BASIN BRIEFS

Visit—Visiting with friends and relatives in the Merrill area for the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Ferguson from Grass Valley.

Ray Scott—of Seattle was a recent visitor at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter, Eastside, and his little son Rex. Allen Scott who makes his home with the Baxters. Scott has been in the Merchant Marines for a number of years.

With Grandparents — Mr. and Mrs. Roger Allard and family of Grants Pass are making plans this week to move to Eugene where he will work as a building contractor. Their small daughter, Michelle is staying this week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roche Allard and family of Eastside, until the family is settled.

Gordon Emery—of Silver Lake has accepted a position with the Ford Garage in Lakeview and is staying with Mrs. M. P. J. Barry and sons at the Barry ranch.

Hunters—Max Kimmel of Roseburg and Karl Kimmel of Cottage Grove accompanied by two other friends spent last week hunting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McGuffin of Eastside.

Injured—Mrs. Clara Baxter had the misfortune to slip and fall from her back porch last week and sprained her back quite badly. While the X-rays showed no broken bones, she was badly shaken and bruised.

From Coquille—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Benham and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parent of Coquille, recently spent several days hunting in the Cogswell Creek area. They were all fortunate in bagging their bucks, and left Friday to return to their homes. Benham is a cousin to Mr. John O'Neil of this district.

Houseguests—at the Floyd Crummet ranch in Eastside last week were her aunt and uncle, Mr. Alfred Morris and Jim Boydstun of Chico, former Lake County residents who visited relatives and renewed friendships.

Planning Meeting—Dianne Allard of Eastside was hostess Wednesday evening of last week to the primary officers and teachers of the monthly planning meeting of the Latter Day Saints Church at her home. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Burial—services were held last week for Mrs. Mary Duke, 92, in the Lakeview Cemetery following her death in Redmond. Her late husband, Frank Duke, was justice of the peace in the district at one time, and they were among the early settlers of Lake County.

Sterling Hanel—stopped briefly in Eastside last week to visit relatives, the O'Neils, during a business trip which took him to New York, Chicago and Mexico. Hanel, who owns and operates a sawmill near Hood River, flies his own plane.

Friends Visit—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Saffley and son of Newport were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moffitt of Eastside while on a hunting trip in Lake County.

Montague—Arriving in Montague on October 21 from Oakland was Jim Cooky, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Ellen G. Dockery. Both are natives of Siskiyou County. While here they will be houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Flock. Mrs. Flock is their niece.

Son Born—Word was received that the former pastor of the Assembly of God Church of Montague, the Rev. Paul Callahan and his wife became the parents of a baby boy recently. Mrs. Callahan, while here, was an active member of the Montague GOC.

Scholarship—Mrs. Chris Wilson, the former Christine Behnke, a freshman at Shasta College in Redding, was awarded a $200 scholarship with the college choir on the basis of her musical accomplishments. She is the regular college choir accompanist. Mrs. Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Behnke of Yreka, and her husband both graduated from Yreka High School and are both students at Shasta College.

Returned—Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Mulkey returned last week to New Pine Creek from a trip in California where they met Mr. and Mrs. Budge Mulkey at Stockton and Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Mulkey at Stonator. They returned by way of Reno to attend the wedding of Mrs. Mulkey's son, James Clayburn, to Karen Tudor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Avie Tudor of Lakeview who were also present for the wedding. Little Vickie Mulkey was ringbearer.

Eastern Star — Attending the Eastern Star dinner at Fort Bidwell a week ago Saturday from New Pine Creek were Mrs. Eunice Cagburn, Mrs. Sara Johnston, Mrs. Ethel Cundiff, Mrs. Elsie Cundiff and their husbands, except K. Johnston. Worthy matron Mary Lee Lake and her husband, worthy patron R. T. Lake, of Willow Ranch staged the dinner. Mrs. Esabell Bishop of Willow Ranch showed slides.

Visiting—Mr. and Mrs. Martin Millspaugh of Myrtle Creek are visiting his brother, Roy Millspaugh and family, in New Pine Creek.

Flying Hunters—Mrs. Meta Pool, owner of Pool's Flying Service of Ukiah, California, flew up to New Pine Creek for a weekend deer hunt with her two sons, Oscar and

"I HAD TO BORROW YOUR ROBE, MRS. MITCHELL. DID YOU KNOW HE HAD A TWO-PINT WATER RIFLE?"

Home Ec—Club of New Pine Creek met a week ago Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Maude Butler as hostess. Sickness in the ranks made the attendance small. The hostess served pie and coffee after a short business meeting.

Visit Father — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ayoutt and family from Kennebec, Washington, visited last week with his father, Joe Ayoutt and family, in New Pine Creek and left Tuesday for Summer Lake where he will work on the Bill Harty ranch. Young Ayoutt just received his discharge from the service.

From Santa Cruz—Earl Martin, who moved from New Pine Creek to Santa Cruz about two months ago, returned last week with his brother-in-law, Frank Duarte, to do deer hunting and butcher Martin's beef. Martin has purchased a home in Santa Cruz.

Spending—the week with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Combs and family are his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Walker and children of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Walker and children, also of Portland. Mrs. Don Walker was the former Betty Combs.

From Brookings—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Travis and son Dick were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Merle O'Neil of Eastside while in Lake County from the coast to do some hunting. They left on Tuesday to return to their home near Brookings.

Weekend Guest—at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Lightle in Eastside was their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl True and children who were accompanied from Albany by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jones, who are friends of the True family. They left on Monday for Albany.

To Coquille — Elmer Benham and son Dean returned home on Sunday after spending the week end at the Leo O'Neil home doing some bird hunting. They live at Coquille.

Highway Project Funds Listed

A $4,600,000 highway project in the Dunsuir canyon has been included in the 483 million dollar California state highway budget for 1958-59.

The Shasta County project consists of a four-lane freeway for 3.6 miles on U.S. Highway 99 from a point one mile south of the Siskiyou County line to the Sacramento River bridge in Dunsuir.

EXCHANGE BOOKS

EDINBURGH, Scotland (UP)—Scotland's libraries reported today they have recently started exchanging books on a small scale with their Moscow counterparts. So far two books have been sent to Moscow — "The Dialect of Robert Burns as Spoken in Central Ayrshire" and "Fraser's Law of Parliamentary Elections."

Church Group Holds Service

A special worship service to initiate the observance of the "Week of Prayer and Self Denial," for the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church of Klamath Falls, was held at 10 a.m., October 24.

The service was led by Mrs. Virginia Campbell assisted by Mrs. Hazel Harper, Mrs. Doris Dykeman, Mrs. Eloise Elliott, Mrs. Donna Sands and Mrs. Lorena Ward, who gave reports of the interracial, educational and child care projects for which the special offering goes. Envelopes for this offering may be turned into the church Sunday morning or to Mrs. Eloise Elliott, Mrs. Ruth Geis assisted with the special piano music.

The regular business meeting followed luncheon served by the Elizabeth Carlyle Circle. Mrs. Hazel Wade, president, conducted the meeting. Objectives of the society were presented by Mrs. Rena Howry. Following reports, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Kathleen Womer, program chairman.

Mrs. Violet Koehn sang the Negro spiritual, "Lord, I Want to be a Christian In-a My Heart," accompanied by Mrs. Womer as the opening program number. Theme of the meeting was, "All Men, Women and Children of All Races Are Under the Leadership of Christ."

Mrs. Leoline Cowman and a panel including Mrs. Florence Dale, Mrs. Corrine Redman, Mrs. Alice Stocker, Mrs. Noda Sinclair and Mrs. Lorena Ward, discussed missions, located in various parts of the United States and Alaska.
