

Pels Meet Grizzlies To End Grid Season

The Klamath Union High School Pelicans will get their last chance of the 1957 season to capture a District 6-A-1 conference victory when they host the Ashland Grizzlies on Modoc Field Friday night.

The Whitebirds made a determined effort to chalk up their first conference win last week, but some costly mistakes and a few breaks on the side of the Crater Comets held them off.

Displaying their finest aerial offensive effort of the season, the Pels connected 10 of 19 pass attempts, racked up 262 yards to the air, and passed for two touchdowns, but it wasn't quite enough as the Comets came out the victors, 27-18.

Quarterback Frank Ballard connected for an 82-yard scoring play to end Jan Cox, hit halfback Dick Humphrey for 10 yards and another tally, and on a keeper scooped nine yards for the third Pel score.

For the first time this season the Whitebirds broke the 300-yard total offense mark and scored the most points in one game.

But even in the glow of this fine showing, the Pels will again sink into the underdog role.

The Grizzlies gave the highly-favored Medford Black Tornado a big scare last week, but went down 15-6, but able to post a conference win over the Crater Comets the week before.

Coach Andy Knudsen said he was very pleased with the way the Pelican air attack worked last week, but said there were still plenty of mistakes on defense that have to be corrected if they want to dump Ashland.

He said he will not stress an aerial game against the Grizzlies, and that the team was forced into it last week, because of the quick scores made by the Comets.

The key play of the game against the Comets came when Crater was forced to punt, but an illegal procedure penalty against the Pels gave Crater a 72 yards for a touchdown.

The major bad break against the Whitebirds resulted from a mix-up in signals when the Pels were on the Comet one-yard line with a first down and the snap from center went over the shoulder of the tailback, setting KU back to the 16-yard line and they failed to push across.

But Knudsen reports the team is in high spirits and that they will be on the field fighting as hard as ever Friday night.

He added that sophomore quarterback Blake Griggs, who turned up ailing just prior to the Crater game, will be back in action and will add to the defensive strength of the team.

The Pelican downed Ashland last year, 19-6, on the Grizzlies home field, and in the series between the two teams since 1936, the KUHS teams have a record of all wins against no losses, the most consecutive victory coming in 1954 when the Pels drubbed the Grizzlies, 59-0.

The year by year account of the series since 1936:

Year	KU	Ashland
1936	26	0
1937	14	14
1938	27	0
1939	39	0
1940	14	6
1941	28	0
1942	26	0
1943	31	13
1944	13	6
1945	20	7
1946	27	14
1947	50	6
1948	21	18
1949	19	6
1950	No Game
1951	19	7
1952	20	6
1953	20	6
1954	58	0
1955	25	21
1956	19	6

Pacific Coast Football Briefs

SEATTLE, Wash. (UP)—The University of Washington Huskies devoted two hours to heavy contact work Tuesday to prepare a defense against Oregon's heralded running attack, which the Huskies face Saturday at Portland.

Coach Jim Owens named fullback Jim Jones and guard Whitey Core as co-captains for the game. They sparked the team against Oregon State at Washington scored its only victory of the season.

PULLMAN, Wash. (UP)—Fullback Eddie Stevens of Washington State may not be patched up enough by Saturday when the Cougars play UCLA in Spokane, according to Coach Jim Sutherland.

The coach indicated he would use Jim Renfro and Dick Windham, both of whom did a good job against Oregon State, at the fullback slot again if Stevens is not able to play.

EUGENE, Ore. (UP)—The University of Oregon Ducks are working hard toward what they hope will be a big day Saturday—their first victory over Washington in 10 years in Portland's Multnomah Stadium, and at least a tie for the PCC championship.

Coach Len Casanova ordered a combination offense-defense workout for his squad and announced that sophomore guard Larry Newsum would replace center Dave Fish, who received a broken hand in the Stanford game.

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UP)—Coach Tommy Prothro singled out tackle Ted Bates for a little praise Tuesday as the Oregon State Beavers prepared for Saturday's game against the University of California Bears at Berkeley.

Fights

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
SEATTLE — Archie Moore, 192, San Diego, outpointed Eddie Cotton, 17½, Seattle, 10.

DENVER — Joey Giardello, 160½, Rosedale, N.Y., outpointed Wilf Greaves, 157½, Pittsburgh, 10.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Jimmy Peters, 151, Washington, outpointed Kid Fichique, 150, Havana, 10.
NEW ORLEANS — Ray Terrazas, 147½, Mexico City, outpointed Herbie Rodriguez, 150½, New Orleans, 10.

RICHMOND, Calif. — Hank Casey, 159, San Francisco, outpointed Dick Lane, 160, Boise, Idaho, 10.

SAN JOSE, Calif. — Willie Morton, 142, San Jose, knocked out Steve Tony, 144, Manila, 8.

LONDON — Willie Towel, 156, South Africa, stopped Jose Hernandez, 134, Spain, 9.

Rangers In A Tie For First Place

By UNITED PRESS
The New York Rangers, rapidly becoming the National Hockey League's "cinderella" team, can oust the powerful Montreal Canadiens from first place tonight.

The surprising Rangers, backed up by rookie goalie Marcel Paille's brilliant netminding, had to settle for a 1-1 tie Tuesday night with the Detroit Red Wings in the only deadlock was good enough to put the Rangers into a first place tie with Montreal.

Since the Rangers play the league's only game tonight at Toronto, a tie or a victory would put them in first. However, New York already has played two more games than Montreal.

DeWitt Likely Manager Pick For Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians are looking for a successor to General Manager Hank Greenberg and Bill De Witt, formerly of the St. Louis Browns, appears the likely candidate.

The 55-year-old De Witt has talked with Indians' officials and was undoubtedly to be considered at a meeting of the executive committee of the Tribe's board of directors Wednesday.

"We will have no decision to announce, but if all goes well we may decide to call a board meeting at the earliest possible date," said William R. Daley, board chairman. The five-man executive committee will recommend their choice for Greenberg's job to the 13-man board of directors for approval.

Greenberg, who is one of the directors, was informed three weeks ago that his contract would not be renewed. Slipping attendance and the Indians sixth-place finish were cited for the firing of the one-time home-run king.

Daley left for Europe immediately after announcing Greenberg's firing and called Wednesday's meeting on his return. He has not taken part in the screening of candidates for the job.

"But I was informed of the progress that was made," he said, "and I feel we are moving in the right direction."

De Witt is the only person who has received serious consideration, according to one member of the executive committee. De Witt was in Cleveland last week for what was termed an "exploratory interview" with Indians' officials.

Three of the executive committee said they were favorably impressed by De Witt, now an administrator of baseball's minor league fund.

De Witt is the only person who has received serious consideration, according to one member of the executive committee. De Witt was in Cleveland last week for what was termed an "exploratory interview" with Indians' officials.

Three of the executive committee said they were favorably impressed by De Witt, now an administrator of baseball's minor league fund.

Giardello Posts Unanimous Win

DENVER (UP)—Joey Giardello said today he did his best to make a fight of it in his simple unanimous victory over young Wilf Greaves in a 10-round middleweight bout at Denver Tuesday night.

He couldn't say the same for his 21-year-old Canadian opponent who fights out of Pittsburgh.

"It takes two to make a fight you know," Giardello said when questioned about the boing that echoed through the Denver Coliseum. "I think I did my part."

Giardello, incidentally, has quite a winning streak working. He has won 12 of his last 13 fights. The other was a no-decision bout, so he actually has a winning streak of 12.

Now, Giardello wants to meet one of the top middleweights—champion Carmen Basilio or Gene Fulmer, former champion. Giardello is third-ranked contender behind Sugar Ray Robinson and Fulmer.

Big Three Favored To Win; Ducks Picked Over Huskies

NEW YORK (UP)—Texas A&M, Oklahoma and Auburn — the top dogs of college football — are favored to extend their unbeaten and untied records through another weekend of head-knocking.

The Aggies, who replaced Oklahoma as the top-ranked team in this week's United Press ratings, are picked to defeat Southern Methodist by at least two touchdowns.

Oklahoma is an 18-point favorite.

Pro Gridders Shifted To Fit The Situation

By UNITED PRESS
National Football League fans can add to their enjoyment by trying to check how many different platoons their various heroes play on during a game.

Take a good look next time if you think pro performers play only on offense or defense and have lots of idle time during a game.

The New York Giants merely dramatized a standard procedure last Sunday by using offensive line stars Roosevelt Brown and Jack Stroud on defense to help stop four Green Bay Packers smashes from the one-yard line.

New York has eight different lineups for various situations in each game. The other 11 NFL clubs have as many or more.

Besides its regular offensive and defensive units, New York has a kickoff team, kickoff return unit, place-kicking team, punt return unit, a special defensive lineup for goal-line stands and one which they use on defense when they have a big lead. The latter features the club's fastest men to defend against a shower of passes.

The Cleveland Browns, who sometimes use a special offensive lineup of big men when inside an opponent's 10-yard line, are seven-point favorites against the Pittsburgh Steelers at Cleveland in next Sunday's key game.

In Sunday's other games: The Giants are nine-point choices to beat the Chicago Cardinals at New York; the Bears are favored over the Packers by eight at Chicago; the Rams are favored over the San Francisco Forty-Niners by 2½ at Los Angeles; the Detroit Lions are favored by four against the Eagles at Philadelphia and the Baltimore Colts are one-point choices against the Redskins at Washington.

Herald and News SPORTS

JIM CROW, Sports Editor

MERRILL'S Clifford McKoen had all the anticipated good luck and then a little when fishing recently in the Brookings area. He is pictured with the 31-pound and the 17-pound Chinook salmon he landed with a light casting pole. McKoen said the salmon are just starting to run good in the Chetco River where McKoen made his catch. — Photo by Kettler

Five Braves Elected To AP All Star Nine

NEW YORK (UP)—Battling champions Ted Williams and Stan Musial, five members of the world champion Milwaukee Braves and three from the New York Yankees today were named to The Associated Press major league All-Star team for 1957.

Williams and Musial, the only players from non pennant-winning clubs to make the All-Stars, collected the largest number of votes among 182 members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America, who participated in the AP poll.

Williams, Boston left fielder, was named on 160 ballots. Musial, St. Louis Card first baseman, received 158 votes.

The remainder of the squad was made up of second baseman Red Schoendienst, third baseman Ed Mathews, outfielder Hank Aaron and pitchers Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette of the Braves; and shortstop Gil McDougald, outfielder Mickey Mantle and catcher Yogi Berra of the Yankees.

Williams, Mantle, Aaron and Berra were the only repeaters from last year.

Behind Williams and Musial in this year's balloting came Mathews with 154 votes, McDougald and Mantle with 137 each and Spahn with 115.

The closest vote was between second sacker Schoendienst and the White Sox' Nellie Fox. The Milwaukee star was named on 93 ballots and Fox on 85. Another tight one was in the right-handed pitcher category in which Burdette had 75 votes and Jim Bunning of Detroit 66.

Five of the all-stars batted higher than .300. Williams topped the American League with .388. Musial was first in the National with .351. Mantle finished with .365, Aaron .322 and Schoendienst .309. Mathews wound up at .292, McDougald .289 and Berra .251.

Spahn, with a 21-11 record, reached the 20-mark for the eighth time. Burdette won three World Series games after a 17-9 season slump.

Willie Mays, the Giants' star, was named on 83 ballots and finished fourth among the outfielders. Washington outfielder Roy Stevens, the American League's home run and runs batted in champion, received 20 votes.

Scores

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
BASKETBALL
Boston 111, Detroit 105
St. Louis 115, Syracuse 101

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
HOCKEY
NATIONAL LEAGUE
Detroit 1, New York 1 (tie)

East — Boston College 4 over Boston University; Dartmouth 19 over Columbia; Brown 4 over Cornell; Princeton 14 over Harvard; Yale 7 over Penn; Syracuse 7 over Holy Cross; West Virginia 6 over Pittsburgh.

Midwest — Kansas 5 over Kansas State; Wisconsin 8 over Northwestern; Penn State 20 over Marquette.

South — North Carolina State 17 over William and Mary; Clemson 4 over Maryland; Virginia Tech 2 over Wake Forest; Florida 9 over Georgia; Alabama 7 over Tulane; Mississippi 11 over LSU; Vanderbilt 7 over Kentucky.

Southwest — Texas 5 over Baylor; Pacific Coast — Oregon State 7 over California; Stanford 6 over Southern California.

HAVE US REPLACE

GNIMOC NOOS!

Eht sdlrow tsenif detropmi srac!

ROBIN & MYERS
1200 E. MAIN

AUTO GLASS
Promptly Replaced
For All MODEL

CARS - TRUCKS
KIMBALL'S
GLASS SHOP

521 Walnut Phone TU 4-7378

Ray Wellborn Selected AP Back Of Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ray Wellborn, a substitute fullback on the Navy football team, figured in four touchdowns against Notre Dame last Saturday. One was scored by the opposition. But the three Wellborn tallied himself upset the Irish 29-6 and earned the 183-pound midshipman the designation as Associated Press Back of the Week.

It was a heart-breaking experience when Wellborn fumbled as he was tackled in the first period. Notre Dame's Dick Lynch grabbed the ball and scampered 46 yards for a touchdown.

But the 21-year-old Texan wasn't dismayed. He got that one back with a 79-yard touchdown run after taking a pithout in the second quarter. He plunged for another score in the third, after going 44 yards on a screen pass from Tom Forrestal, and he collaborated on the same screen pass in the final quarter for 32 yards and the third Navy touchdown. In all he ran 10 times for 121 yards.

It was only the third varsity game Wellborn had started. Hampered by a leg injury, he was listed as a junior varsity player last season and after spring practice this year was rated third among Navy fullbacks. He finally earned the starting role after Dick Dasampat was injured. Wellborn, a native of Houston, was a quarterback in high school and played halfback during his freshman year at Rice before entering the Naval Academy.

Other players mentioned for the honor included Jim Jones, Washington; and Jack Morris, Oregon.

Macias rates as a 10-8 betting favorite to gain a clear claim to the title. He laid claim and recognition from the U.S. National Boxing Assn. by knocking out Chamrern Songkitrat of Thailand in San Francisco March 9, 1955, in 11 rounds.

Halimi, the only time he traveled 15 rounds, outpointed Mario d'Agata of Italy in Paris April 1 of this year to win recognition by the World Boxing Championship Committee.

The fighters are in for the biggest payday of their lives and the richest purses of the bantamweight division.

Halimi gets a $50,000 flat guarantee. Macias is guaranteed $30,000 or a percentage of the gate on a sliding scale.

Macias, 23, already wealthy as a rancher, business man and movie actor in Mexico, has agreed to give the 25-year-old native of Algiers a return fight within 90 days in Paris if he wins.

Navy Win Over Irish Brings Coach UP Weekly Honor

By OLIVER MORRISON
United Press Sports Writer

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (UP)—He once said "you have to be a little goofy to be a football coach."

He isn't goofy at all but rather, as one writer once described him, "as knowing as a chief petty officer and as wise as an admiral."

He isn't a braggart but was quick to say "we feel we are going to win every game we play."

He's Eddie Erdelatz of Navy, the United Press Coach of the Week after his Navy team whipped previously unbeaten Notre Dame, 20-6, Saturday and proved that sailors can travel via land and air, too.

Erdelatz has developed possibly the best starting backfield in the nation. In fact, he was so satisfied during spring practice that he called a halt after 17 days (three less than the NCAA limit).

Don't get the idea that the 44-year-old Erdelatz is over-confident. He just knows a good thing when he sees it. When Navy wins, he gives the credit to "our great players." When the Middles lose, he says "it's all my fault."

Living up to personal tradition, Erdelatz attributed the win over Notre Dame to his players, assistant coaches and the Navy student body.

"We have exceptional spirit at the Academy," he explained. "The Midshipmen chipped in 550 to have their cheers piped into the Notre Dame Stadium."

Eddie is easy going, quick to laugh and insists that everyone call him by his first name, a novelty at Annapolis where just about everyone except the waterboys rates a "sir."

After graduation from St. Mary's College in California in 1935, Erdelatz served as line or end coach at his alma mater, the University of San Francisco, Navy and the professional San Francisco 49'ers, with time out for a hitch as a World War II naval officer.

Will Navy beat Army again this year? "We have enough to worry about this week against Duke," Erdelatz smiled. "We play them one at a time."

The Weed Cougars D team edged out the McCloud Loggers 31-30 last week at McCloud. The high point men for Weed were Reed with 17 and Pellegrino with 11 points.

In the C game Weed defeated McCloud 48-20. Fotopolus scored 24 for Weed and Miller led McCloud with nine.

The McCloud C team trimmed Etna at McCloud 38-14 in another game. All the Loggers saw action. The Loggers D team also defeated Etna 36-18. Pederson and Sarti lead McCloud with 11 and 10 points respectively.

Tuesday night's victory squared the Hawks' record at 3-3 and sent them into a first-place tie with idle Cincinnati in the circuit's Western Division.

The champion Boston Celtics ran their unbeaten streak to six games in the opener of the doubleheader at St. Louis' Kiel Auditorium by whipping the Detroit Pistons, 111-105.

The Celtics' sixth straight win enabled them to open up a two and a half game lead on New York in the Eastern Division out they're still a long way from the NBA mark of 15 straight victories at the start of a season — set by Washington in 1948.

Boston is at Minneapolis in tonight's only game.

Blanket Robe
In Shoulder Carrying Case 9.95

32.95 Hodgman Waders 24.95

17.95 Riley Mechanical Duck Decoy 10.95

24.95 Little Scout Smoke House 19.95

12 Ga. Double Barrel Shotgun 39.00

16 Ga. Bolt Action Shotgun 17.50

Shop Till 9 P.M.

JOE'S
Sporting Goods

418 Main

International Flavor In Bantam Title Bout

By BOB MYERS

LOS ANGELES (UP)—The international squabble over the bantamweight championship of the world should be settled Wednesday night when Alphonse Halimi of France and Raul (Raton) Macias of Mexico climb into the ring at Wrigley Field to fight 15 rounds or less.

Most boxing people think it will be less as these two hard punching 118-pounders, Macias the stylist and Halimi a man with a small bomb in each glove, square off to end a dispute that has existed for almost four years in the division.

The bout is set for 7 p.m. and will be televised throughout the nation.

Macias rates as a 10-8 betting favorite to gain a clear claim to the title. He laid claim and recognition from the U.S. National Boxing Assn. by knocking out Chamrern Songkitrat of Thailand in San Francisco March 9, 1955, in 11 rounds.

Halimi, the only time he traveled 15 rounds, outpointed Mario d'Agata of Italy in Paris April 1 of this year to win recognition by the World Boxing Championship Committee.

The fighters are in for the biggest payday of their lives and the richest purses of the bantamweight division.

Halimi gets a $50,000 flat guarantee. Macias is guaranteed $30,000 or a percentage of the gate on a sliding scale.

Macias, 23, already wealthy as a rancher, business man and movie actor in Mexico, has agreed to give the 25-year-old native of Algiers a return fight within 90 days in Paris if he wins.

Macias has won 14 straight for a total of 31 wins. Halimi has won 20. Macias has knocked out 19 foes, Halimi 12.

Macias is 5 feet 4½ tall, Halimi 5-3, while the Frenchman has a longer reach, 66 inches to 54½, and has the sturdier build.

Since the Peacock disaster Macias has won 14 straight for a total of 31 wins. Halimi has won 20. Macias has knocked out 19 foes, Halimi 12.

Macias is 5 feet 4½ tall, Halimi 5-3, while the Frenchman has a longer reach, 66 inches to 54½, and has the sturdier build.

Bob Newman Tops College Net Offense

NEW YORK (UP)—Bob Newman of Washington State reaped his reward today for his brilliant performance in last Saturday's 39-25 loss to Oregon State when he went into the lead in the major college individual total offense lead.

Newman, who completed 17 of 25 passes for 243 yards and three touchdowns, has amassed a total of 1,001 yards in seven games. That puts him 27 yards ahead of Utah State's Bob Winters and 43 ahead of Colorado's Bob Stranksy.

Navy's Tom Forrestal ranks fourth and Iowa State's Tom Nichols is fifth.

Stranksy has taken a solid hold on the rushing lead with 764 yards in seven games compared to the second-place figure of 676 yards by Jim Bakhtiar, Virginia's Persian prince. Arizona State's Leon Burton is third and New Mexico's Don Perkins is fourth.

Furman's Billy Baker is the current leader in passing but is likely to drop out of the No. 1 spot next Saturday because he does not play. Baker has completed 70 of 115 passes for 799 yards and five touchdowns.

Close behind are Newman, with 69 completions in 125 tosses for 912 yards and nine touchdowns and Winters with 68-129 for 941 and six touchdowns.

Arizona (Tempe) State is the team leader in both scoring and total offense while Mississippi leads in rushing offense.

Arizona (Tempe) State is the team leader in both scoring and total offense while Mississippi leads in rushing offense.

Arizona (Tempe) State is the team leader in both scoring and total offense while Mississippi leads in rushing offense.

Arizona (Tempe) State is the team leader in both scoring and total offense while Mississippi leads in rushing offense.

</