

INTERESTING COUPLE, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Zammitt, from Felton, California, were recent houseguests at the George H. Clark residence, 2021 Lavey. Frank Zammitt and Ellen Clark's mother, Mrs. N. H. Bogue are cousins.

He was connected with Foster and Bogue from its early days until a few years ago. During World War II he was with the Navy Department as inspector of naval machinery. After the war he went into the real estate business where he stayed until 1950 when he retired and moved with his wife, Metha, from San Francisco to Felton, near Santa Cruz.

In Felton, they continued to be active in civic and fraternal work. He is now president of the Felton Volunteer Fire Department.

Interest in community affairs comes naturally to the Zammitts — with a background of family history interwoven with the first history of San Francisco.

They have four daughters, Dorothy (Mrs. Norman) McDonald, Los Altos, California; Charlotte (Mrs. Charles) Donner, Spokane; Ida May (Mrs. Harold) Brown, San Francisco and Edith Jane Zammitt, chief technician for Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco, and resident of Mill Valley.

They were four good reasons for Metha Zammitt to take an active interest in PTA work, and her career with that organization included the presidency of one of the largest PTA branches on the West Coast. The Zammitts came to Klamath Falls for the Bogue Golden Wedding Anniversary weekend (October 13) but prolonged the visit "because we like it here."

HENLEY

JOB'S DAUGHTERS

Hazel Jo DeLamater presided at the inspection meeting when Grand Guardian Evelyn McGill of the Grand Guardian Council of Oregon visited Job's Daughters, Henley Bethel No. 51, October 21 at the Mt. Laki Church.

Special guests introduced in addition to the visiting grand guardian were Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian; Ione Goodnough, vice grand guardian of the Grand Guardian Council; Coie Brown, grand third messenger of the Grand Guardian Council; Thelma Short, guardian of Bethel No. 51; E. P. Vincent, serving as associate guardian in the absence of Emil Wells, and Inez DeLamater, junior past guardian of Bethel No. 51.

Mrs. McGill was presented a feather corsage and specially packed potatoes and plum jelly representative of this part of Oregon. A gift box will be sent to the associate grand guardian, Dr. L. A. Maulding.

New members initiated during the meeting were Vichi Ann Fairchild, Barbara Kayler, Ruth Ann Evans and Mary Mitchell.

Plans were made for the canned fruit cake sale that Bethel No. 51 will hold during the holidays, with Gretchen Thompson assisting the girls. November 10 was decided upon as the date for the "Go to Church Sunday" for all Henley Jobs to attend the Mt. Laki Church. A "Levi Leap" dance was planned.

Following the meeting, a potluck was served by the Bethel Daughters, assisted by the Bethel Mothers Club. The Bethel room was beautifully decorated in an autumn theme.

1950, and later graduated from both Oregon State College, Corvallis, and Southern Oregon College, Ashland, majoring in elementary education. She has been on the teaching staff of Woodstock Elementary School, Portland, for the past three years.

The bridegroom attended the University of Oregon and is by profession an architectural engineer, presently affiliated in that capacity with the Oregon Brass Works of Portland.

Immediately following the church ceremony, a reception was held in the C. I. Clubhouse in Fort Klamath, attended by 125 guests. Floral arrangements from the church were used about the room for the occasion.

Presiding at the coffee service were two sisters of the bride, Mrs. Olaf Carpenter, Eugene, and Mrs. Jay Hughes, Pendleton; their aunt, Mrs. Merle J. Loosley, Malin, served at the punch bowl; a second aunt, Mrs. Forrester W. Loosley, served the five tiered wedding cake which was elaborately decorated with white roses and wedding bells, and topped with a miniature bridal couple. Guests were registered by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Thomas Girvan of Eugene. Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the church assisted with reception arrangement details and also with serving at the reception.

After receiving at the reception, the newlyweds left for a week's honeymoon trip to Northern California and return via the coast route. They are now at home in Milwaukie.

For going-away, the bride wore a blue crepe sheath dress with blue and white accessories.

Members of the local WSCSA of the local church were hostesses at a pre-nuptial shower given for the then bride-to-be in the C. I. Clubhouse on Monday evening, September 23. Colorful asters and other autumn blooms from local flower gardens decorated the room for the lovely affair which was attended by a host of friends. The lace covered gift table was beautifully wrapped packages, many who could not be present having sent gifts and congratulations. Refreshments were served at a late hour by members of the society.

In addition to the officiating minister and those in the wedding party and guests assisting at the reception who came to Fort Klamath from outside points, the following from out of town attended the church service and reception: Mrs. Katherine Nichols, Susanville; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wolfe, Vancouver, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bacholner, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Petersen, Mrs. E. C. (Ted) Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thiess, Mrs. A. C. Smith, Carol, Peter and David Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Griffling, Audrey Beslow, Patricia Willard, Betty Adams and Theodore Corbett, all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jones, John Sanders and David L. Harte, Corvallis; Thomas R. Girvan, Jerry and Linda Girvan, Olaf Caronter, sons Charles and Bruce, Mrs. James Piske, George I. Mayrodes, all of Eugene; Jay Hughes, Pendleton; Mrs. Myrtle E. Denton, Ashland; and Mrs. Merle J. Loosley, Malin.

First hat of fall could be the little velvet beret in a jewel color; emerald, blue or garnet. Later, the same kind of hat would be pretty in fur.

Venture Club Rush Party Slated For November 1

Mrs. William (Joan) Seaberry, president of the Klamath Falls Venture Club, this week announced plans for a reorganizational meeting and rush party to be held Friday, November 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the National Guard Armory on Shasta Way.

All young women under 30 who are employed in the Klamath Falls area are invited to attend the meeting and affiliate with the group.

Venture Club is a Soroptimist-sponsored organization and was initiated in July, 1954. Its purpose, according to Mrs. Seaberry, is the development of womanhood to the end that they may be adjusted to the changing world conditions and promote ethical standards in business and the professions and foster the ideals of friendship and service not only personally but civically and internationally.

"Last year," the president explained, "the local Venture Club worked with military and civic officials to integrate Air Force personnel into the community. The projects included compilation of a community resources brochure, a Christmas dance for Air Force personnel and charity projects in addition to the regular meetings held twice each month."

The program for the rush party November 1 will feature Marilou O'Connor who will show slides taken on her recent trip to Europe.

Soroptimist sponsors for the organization are Mrs. A. L. Backes, chairman; Mrs. T. C. Griggs and Pat O'Connor.

Young women interested in membership in Venture Club are urged to contact Mrs. Larry Young at TU 2-4020.

FWWC At OTI

Plans for the year were discussed by the Oregon Technical Institute Faculty Wives and Women's Club at their October meeting held in the student lounge on the OTI campus.

Mrs. Carol Cathey, president, announced committee chairmen for the year. New members were introduced and secret pal names were drawn.

Elnathan Davis, secretary of the executive committee of the Klamath Indian Tribe, was guest speaker for the evening. His topic was "Termination of Federal Supervision of the Klamath Tribe."

Refreshments were served to members and guests from a table decorated in the Halloween theme. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Carl Stolpe, Mrs. Al Smith, Mrs. Merle Jackson and Mrs. Max Saunders.

If you have a choice between two dresses and you think one may be a little too dressy and the other not quite dressy enough, choose the latter. It is always in better taste to dress down than to be over-dressed.
