

Sooners, Texas A&M Top AP Grid Ratings

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

After a one-week absence, Oklahoma was back in its accustomed spot atop the Associated Press football poll today.

As if to lend emphasis to the change, Michigan State, which had displaced the Sooners at the top of the heap a week ago, tumbled all the way down to eighth.

Nor were the Spartans the only ones to nosedive. Minnesota, Oregon State and Arkansas, all of whom were high on the list before each absorbed a beating Saturday, dropped.

The votes by the nation's sports writers and sportscasters were tabulated on the usual 10 for first place, 9 for second, etc.

Oklahoma, which rung up its 44th consecutive victory Saturday — a 47-0 lacing of hapless Kansas — got 1,365 points compared to 1,108 for second-place Texas A&M. Oklahoma had 89 first-place votes and Texas A&M 5.

The Aggies advanced from third to second by virtue of their hard-earned 7-0 victory over Texas Christian.

Following them in the top 10, in order, were Iowa, Duke, Auburn, Mississippi, Notre Dame, Michigan State, Army and Louisiana State.

Michigan State was the only one of Saturday's losers that managed to stay in the top 10. Minnesota toppled from fourth to 14th, while Oregon State and Arkansas, seventh and 10th, respectively a week ago, fell clear out of sight.

Minnesota was beaten by Illinois, the same team that licked Michigan State last year. Oregon State lost to UCLA 26-7, and Arkansas dropped a 17-0 decision to Texas.

Army, Louisiana State and Mississippi are the three newcomers to the top 10.

The top 10 with first-place votes in parentheses:

Red China Cagers Perform Well In Paris World Games

LONDON (UP)—Red China's giant, Russian-inspired program for the development of sports is producing its first fruit.

This year, for the first time since the Communists grabbed power, Red Chinese athletes have performed creditably. If their progress continues on the same lines, Red China might be a major power in sports by the 1964 Olympics.

Ironically, it is an American sport in which the Red Chinese have made the biggest impression this year — basketball.

Communist Chinese basketball team, under-size but cat-catch and perfect ball-handlers, made its first appearance in the West in the recent Paris World University games. It breezed past a number of highly regarded European teams before its players — apparently unaccustomed to tight Western tournament schedules — tired and faltered in final-round play.

In athletics, weight-lifting, swimming, gymnastics and soccer the Chinese have also approached top international standards this year.

International Olympic Committee President Avery Brundage, after watching a group of Red Chinese athletes perform in the recent International Track and Field Championships of Romania at Bucharest, said: "They have made very good performances. I can see a very great deal of progress in a short time."

Star of the group was 20-year-old Peking University student, Li Xing Fu Yung, who cleared 5 feet 8 1/2 inches (1.74 meters) in the high jump — only three-quarters of an inch (0.02 meters) less than the world record of America's Olympic winner Mildred McDanel.

Chinese sports, according to Communist sports magazines reaching here, is patterned entirely on the Russian setup. The buildup began in 1949 when an "All-Chinese Council for Physical Culture and Sport" was created by the Communist regime and given almost unlimited funds, vast powers and orders to make sports popular in China.

During the first years, the council's main activity was to build up an army of coaches and instructors. According to Communist reports, thousands were sent to the Soviet Union to learn from the Russians. Supreme direction was then taken over by the "Research Committee of Sports Scientists," all of them Russian-trained, and some of them possibly even Russians.

According to the Communist sources, Red Chinese athletes have set 19 national records in track and field alone this year. Here are some of the records, and, in brackets, the place it would have earned the athlete in last Olympics at Melbourne:

Men—High jump 6 ft. 8 1/2 in. (2 meters); pole vault 14 ft. 2 1/2 in. (4.32 meters); by Csaj I Shu (5th); long jump 24 ft. 3 in. (7.39 meters); by Hsu Shu Kuai (5th); hop, step and jump 50 ft. 4 1/2 in. (15.35 meters); by Li Chun Ho (12th).

Women—800 meters hurdles; Liu Yu Yung, 11.2 seconds (5th); 100 meters; Chen Ji Min 12.1 seconds (—); 200 meters; Miss Chen 24.8 (—); high jump; Miss Tsen 5 ft. 8 1/2 in. (2nd).

SF Giants Request Phoenix As Entry Into Coast League

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—The San Francisco Giants want their spring training home, Phoenix, Ariz., for their entry in the Pacific Coast League.

Shift of the Dodgers and Giants of the National League to Los Angeles and San Francisco means the PCL, highest minor league in baseball, must be realigned or go out of business.

President Horace Stoneham of the Giants Monday sought the Phoenix franchise and his office here said PCL permission will be sought to locate a team there.

It was the second recent move by Stoneham. A week ago, the Giants and Boston Red Sox traded their minor league franchises. The Giants are to get the San Francisco one in exchange for Minneapolis of the American Assn.

Since players are not involved in the shifts, the Phoenix club would be manned by many who played for Minneapolis this past season and the Minnesota metropolis will have the former San Francisco Seals, PCL champs this year.

All this news approval by six votes in the PCL meeting scheduled for Sacramento on Nov. 1. At this same time compensation to the PCL will be discussed.

The Giants have held their spring training in Phoenix since 1947.

A spokesman for the PCL said it has not been officially approached on the proposed inclusion of Phoenix in a realigned league.

"We have studied all these cities which have been mentioned in the press, on radio or on television as possible sites of relocated PCL teams," he said.

At least three new cities must be added, one to replace San Francisco, a second for Los Angeles and a third for Hollywood.

Although Phoenix sources said it was understood the present Phoenix Municipal Stadium did not have sufficient seating capacity.

city for PCL baseball, Stoneham's office noted that the Phoenix park accommodated 9,000 fans for the spring training games.

The PCL seeks to stay in business as a triple-A classification minor league, a notch below its present "open" status.

8 Major Teams Remain Unbeaten

NEW YORK (UP)—A total of 33 college football teams, including eight major powers, remain unbeaten and untied at the season's halfway mark.

A United Press survey revealed today that the only major college players with spotless records are Duke, Mississippi, Texas A & M, Iowa, Oklahoma, Dartmouth, Auburn and Notre Dame. Oklahoma, of course, is working on a record 44-game winning streak.

West Chester (Pa.) State Teachers is the highest scorer of the 33 teams with 202 points in five games.

Pittsburg (Kan.) Teachers and Eastern New Mexico have won the most games — six each — while Juniata (Pa.) and Prairie View (Tex.) have won two each.

RUNS 81 YARDS IN FIRST GAME

CHESTER, Pa. (UP)—Pennsylvania Military College had only one freshman on its pre-season varsity squad. It proved no mistake, for Ed Cocco from Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, playing his first collegiate game, ran 81 yards with a punt with less than five minutes remaining in a game with Wagner. His dash set up the winning touchdown in a 14-12 thriller. Cocco is 19 and only 5-foot-9. He's a 175-pound halfback.

Axemen Oust Pirates For Top Prep Rating

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Undeclared South Eugene Tuesday ousted Marshfield by two points as the top team in the Associated Press Poll of Oregon high school football teams.

The 17 sportswriters and sports casters voting in the poll gave South Eugene 161 points and Marshfield 159.

The votes were cast before the Oregon School Activities Assn. ruled that Saturday's game between Marshfield and Springfield was a 0-0 tie.

Earlier, Marshfield apparently had won the game 2-0 on a safety. But the association Monday ruled that a punt a Springfield player dropped on was instead a touchback.

South Eugene, a 27-13 vic over Hudson's Bay of Vancouver, captured nine of the first place ballots. The eight others went to Marshfield.

Springfield's strong defensive play against Marshfield—who had been tied three times but unbeaten in 40 games—pushed it into the top 10.

Springfield captured 59 points and sixth place.

Beaverton retained its third-ranked spot in the poll, after a 13-0 victory over David Douglas.

The poll standings, with won and lost records:

Team	Points
1. South Eugene (6-0)	161
2. Marshfield (4-0-1)	159
3. Beaverton (5-1)	125
4. North Salem (5-1)	97
5. Jefferson (5-0)	96
6. Springfield (4-1-1)	59
7. Grant (5-0)	56
8. Milwaukie (5-1)	38
9. North Salem (5-1)	37
10. McMinnville (5-0)	31

Others: Medford 28, Grants Pass 18, Benson 14, Milton-Freewater 10, Baker 2, and West Linn, Serra (Salem), Elmira and Stayton, all 1.

Upsets Hinder Grid Pickers

Basin football fans, along with some of the nation's top teams, were victims of upsets in last week's football contest.

An entry with five misses, which two weeks ago didn't rate honorable mention, was good enough for top prize money. Contest judges had to check tie-breaker scores, as five different contestants submitted entries with five misses each.

John L. Stewart Jr., 228 Ewanna, won the $10 prize by being off only 18 points. George Shadle, 1769 Summers Lane (off 24 points) tossed out Clino Roper, 2645 Radcliffe, (off 25 points) for second place. Checks for the prize winners may be picked up at the Herald and News switchboard.

Honorable mention goes to Clino Roper, who was off 35 points on his second entry, to Lynn Schroeder, Orechet, off 39 points and to Freda Thayer, Bly, off 40 points.

Games missed most were 1-6 three big upsets: Illinois' 34-13 win over Minnesota, Purdue's 20-13 dethroning of top-ranked Michigan State and UCLA's surprise win over Oregon State, 26-7.

Last week's contest games and their results are as follows: Army 29-Pittsburgh 13; Navy 27-Georgia 14; Syracuse 26-Nebraska 9; Ohio State 56-Indiana 9; Iowa 21-Wisconsin 7; Oklahoma 47-Kansas 0; Michigan 24-Northwestern 14; Illinois 34-Minnesota 15.

Purdue 20-Michigan State 13; Maryland 21-North Carolina 7; Texas 17-Arkansas 0; Baylor 15-Texas Tech 12; Rice 27-SMU 21; California 12-USC 0; Idaho 7-COP 7 (tie); Oregon 14-Washington State 13; UCLA 26-Oregon State 7; Stanford 21-Washington 14; Redmond 21-Lakeview 13; Malin 27-St. Mary's 0; Merrill 25-Chiloquin 13.

Tie breakers: Medford 33-KUHS 14; SOC 33-OTI 12; and Bonanza 26-Sacred Heart 13.

Bruins' Red Sanders Draws Praise For Win Over OSC

LOS ANGELES (UP)—With the loss of victory barely sampled, coach Henry (Red) Sanders, the football wizard of Westwood, turned today to the challenge of UCLA's game with Stanford at Palo Alto Saturday.

The sounds of the Bruins' 26-7 victory over seventh-ranked Oregon State had hardly faded when Sanders warned that UCLA would have to repeat last Saturday's performance to beat the Indians.

That was a tall order. Sanders, himself, told the Southern California Football Writers Assn. Monday that UCLA's win over the Beavers was a case of every man on the squad playing his best game.

"We said at the start of the season we would play every game on the schedule like it was the 'Big Game' and would give every player an opportunity to show what he could do," Sanders said. "Well, some of them are surprising us every week."

"We wish," the Bruin coach continued, "we had our seniors playing instead of being ineligible by Conference orders. It might give Stanford more satisfaction if they beat us with our seniors."

Sanders, who took a penalty-riddled squad and whipped it into good enough shape to whip Oregon State, the Pacific Coast Conference Rose Bowl champion last year, was roundly praised himself at the luncheon.

"This guy (Sanders) is the greatest," said coach Sid Gillman of the Los Angeles Rams. "He does a tremendous, amazing job."

Coach Don Clark, whose embattled Southern California Trojans have failed to win a game so far this year, said California's seniors and experience was just too much for SC last Saturday.

He said that the Trojans mounted a good team effort at times but "just couldn't sustain it."

Looking ahead to Saturday, Clark said that Washington State probably was a more dangerous opponent for the Trojans than

KU Booster Club Slates Meeting

All booster club members are urged to attend and any prospective booster club member is welcome to come and join.

Kid Gavilan, G. Ortega Gun For Berth

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Gunning for position in the scramble for the vacant world welterweight title, ex-champion Kid Gavilan of Cuba and Gaspar Ortega of Mexico fight for 12 rounds or less Tuesday night at Wrigley Field.

Bolo-punching Gavilan, the 31-year-old Cuban hawk who lost the championship to Johnny Saxton in Philadelphia in 1954 and never got a chance to win the title back, is a slight 10-7 favorite to outpoint the 22-year-old contender from Tijuana, Mex.

Gavilan is the sixth rated welterweight in the world and Ortega No. 7.

The unusually spry Gavilan outpointed Ortega in Miami two months ago, given some help by a seven-pound weight advantage.

Since 1943, the Cuban kept has fought 138 times, winning 105 fights and earned a draw in 6. He has never been stopped and only once, in 1953, he was knocked off his feet.

That was accomplished by Carmen Basilio, who was outpointed by Gavilan in a sensational brawl.

Gavilan too old? Over the hill? The Kid grins and in broken English replies:

"I always fight. No old. Look at Archie Moore. Sugar Ray Robinson. Both older than Gavilan."

Ortega, who turned 22 just Monday, has won 42 fights, lost 9 and has 1 draw. His claim to contention includes a pair of decisions each over another former champ, Tony DeMarco, and Isaac Logart. Like Gavy, El Indian, the Ortega, has never been stopped.

Matchmaker Jackie Leonard has a promise from Manager Bill Daly that the winner will meet Yvon Turenne, another ranking challenger, in a series of eliminations for the open title.

Oklahoma Reclaims Football Supremacy

NEW YORK (UP)—The Oklahoma Sooners whose second team may be better than the first, climbed back to the top today in the college football ratings of the United Press Board of Coaches.

After a weekend of upsets which cut down four members of the top 10 and resulted in the biggest shuffle of the season, Oklahoma was rated first by 29 of the 35 leading coaches who make up the board. Michigan State, which dropped Oklahoma to second place last week for only the second time in two years, fell all the way to seventh place.

Michigan State, Minnesota, Oregon State and Arkansas suffered the major upsets and all but Michigan State fell from the top 10. Replacing the other beaten teams were Army, Mississippi and Ohio State.

Behind the Sooners in the latest ratings came five other unbeaten and untied teams, all surviving the upset wave to move up. Iowa advanced from fifth to second with 266 points; Texas A & M from fourth to third with 255; Duke from sixth to fourth with 228; idle Notre Dame from eighth to fifth with 159; and Auburn from 19th to sixth with 155.

Michigan State, a 20-13 victim of a Purdue team which hadn't won previously this fall, was seventh with 152 points. Then came the three newcomers — Army in eighth place with 64 points, Mississippi ninth with 62 and Ohio State 10th with 37.

Minnesota dropped from third to a 12th-place tie and Oregon State slipped from seventh to a tie for 16th, Arkansas, ninth last week, failed to receive even one point this time after absorbing a 17-0 drubbing from Texas.

Lynch Posts Split Victory Sans Pigeons

NEW YORK (UP)—Welterweight Eddie Lynch, New York stevedore, blazed a cold in the head today rather than the absence of pigeons for his failure to win more impressively over substitute Yvon Turenne of Montreal in their TV 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night.

Lynch, 149 1/2 pounds, had to be content with a split decision over the awkwardly aggressive Montreal brick layer, 153 1/2.

Seven special agents of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, five uniformed police and two patrol cars outside the arena made certain that Lynch's admirers from Pier 96 released no pigeons during the bout nor caused any near-riot — as they did at his last fight on Aug. 5.

"The pigeons had nothing to do with it," Lynch declared. "I got a bad cold in my head after the weigh-in. If I'd been in shape I'd of stopped Turenne."

Lynch's countering left jabs and left hooks to the head beat the rugged Canadian body-puncher, Reterec Harry Ebbs, a favorite of Lynch on rounds, 7-2-1, as did Judge Bill Forst, 8-2. But Judge Leo Birnbaum had Turenne ahead 5-4-1. The United Press scored for Lynch, 6-2-2.

Turenne substituted for Danny Russo of Brooklyn, who was found to have symptoms of the flu at Monday's weigh-in. Turenne, 23, had been notified last Friday to be ready to fight Lynch, 22, in case Russo was rejected Monday.

"But I had to take off seven pounds in three days to get the band," Turenne explained. "It weakened me."

Russo had won a split decision over Lynch in their semi-riotous bout at St. Nick's, Aug. 3. That was the night Lynch's followers released pigeons and caused such confusion that two spectators were hit by flying chairs and carted off to a hospital.

Monday night's victory was the 12th for Lynch in 14 fights. It was the fifth defeat for Turenne in 23.

Hunting Report

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A heavy kill of deer was reported in Central and Eastern Oregon in a special, three-day, either-sex season that closed Monday.

Pickings weren't so good elsewhere in the state, however. Swarms of hunters showed up in Eastern and Central Oregon and this apparently was a major factor in the heavy kill in these areas. The deer were flushed from their hiding places.

Only a moderate kill was reported in other areas. This was despite large numbers of hunters out in some parts of the Willamette Valley and in Southwestern Oregon.

Stormy weather is awaited throughout the state to improve the shooting in the continuing waterfowl season. Clear weather has slowed the shooting on both sides of the Cascades.

Naval Cadet George Washington Street was the first man to score in Navy's football history.

Jr. High Midgets Down Mills, 14-0

The Klamath Junior High Midgets downed the Mills School football team on Modoc Field Monday afternoon, 14-0.

The Midgets jumped off to a quick 7-0 lead, scoring on the fourth play of the game following the opening kickoff. The Midgets pushed across their second tally in the second quarter.

The next game on the schedule will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4:15 on Modoc Field with Conner-Riverside taking on the Midgets.
