Civil Service Posts Open

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced examinations for the following positions: student trainee (highway engineering), $3,415 a year, highway engineer and highway engineer (trainee), $4,480 a year; and medical officer (rotating intern, $3,100 a year, and psychiatric resident, $3,700 to $4,500 a year).

The positions in the field of highway engineering are for duty principally with the Bureau of Public Roads located throughout the United States, its territories and possessions. To qualify for the student trainee positions paying $3,415 a year, applicants must have completed two and one-half years of study in civil engineering. For positions paying $4,480 a year, at least four years of appropriate college study or progressive technical engineering experience are required. Applications must be filed with the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners for Highway and Bridge Engineers, Bureau of Public Roads, Washington 25, D.C.

The medical officer positions (rotating intern and psychiatric resident) are for duty at St. Elizabeths Hospital, Washington, D.C. For rotating intern positions, applicants must be fourth-year students in an approved medical school. For psychiatric resident positions, applicants must be graduates of an approved medical school and must have completed a full year's internship. Applications must be filed with the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, St. Elizabeths Hospital, Washington 20, D.C.

Applications for all of these positions will be accepted until further notice. Announcements and application forms may be obtained at many post offices throughout the United States, or from the U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

Foresters Win New Positions

LONGVIEW — Promotion and transfer of two young foresters was announced this week by International Paper Company's Long-Bell division.

Warren Goldsmith, 38, resident forester at Weed for five years, moves to the post of forester of the Western Timber Department at Longview.

Succeeding Goldsmith at Weed is Leonard C. Hines, 37, who was timber cruiser for the company at Eugene for five years. Hines is an Oregon State College School of Forestry graduate. He is married and the father of two daughters, Judy and Debby.
