Gene Kelly Discovers Girls

by Peer J. Oppenheimer

GENE KELLY, who danced with a mouse in "Anchors Aweigh," two genies in "Invitation to the Dance," and several ash cans in "It's Always Fair

In lighter mood, Kelly and Kay Kendall team up for a song-and-dance routine based on Cole Porter's "You're Just Too Too"; and, a la Frankie and John-ny, Miltz Gaynor and Gene agonize through a love scene in surrealistic surrounding of papier-maché bar.
