

BASIN BRIEFS

Ill—Charles Hamilton, longtime resident of Malin and former city recorder and rancher is reported to be critically ill in the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland. With Mrs. Hamilton, he moved to Corvallis some time ago.

Rummage Sale—The Butte Valley Federated Club will sponsor a rummage sale November 1 and 2 at Arts and Clyde's, 734 Klamath Avenue. The November 1 sale will be between 8 a.m. and 9 p.m., and the Saturday sale will be from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Proceeds will go for nurses scholarships and youth work.

Alturas—Mrs. Carroll Hight, worthy matron elect of the Alturas Chapter, OES, was attending an OES convention at Long Beach last week.

Henry Smiri—a resident of Modoc County since 1925, died at Auburn on October 23. He had been in ill health a long time.

Mother Dies—Word has been received from Ashton, Oklahoma of the death last Tuesday of Mrs.

LATEST IN TRASH BATTLE

TOLEDO, Ohio (UP)—A man, who identified himself as a "worker tired of working in the rain," called police Saturday to report a bomb in the garbage can of City Manager Russell W. Rink. An investigation failed to turn up anything except 17 garbage cans on the city manager's front lawn. Rink is in a dispute with trash collectors over forcing them to work when it rains.

Tuesday—A driver's license examiner will be on duty at the Chiloquin City Hall on Tuesday, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., according to Bob Dow, Klamath Falls drivers license examiner. The Klamath Falls office will be open as usual on that date.

Alturas—Ronnie Thomasson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thomasson, is in Modoc Medical Center receiving treatment for a broken arm received in an accident at the elementary school last week. His mother reports he is getting along nicely.

Chiloquin—The members of Cascade Crest Chapter, OES, of Chiloquin, will hold a pre-Halloween cooked food sale on Tuesday, starting at 10:30 a.m., at the Indian Education office.
