 The San Francisco 49ers, who do their winning in streaks, are at it early this year and, coupled with the flip-flop fortunes of their rivals, it might just be enough to give the Prospectors their first National Football League division title.

Victory No. 4, since an opening game loss, was a comeback 21-17 capping of the Chicago (who's afraid of the big bad) Bears Sunday that enabled San Francisco to open up a full game Western Conference lead over Baltimore and Detroit.

The Colts and Lions, sharing the top spot with the 49ers at the start of play, cooperated nicely—Baltimore blowing a tidy lead for the second straight week to go down, 24-21 to Green Bay, and Detroit succumbing under a Los Angeles rout, 35-17.

Cleveland's revived Browns matched the Frisco story in Eastern competition, spilling the Chicago Cardinals 17-7 and taking over sole possession of the lead as Washington bounced New York's defending champion Giants 31-14.

Pittsburgh, pulling into a second place tie with New York, blanked Philadelphia 6-0 in the last of Sunday's six-game program.

The 49ers, behind 14-0 at the outset, touched off their winning rally after learning Tony Morabito, the club's co-owner, had suffered a fatal heart attack during the second period of the game at Kezar Stadium. A pair of key pass interceptions, climaxed by another clutch payoff touchdown pass by Y. A. Tittle, did it this time for the leaders, who have whipped Los Angeles, 23-20, Green Bay 24-14 and the Bears 21-17 twice since bowing to the Cards, 20-10 in their opener.

Tackle Bill Herchman scored one San Francisco touchdown with a 54-yard runback of a pilfered Ed Brown pass and Dicky Moegele, with three interceptions for the day, set up the clincher with a 40-yard runback. Tittle passed the last 11 yards to Billy Wilson, sinking the Bears — division champs a year ago — to last place with a toothless 14 mark.

Fourth quarter nightmares plagued the Colts against Green Bay, just as they had for Baltimore against Detroit the previous week. Leading 14-0, the Colts fell behind 17-14, rallied in the last minute on a Johnny Unitas TD pass, then lost when the Packers' Babe Parilli and Bill Howton combined on a 75-yard scoring pass play with 29 seconds left.

Norm Van Brocklin passed for one touchdown and scored two others as the Rams snapped a three-game losing streak against the Lions. Los Angeles scored touchdowns the first three times it had the ball on drives of 63, 51 and 64 yards.

Cleveland, bouncing off last week's loss to Philadelphia, punched over two second half touchdowns to beat the Cards. Jimmy Brown plunged for the clincher after the Browns had recovered a fumble deep in Chicago territory.

The Redskins granted the Giants a quick touchdown, then dominated the rest of the way against the league champions. Bert Zagers 76-yard punt return put Washington in front to stay and Eddie Le Baron, the little quarterback, was troublesome all day with a TD pass and a series of completions that set up another score.

Pittsburgh held the Eagles without a yard gained from passing, rang up two pass interceptions and picked up three Philadelphia fumbles. The Steeler touchdown came on a 35-yard pass, Earl Morrall to Ray Mathews.

DeMarco In Welterweight Comeback Tuesday Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Tony DeMarco, the stocky little Boston slugger who held the welterweight title for two months, nine days, opens a new drive to regain the crown Tuesday night in a 15-rounder with St. Louis veteran Virgil Akins at Boston Garden.

Massachusetts has recognized the bout, which won't be telecast, as a "world championship" affair. The major boxing groups of the world have declined to give it their blessing. They still are conferring over the composition of the field for an elimination tournament to determine the successor to graduated Carmen Basilio.

DeMarco won the title from Johnny Saxton on April 1, 1955, and lost it to Basilio on June 10, 1955. DeMarco, 25, is rated the No. 1 man in the division. Akins, 29, is ranked fifth by the NBA and sixth by Ring Magazine. He dropped a few notches when he was beaten in his last start by Gil Turner.

Another Bostonian, lightweight Tommy Tibbs, makes his television debut (Dumont, 7:30 p.m. PST) against New York's Frankie Ippolito at New York's St. Nicholas Arena Monday. Only 23, Tibbs has had 85 pro fights. His record is 39-43-3. Ippolito, 23, has a 20-6-1 record.

Roy Harris, unbeaten heavyweight from Cut and Shoot, Texas, meets Germany's Willi Besmanoff at Houston, Texas, Tuesday night.

Ole Archie Moore gets himself a tuneup and a payday at Vancouver, B. C., Thursday night. The light heavyweight king takes on heavyweight Bobby Mitchell of Omaha in a non-title ten.

 Linfield—with a 3-0 record—has taken over sole possession of first place in the Northwest Conference.

The McMinnville team Saturday night tripped Whitman 35-21, while College of Idaho suffered its first defeat, 33-21 at the hands of Willamette.

Linfield was led to the victory by Sel Spray, a junior fullback from La Grande. With less than four minutes to play, Linfield held a 28-21 edge, then Spray intercepted a pass and dashed 65 yards to a touchdown.

In the league's other game Saturday, Lewis and Clark defeated Pacific 19-14 for its first conference victory of the season.

Next, Linfield at College of Idaho; Lewis and Clark at Whitworth, non-conference; Pacific at Whitman; Willamette at College of Puget Sound, non-conference.

TIME OUT

"Wow! Didn't I say the big boy would make a difference in our team this year!"

P-R Team Wins Crown

The Pelican-Roosevelt elementary football team turned back Fairview Saturday on Wright field to cop the elementary grid championship of Klamath Falls.

In another Saturday game Conger-Riverside won over Mills 9-7. The season ending standings were as follows:

Team	W	L	T
Pelican-Roosevelt	3	0	0
Conger-Riverside	2	1	0
Mills	1	2	0
Fairview	0	3	0

The Mills squad ended up at the top of the elementary grid varsity schedule. The JV teams finished the season in the following order:
 Mills 1 0 2
 Conger-Riverside 1 1 1
 Pelican-Roosevelt 1 1 1
 Fairview 0 2 1

In the Saturday JV action, Roosevelt-Pelican turned back Fairview 6-0, and Mills and Conger fought to a 6-6 tie.

The final game of the elementary season will be at 4:15 Monday, October 28, on Modoc field when the Roosevelt-Pelican squad goes against the Migdets. Neither team has been defeated this year.

MANAGER
 PORTLAND — Emil Piluso, for many years a referee in the Pacific Coast Conference, Saturday was named manager of the Riverside Golf and Country Club here.

Prior to the appointment here Piluso was manager of the Pendleton Country Club five years, and more recently had been in a restaurant enterprise here.

Ducks Gird For Battle With Stanford; Bowl Hopes Ride On Tussle

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Coach Len Casanova let it be known before the season began that he expected a right good football team at the University of Oregon this season. So far, he's been right on the button.

The Ducks, with a Pacific Coast Conference record of four victories without a loss to head the class, travel this week to Palo Alto, Calif., for a clash with Stanford that's vital in the Rose Bowl race.

The Indians of Stanford, turning back UCLA 20-6 last week, post a 2-1 conference mark. Oregon virtually shunted California out of the Rose Bowl picture, 24-6 last Saturday and would like nothing better than to do the same to Stanford.

Washington finally posted a victory for new coach Jim Owens last week as Jimmy Jones and Al Ferguson paced the way to a 19-6 count over Oregon State. The defending champion Beavers, slapped with their first defeat by UCLA a week ago, scored first but couldn't hold off the Huskies.

Idaho went out of the loop to beat Fresno State College 20-6. Saturday's slate, in addition to the Oregon-Stanford meeting includes California at UCLA, Southern California at Washington and Washington State at Oregon State.
