

U.S. Colleges Fight For Football Honors

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

With the football season entering the home stretch (most colleges have only three games left), the major conferences still are involved in life-and-death struggles for the championships and the gold and glory that go with some of them.

Perhaps the best example of the way the current season is progressing is the Big Eight. Before the campaign got under way, was there a man alive—with the possible exception of Coach Bud Wilkinson—who would suggest that Southern Oregon College Saturday night won the football championship of the Oregon Collegiate Conference.

The Ashland school took the title despite being tied, 0-0, by last-place Eastern Oregon in the final league game of the season for both teams.

Eastern Oregon came within 14 yards of scoring in the final period. If EOC had won, Southern Oregon would have shared the title with Oregon College.

As it turned out, however, SOC finished with a 3-0-1 record. Oregon College ended with a 3-1-0 mark, and a convincing 31-7 triumph over Oregon Tech Saturday night.

Portland State, which ended in fourth place, took a 33-13 non-conference victory over the University of British Columbia.

In post-league games Saturday, Portland State will meet Linfield, Oregon College will play Lower Columbia Junior College, Southern Oregon plays the Seattle Ramblers and Eastern Oregon is matched with College of Idaho.

Celts Win Two Without Star

By UNITED PRESS

They say as Bob Cousy goes, so goes the Boston Celtics. But even without their star guard, the defending champions of the National Basketball Association remained unbeaten during the past weekend.

The Celtics ran their early-season victory streak to five games by knocking off the Syracuse Nationals, 107-83, at Boston Saturday night and then whipped the Nationals, 113-95, Sunday night at New York.

Cousy, fighting a touch of the flu, sat out Saturday night's contest and saw only about seven minutes of action Sunday night, scoring five points.

After a week lay-off, the New York Knickerbockers returned to action Sunday night and polished off the Philadelphia Warriors, 113-95, in the second game of a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden.

The Detroit Pistons moved into a first place tie with Cincinnati in the Western Division by whipping the Royals, 94-88.

McCloud Team Closes Season

The McCloud Loggers closed out their season Saturday in a 27-27 deadlock with the Elina Lions. The Loggers ended the season with a 3-1-1 mark.

McCloud coach Bob Tomlinson adds that the A and B basketball signups will begin Wednesday.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

North Carolina State appears to be the class of the league since Georgia Tech punctured Duke's bubble. But NC State is in bad with the NCAA and can't play in the Orange Bowl. So Duke still is the favorite.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Since Auburn, the leader, also is on the NCAA's black list and can't play in the Sugar Bowl, Mississippi, Mississippi State and Tennessee are scrambling for the runner-up spot and the Sugar Bowl bid. Right now, Ole Miss, with a 3-0 record, is in the best spot.

IVY LEAGUE — Princeton heads the league, but still has to play two toughies, Yale and Dartmouth. The title probably will be decided on Nov. 23 when Princeton and Dartmouth clash.

SKYLINE CONFERENCE — Utah, which sends its aerial circus against Army this week, is way out front with a 4-1 league record.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN CONFERENCE — Idaho State practically is.

MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE — Houston needs to win only one of its two remaining games to clinch its second straight title.

Bantam Title Rides On Line

By JACK HAND
The Associated Press

After three years of confusion, the bantamweight title will have an undisputed ruler Wednesday night when Alphonse Halimi of France meets Raul (Raton) Macias of Mexico at Los Angeles, Macias, recognized as world champion in the 118-pound class by the National Boxing Assn. is favored in the 15-round match at Wrigley Field.

More than 20,000 fans are expected to pay a gross gate of $225,000. Each fighter gets a $50,000 guarantee. Macias also has the privilege of a percentage of the gate.

ABC television will beam the bout across the nation but Los Angeles and a 300-mile area will be blacked out.

Since Jimmy Carruthers of Australia retired as champ in 1954, there have been a series of disputes in the division. Macias won NBA recognition but Robert Cohen of France was crowned by Europe, New York State and most other sections. Cohen lost his share of the crown to Italy's Mario D'Agata who, in turn, lost to Halimi in April.
