GSA Juliette Low Tea At R. P. Ellingson Home

The charming, spacious home of Mrs. R. Parcher Ellingson, 1500 Pacific Terrace, was the setting for the Girl Scout Juliette Low Silver Tea, Saturday, October 26, honoring the birthday of the founder of Girl Scouting in America.

Catholic Daughters Hold Open House

The fall social season was highlighted by the 18th annual open house held by Catholic Daughters of America, Court Klamath 1295, in the Sacred Heart Parish Hall Monday evening, September 23.

Over 125 members and guests were greeted by Grand Regent Geraldine Roycroft. Tables were arranged according to sections of the United States, with members being captains and guests the states. New acquaintances were made during the evening as those attending attempted to match the state with the capitals.

Mildred Smith introduced Grand Regent Roycroft who spoke a few words of welcome and introduced the speaker of the evening, the Very Rev. Edmund Murnane of Eugene, the state chaplain for the Catholic Daughters. Theme of his inspiring talk was, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart and with thy whole mind, and thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." He stated that Christian women should remember that charity is a requisite in daily lives as well as in church work and that "neighbor" is everyone with whom they come in contact.

After Father Murnane led the group in a few songs, refreshments were served. Co-chairmen Mrs. Maxine Burritt and Mrs. Margaret Lavin and their committee were responsible for the evening's entertainment.

In a crowd where there are mostly married couples but there are also one or two lone women present, the husbands should not neglect to look after the latter. Unless the men are attentive, nothing makes a woman feel more out of place than being alone in a crowd of married couples.

er of Girl Scouting in America. This is a traditional GSA event, given every year with Girl Scout leaders, mothers of scouts and other interested adults invited.

Mrs. Ellingson, regional representative of the Girl Scouts, and Mrs. Elmer Harnden, president of the Klamath Area Girl Scout Council, greeted the guests at the door.

The tea table was centered with a striking seasonal arrangement of spider mums in shades of bronze and rust. Presiding at the tea service during the afternoon were Mrs. Fred Hoagland, Mrs. Emil Albrecht, and Mrs. Thomas Abernathy. Punch for the young guests was served by Janet Fowler and Jean Moore.

Jane Black and Linda Bergman assisted about the rooms.

Mrs. Elmer Harnden and Mrs. Ellingson, co-chairmen of the tea, were assisted by Mrs. Emil Albrecht and Mrs. W. W. Dewing.

OTI Wives Meet At Campus YMCA

Oregon Technical Institute Student Wives Club met Wednesday evening, October 16, in the campus YMCA, with President Lorry Zimmerman in the chair. Routine reports were given by the treasurer, Ina Hadam, and program chairman, Beverly Govey.

It was decided to start a club scrap book to be perpetuated through the years by succeeding members. A committee was appointed to choose a suitable club project.

Mothers of small children are reminded of the excellent facilities provided for their care at the campus YMCA. A baby sitter will be on duty at each meeting.

The entertainment program for the evening was a white elephant sale with Ina Hadam as auctioneer. Many interesting "elephants" left with new owners. Refreshments were served during the auction.

Highlight of the next meeting, October 6, will be a fashion parade of Bon Bazaar styles.

Stone-Herrin Nuptial Vows Said In 7 p.m. Candlelight Rites

LAKEVIEW — Billie Marie Herrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Herrin of Lakeview, became the bride of Ronald Lee Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Stone, also of Lakeview, in a candlelight ceremony the evening of October 26 at 7 o'clock at St. Luke's Episcopal Church. The Rev. David St. George officiated.

The church was decorated with baskets of autumn flowers, and wedding music was played by Mrs. Barney Nunley at the organ.

The bride and her attendant, Mary Henderson, both chose lark tailored suits and white accessories. Bill Smith was the best man. Mrs. Herrin wore a blue silk crepe afternoon frock for her daughter's wedding with black accessories and a pink rose corsage. Mrs. Stone was in a pink linen ensemble with black accessories and a mum corsage.

The couple is at home in Lakeview at 36 South K Street. He is employed at the Elmo Angeles ranch. Both have been students at the Lakeview High School.

Big color for winter is royal blue. It's followed in popularity by rough red, and for evening, emerald green.

The little black dinner dress in lace is a sound investment. Straight and narrow, it may have a tiered skirt for a romantic look. With it, black satin bag and slippers.

EASTERN STAR

Master Masons Night was celebrated by Manzanita Chapter No. 172 OES at the regular meeting held in the Scottish Rite Temple October 23. Presiding officers were Evelyn Biehn and Worthy Patron Marion Grant.

Following the meeting, entertainment was presented by a group of members. The refreshment committee, Lorene Grant, Lucile Wirtz and Jean Dixon, served apple pie, cheese and coffee to the many members and visitors assembled in the dining room.

Even with dryers, many housewives like to air their clothes on a line, especially in good, sunny weather. When hanging clothing, you can save yourself bending over for each article. Bring the articles within reach by using a wheeled cart or a table to hold the clothes basket.
