the Eagles and Lions created the chaos yesterday by getting even with opponents they'd bowed to quietly in earlier games. The Eagles beat Cleveland 17-7 and Detroit upset Baltimore 31-27. The Colts had led 27-3 midway of the third period.

Cleveland's loss dropped the Browns into a first-place tie in the Eastern Conference with New York's world champion Giants, who routed Pittsburgh 35-0 in their home opener. Detroit and Baltimore share the Western Conference leadership with San Francisco, which pulled even at 3-1 by cuffing Green Bay 24-14.

In other games, the Chicago Cards routed Washington 44-14 to tie Pittsburgh for third in the East both only a game off the coldest pace, and Chicago's slumbering Bears finally got into the win column, calling on rookie Willie Galimore for four touchdowns in a 34-26 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

Four touchdown passes by Johnny Unitas—giving him 12 for the brief season—fired Baltimore into a 27-3 lead when the reviving Lions got to work. Detroit still was down 27-10 with only nine minutes remaining but rallied behind a Bobby Layne-to-Hopalong Cassidy pass combination to pull it out with three quick touchdowns two in the last 90 seconds. Layne's 29-yard toss to Cassidy did it with 45 seconds left. Rookie quarterback Sonny Jurgensen was the Eagles' big man as he passed for one touchdown against the previously unbeaten Browns and scored another on a sneak. Veteran Chuck Conerly passed for 135 yards and two touchdowns for the Giants against a Pittsburgh team that never got past New York's 25-yard-line. Y. A. Tittle handled the brunt of the 49ers offense, throwing for two touchdowns and plunging for another. Galimore, ran for four touchdowns from within the Rams' 20, for 135 yards and two touchdowns. The Bears led 34-13 before two late Los Angeles touchdowns.
