

Detectives Find Stolen Art Work

TORONTO (AP)—Two detectives last night found $45,000 worth of paintings and drawings stolen from a Toronto dealer Saturday. They located the 17 pictures undamaged in a shed.

The find turned up one art work, a small charcoal drawing, the owner had not known was stolen.

Police believed the thieves abandoned their loot because they realized the difficulty in disposing of it.

President Plans Series Of Speeches To Nation

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower will go directly to the American people in a series of talks to proclaim anew his faith that the free world will prevail against communism in this outer space age.

The President's plans for perhaps half a dozen speeches in various sections of the country in the next few weeks were disclosed as he told a nationwide radio audience last night he intends to seek opportunities to set forth his views in these critical times.

Speaking before 1,500 applauding guests at a Waldorf-Astoria Hotel dinner sponsored by the National Fund for Medical Education, Eisenhower dealt mainly with a need for money to train more doctors and other medical personnel and to expand health facilities.

He reviewed his prepared text shortly before he strode to assert solemnly that he also had other problems on his mind, and that he plans to discuss them in the weeks ahead.

He put it this way against the background of Russia's progress in the satellite and the long-range ballistic missile fields:

"They include the continuing endeavor of our people in the fields of scientific achievement—and the methods for attaining even greater achievements, our responsibilities and our opportunities abroad, the strength of our domestic economy, the character and power of our defense programs, and the right of our people to confidence in these strengths."

"I have unshakable faith in the capacity of informed, free citizens to solve every problem involved," he said.

Departing from his prepared text, the President said further to a round of applause at that point: "If I may be able, in these talks, to set out in proper perspective the truth and the facts of these matters, no time consumed will be too much, no personal inconvenience too great."

The President provided no detail regarding his plans. But aides said he will make perhaps as many as half a dozen speeches, some of them outside of Washington. The first, most likely dealing with the nation's science programs, is expected soon.

The talks probably will continue into the early weeks of next year. The administration has been sharply criticized by some members of Congress who feel the satellite and missile programs have not been pushed vigorously enough.

Eisenhower's plans to speak out underscore his determination, aides said, to reiterate his stated belief that the free world can outdo the world of communism.

In doing so, the President will be putting his personal prestige on the line in an effort to bolster America's confidence in the nation's military and domestic economy programs.

Without saying so in so many words, Eisenhower indicated he intends to put great emphasis on the domestic economy—at this time of slumping stock market prices.

In his speech last night he said: "We must cast aside any morbid pessimism about the capacity of our private enterprise system to generate and maintain high levels of employment, production and incomes."

That brought applause, and the President stirred more when he referred to the evening's guest of honor, philanthropist Alfred P. Sloan Jr., honorary board chairman of General Motors.

He said Sloan, who was presented the Frank H. Lahey Memorial Award for his contribution to medical education, remarked to him during the dinner: "Why are people so pessimistic about our economy, the greatest thing man has produced?"

Eisenhower, too, spoke out against such pessimism and was applauded again when he said: "I don't know of anyone who ever won a victory by putting his chin on his chest. We've got to get it up."

In that chin-up call the President seemed to be summing up what he will be trying to do in the series of talks-to-the-people he is planning.

UF-RC Directors Report On Progress Of Campaign

Operation Fair Share, the 1958 United Fund-Red Cross Campaign, neared the amount of money raised last year for operation of the 27 agencies in 1957 at the report meeting Tuesday noon, five weeks from the kickoff date.

Vince Bousquet, general chairman of the "We Care, Let's Share" program, said that equaling last year would be a "way point" in the campaign, not a stopping point. "We'll go on from there to finance the youth, health and welfare agencies to take care of the needs of the people of Klamath County," he said.

With a good report in of money from the county by Chairman Dorman Turner, and assists from the lumber and residential divisions, the fund was brought to $122,606.73. This is 83.6 per cent of the goal.

It appeared that the residential division, now at 98.3 per cent of the $5,000 goal, might be the first division to go over one hundred per cent. The Klamath Falls residential campaign has been directed by Mrs. Gordon Raught, Mrs. Rodney Bell and Mrs. Truman Runyan.

Next high division is automotive. Chairman Jim Winde's Tuesday report of $32 brought automotive to $8,499.69, 95 per cent of the goal. The educational division, with 93 per cent of the $9,325 goal, follows closely. Gary Robertson is chairman of this division.

Only the governmental and professional divisions are lagging materially. It was pointed out. Governmental groups have reported 53 per cent of the $4,465 goal. Professional stands at 71 per cent of its needed $11,300.

County reports were slow coming in at the start of the campaign but the county communities now have reported in $12,481.69, 84 per cent of goal. The county division was exceeded only by residential, automotive and educational as of Tuesday noon.

Chairman Bousquet directed division heads to pick up pledge cards from any unit salesmen.
