Nixon Not Clashing In Race

WASHINGTON (AP)—There will be no presidential primary collisions between Vice President Nixon and Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) outside of California in 1960, authoritative sources here say.

Knowland's decision, reported to have been communicated to close Washington associates, was seen as a break for Nixon in his own obvious but unannounced campaign for the 1960 presidential spot.

Any 1960 moves by Knowland still would hinge on whether he wins the California governorship next year—an objective which appeared until recently to be possible only after a tough, intra-party struggle with incumbent Gov. Goodwin Knight.

Knight, reportedly intends to seek the Senate seat Knowland is vacationing, leaving a clear field for Knowland in the California gubernatorial primary.

Friends say Knowland has not made up his mind about trying for the big prize in 1960, and arrived at his primaries decision without consulting Nixon.

The reported Knight withdrawal was seen as cheering news for Nixon in that the vice president thus avoids having to choose between Knowland and Knight in a California contest which could split the state Republicans and throw control to the Democrats.

Nixon still regards Knowland as a likely presidential aspirant in 1960, sources here say, but would prefer to fight it out then with Knowland as Republican governor than to have a disorganized party and possibly a Democratic governor in their home state.

Nixon has not said he will seek the presidential nomination, but the vice president is considered to have the inside track for the 1960 spot. President Eisenhower is legally barred from seeking a third term.

Dentist 'Fills In' For Researchers On Satellite

REDLANDS, Calif. (AP) — Two men lugged a gold-plated satellite into a dentist's office.

The satellite needed quick treatment, the men told Dr. Richard C. Hardy, who was just getting set to work on a patient.

The trouble, the men told Dr. Hardy, was this:

The Naval Research Laboratory had sent the satellite to the Grand Central Rocket Co. for vibration tests on the powerful 18,000-mile solid propellant rocket motor that is to set the satellite in its orbit.

About an hour and a half before the scheduled firing test last Monday, engineers told Wilbur Hartzell, Vanguard project director:

"We can't make that schedule. The cement we use to make our electrical contacts takes 14 hours to dry."

"Take it to my dentist," said Hartzell. "He can tack your wiring on with some of that quick-drying bridge cement."

Dr. Hardy plopped the satellite in his dentist's chair and went to work. Twenty-five minutes later the job was done.

The firing schedule was met, the company announced Friday, and the results were satisfactory.

And it didn't hurt a bit.

Scouts Slate Fund Drive

ALTURAS — The Modoc Boy Scout drive has set a county goal of $2,500 and the campaign is headed by Harry Fluornoy. He will be assisted by three majors, Bud Van Horn, Steve Rusym and Butch Sloss. They will each head up a team with five captains, each captain to have a team of five and each team member to canvass five persons.

There are 250 scouts in the county and it costs about $12 a year to provide a scouting program for each scout, Fluornoy said. Scouting in Modoc County includes nine cub packs and several explorer posts. During this year, scouts in the county will make more than 100 advancements in rank.

Study Shows Retirement Leads To Improved Health

CLEVELAND (AP)—It's time to lay aside the notion that retirement generally leads to poor health.

That's the conclusion in a study made by Cornell University and reported Saturday by Dr. Wayne E. Thompson to the 10th annual gerontological meeting. Gerontology is the scientific study of old age.

According to Thompson, "if any general effect at all can be discerned, it is that retirement leads to an improvement in health."

He said that the study did find that many people in retirement are in poor health. But, he said, "it would seem that this can best be understood in terms of poor health leading to retirement and not the reverse."

The study was based on information from people who have retired as well as from doctors who examined them.

In another speech, Lawrence D. Corey of the University of Chicago, said that whether a person makes an easy switch from working to retirement is connected with the type of job he held.

"The higher the group's occupation status," he said, "the greater its adjustment is to aging and retirement."

In reporting these conclusions from a study of retired people, Corey said that a person's adjustment is not related to his marital status or sex but is connected with how long he went to school. The better the education, he said, the better the adjustment.

Term tests were the highlight of the school week, October 28-31 when academy students were examined in their first quarter's knowledge. The results of the school year's first nine weeks will be disclosed on November 4, when report cards will be issued.

The Sodalists assembled in the auditorium on Wednesday morning. Prefect Maureen Novak led the business of the meeting. Daily duty cards were handed in and new ones were issued. Sodality members were urged to take a greater interest in them. Pauline Herhihy gave a report on her favorite article in the Sodality magazine, "The Queen's Work," followed by Deanna Louie, who led the group with prayer and encouraged a discussion on the communion of saints.

Marching was the principal topic of the Pep Club meeting held in the auditorium last Tuesday during activity period. The girls planned their marching practice with Sr. M. John Magdalen, adviser.

Pep uniforms were worn on Thursday. The Trojan cheerers concluded the meeting after determining a definite length for their uniform middies.

Regular class meetings were held in the senior, junior, and sophomore classrooms last Monday morning.

Mary Kaye Harris reported on the class scrapbook; the seniors then discussed the purchase of a new one. President Delbert Folk thanked the class for services given at the Ham Dinner.

The hop was the highlight of the sophomore class meeting, during which refreshments and programs were decided upon. A committee was sent to each of the other classes to determine approximately how many were coming to the dance.

Guard Keeps City Peace

MANILA (AP)—One of the Philippines' largest cities was placed under police constabulary control Saturday as President Carlos P. Garcia and other officials moved quickly to check an outbreak of pre-election violence which killed five men.

The commission on elections announced it and the constabulary were taking over control of Iloilo City on the island of Panay because city officials engaged in illegal campaign activities.

The commission said it was also considering taking control of several other cities, including several on Garcia's home island of Bohol, where five died and three were wounded in a gunfight Friday.

Garcia, now in Bohol, ordered a complete investigation of the shootings, which were the worst outbreak of violence so far in the campaign for the Nov. 12 presidential election.

DIM MOONSHINING

WARSAW, Poland (UP) — The police are cracking down on Polish peasant "moonshiners" who distill their own vodka against the law, the Polish Press reported today. Authorities in the northeastern part of the country recently conducted raids on two villages where widespread illegal distilling was suspected. They raided 18 homes and found 17 distilleries, the reports said. All of the peasants involved were arrested.

Alimony Boost Asked By Skater

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Donna Atwood, former ice skater, wants her estranged millionaire husband to pay her $6,000 monthly alimony instead of the $2,000 she agreed to accept pending trial of her divorce action.

Superior Court decided Friday she will have to make her legal effort all over again, and set the hearing for Nov. 13.

Attorneys for her husband, John H. Harris, 57, Icecapades producer, said that at that time they will ask the court to enforce the original property settlement which Miss Atwood, 32, signed last August. This gave her $2,000 monthly for 10 years plus a note for $100,000.

PRANK

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—A goat which normally grazes on the University of Kentucky experimental farm was found making like a mountain goat—on top of a 100-foot water tower.

Firemen used a rope and pully to get the goat down. It wasn't known how the Halloween pranksters got the goat up there.
