

DASHING for class or dressing for a date, here's a campus bag with a new fashion flair. The season's newest combination of hand-finished buckskin and grained cowhide has been shaped by Rolfs into a deep, oval box bag that will catch admiring glances. The attractive thong closing and row of golden nailheads give a fresh look to the popular box bag.

JUST 10 seconds a day with Ban will make you socially acceptable. Ban is a smart accessory for fall tweeds and nubby knits as well as your party dresses. It is certified by the American Institute of Laundering not to injure fabrics. Keep the "Ban Box Look."

BAN
Which way is the wind blowing for fall? The weatherman points to the Ban Box Look for busy beauties. It's the look for a sweetly-sassy schoolgirl... the look for a smoothly-groomed career gal... the look for the active young mother... the ladylike look. Just ten seconds for rolling on Ban lotion deodorant in the morning (every morning) and they can keep that Ban Box Look around the clock. The silent-not-for-show fashion collaborator is Ban. Bristol-Myers roll-on deodorant and anti-perspirant... a subtle first before dressing, most necessary as the preliminary accessory for the good look of fashion.

The forecast—a cold, windy winter—calls for fashions to thaw winter chills with frills and furber- lows and cozy warmth. The barometer in fabrics: Cozy, warm furry fabrics lead the field—shaggy wools, plus velvets, nub- by knits, and thickly ribbed jer- seys. The temperature in colors: Hot- house colors—all shades of red, ranging from tropical orange to smoldering ruby—and brilliant electric shades of blue and green will be set off by muted plaids and soft browns in tones from palest champagne to smoky taupe. The almanac of styles: Fur by the yard everywhere, trimming hats, hemlines, collars and linings; flyaway back fullness, high belts, rounded lines, snap-out convertible sleeves, and a relaxed silhouette—all are features of the new styles. No matter what the style, Ban deodorant is the perfect access-ory—it is certified by the Amer- ican Institute of Laundering not to injure fabrics.

The busy beauty saves time with Ban—it's quick and easy to apply (just tip the bottle upside down once, and then roll it on) and it can be used immediately after shaving. The girl with the Ban Box Look
