

THE SPOOKS 'N THE GOBLINS will be hoverin' around at the Riverside School come November 1 when the public is invited to take part in the PTA-sponsored fun frolic. The good time will start at 7 p.m. Just a little too close for comfort were these unidentified harbingers of Halloween who visited four Trick or Treat hopefuls, front, left to right, Sandra Lee Whitt and Janet Ruth Denning. Boys, same order, are Dennis Holcomb and Vince Wachter.

Halloween Party Set At School

DORRIS—A Halloween carnival will be held at the Butte Valley High School gymnasium on Thursday night starting at 7:30, according to announcement by Harry Beck, high school principal. Booths are being prepared by the various school organizations and a carnival queen will be chosen.

COLD SNAP TO LIFT LAKELAND, Fla. (UP)—Weathermen said Florida should begin warming up today from an early season cold wave that sent temperatures plunging to record October lows throughout the Sunshine State. The cold snap struck early Monday morning, warming only slightly by daybreak today. Frost dotted low ground spots throughout the northern districts and interior central sections, but caused little crop damage since farmers managed to protect the few crops exposed.

Dessert Bridge — The Catholic Daughters of America invite men and women of all faiths to attend the dessert bridge Thursday evening, November 7, in the Sacred Heart Gym. Bring your own cards. Persons wishing reservations call TU 4-8621.
