

DODGE LANCER shown here is one of the 1958 Dodge models showing at Cunningham and Rickey. This is the custom royal four-door Lancer. A complete safety group including power steering, power brakes, padded dashboard and sun visors is included on all 1958 Dodge cars. Safety torsion-air ride is standard on all models, and the push-button torque-flite transmission is an added convenience.

LEGAL NOTICE

Sale of timber. Klamath Indian Reservation. Sealed bids in duplicate on forms provided therefore, marked outside "Bid Wildhorse 2A Logging Unit," addressed to the Superintendent, Klamath Indian Agency, Klamath Agency, Oregon, will be received until 2:00 P.M. Pacific Standard Time, November 19, 1957, for the purchase of timber on the Wildhorse 2A Logging Unit. The Unit includes approximately 2,900 acres of timberlands with a total estimated stand to be cut, which estimate is not guaranteed, of approximately 9,000,000 ft. B.M. of ponderosa pine, 600,000 feet B.M. of sugar pine, and an undetermined volume of lodgepole pine and other species which will not enter into the determination of the total value bid. Each bidder must state the price per thousand feet B.M. Scribner Decimal C Log Scale that will be paid for timber cut and scaled. No bid will be considered for less than $38.50 per thousand feet B.M. for ponderosa pine and sugar pine, and $6.00 per thousand feet B.M. for lodgepole pine and other species. A certified check for thirteen thousand and no-100 dollars ($13,000.00) on a solvent bank, payable to the Bureau of Indian Affairs, must accompany each sealed bid. Persons bidding for or on behalf of companies, corporations, partnerships, must at the time of bidding submit in writing satisfactory evidence of their authority to do so. The deposits of unsuccessful bidders will be returned after the successful bid has been accepted by the Area Director. The deposit of the successful bidder will be applied as part of the purchase price against timber cut on this unit or retained as liquidated damages if the bidder shall not execute the contract and furnish satisfactory bond for twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00) within sixty days from acceptance of his bid. The right to waive technical defects and to reject any and all bids is reserved. The contract will specify that all designated timber shall be cut and paid for prior to August 1, 1958, and all other provisions of the contract, including slash disposal and snag felling, will be complied with by December 31, 1958. Before bids are submitted, full information concerning the timber, the access available thereto, the conditions of sale, and the submission of bids, should be obtained from the Superintendent, Klamath Indian Agency, Klamath Agency, Oregon, the Area Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Interior Building, 1001 N. E. Lloyd Blvd., Portland 14, Oregon. Dated this 25th day of October, 1957. SIGNED: PERRY E. SKARRA, Acting Area Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, No. 738, Oct. 18, 25, Nov. 1, 8.

Court Denies Retrial Move

A motion for a new trial has been denied attorneys representing the Klamath Medical Service Bureau in a recent case during which a $25,000 award was granted with the Medical Bureau being named as defendants. The denial action was this week in the circuit court of Judge David Vandenberg. Mrs. Joyce Baldwin, in behalf of her infant son, had filed an $87,500 damage action contending that her son suffered permanent damages to his right foot a short time after birth due to careless and negligent handling on the part of a nurse employed at the Klamath Valley Hospital.

On The Record

KLAMATH COUNTY SUITS Eleanor C. Hawkins vs. John J. Hawkins, divorce granted. Doris West vs. Fred West, divorce granted. Elfriede K. Beeber vs. Judson R. Beeber, divorce granted. JAIL SENTENCE DORRIS — Judge Les Chase sentenced William Alexander Crossman of Macdoel to 15 days in the Siskiyou County Jail this week after Crossman changed his plea from innocent to guilty. He appeared to answer charges of being intoxicated in and about an automobile and taking an automobile without permission. On October 14, Judge Chase had set his bail at $700 and the trial date had been set tentatively for November 3. The 15-day sentence took into consideration the 15 days Crossman had already served.

A Son

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Carl Van Meter of Merrill are parents of a son born to them at Klamath Valley Hospital on Wednesday, October 23 at 2:45 p.m. The little boy weighed 9 lbs. and will bear the name Richard Carl. The baby's paternal grandmother
