 Ralph Donald Johnston, 27, Keno, $23, hunting prohibited hours.
 Alfred John Musshafen, 33, 2303 Home Avenue, $100, false application for hunting license.
 Thomas Earl Carland, 48, 732 N. 11th, $15, hunting prohibited methods.
 Melvin Cleve Smith, 24, Route 2, Box 810B, $15, hunting prohibited hours.
 Charles Edward Hurst, 18, Route 1, Box 879, $15, hunting prohibited hours.

Thanksgiving Rites Slated

The Klamath Ministerial Association, Klamath Council of Churches, and the Klamath County Young Mens Christian Association will sponsor a special Thanksgiving worship service in Mills School auditorium at 10:30 a.m. on Thanksgiving Day, November 28.

Members of all churches that are not having special services and all others are invited to attend this service and offer thanks to the Creator.

Offerings at the service will be divided between the American Bible Society and "Share Your Surplus" for overseas giving.

Youth groups of the community will take a prominent place in the service. Announcement of the sermon topic and the pastors will be given later. A massed choir of voices from the several churches will sing.

The Rev. Dallas McNeil, pastor of the First Methodist Church, chairman, is being assisted in plans for the service by the Rev. E. J. Glover, pastor of the Community Church of the Brethren.

Actress Files Damage Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A $150,200 damage suit has been filed by actress Signe Hasso over the traffic death of her son, Henry, 22, who was killed last January.

The suit, filed yesterday, named Louis Keith Willis, the driver, and Thomas Brascia, owner of the car in which the actress' son was riding. The car slammed into a power pole in suburban Sun Valley.

Young Hasso, an actor, had just returned from a film role in Germany, where his father, Harro Hasso, is a movie director.

Annual Event Conducted By Basin Church Women

TULELAKE — Members of the Lower Klamath United Church Women contributed to the program for World Community Day held on November 1 at the Mt. Laki Community Church. The annual meeting opened at 11 a.m. with Mrs. George Smalley, Malin, president; Mrs. George Kurtz, Merrill, vice president, and Mrs. Merle Loosley, Malin, secretary-treasurer, in the chairs.

Women of the Mt. Laki Church served luncheon to 51 members present. Mrs. Jay Fairclough and Mrs. Dayton Finchum, Mt. Laki, were luncheon and program chairmen. During the luncheon hour, Mrs. Jim O'Donahue illustrated the impressive story of "The Church of the Lighted Lamps," written by an anonymous author.

The worship hour was held in the sanctuary. The Rev. Lloyd A. Henderson, pastor of the Merrill Presbyterian Church opened the service with prayer. Mrs. Richard Fleming of the Mt. Laki Church led the congregation in responsive reading. Mrs. O'Donahue at the piano, and Mrs. Dayton Finchum at the electric organ played for the hymns sung.

The Malin Presbyterian Church contributed two vocal numbers. Mrs. J. Walter Browning, accompanied by Mrs. Laddie Rajnus, sang "Faith Opened the Door," and Mrs. Jerry Brown sang, "God Bless This House."

Mrs. George Smalley reported on the purpose of World Community Day, the purpose of the clothing and cash collection, and explained how the clothing was distributed. A total of $19.45 was collected in addition to several hundred pounds of clothing.

Third Sputnik Plan Reported

LONDON (AP)—Reports reaching London today from usually reliable sources said the Soviet Union soon will send up a third Sputnik—twice as big as Sputnik II and with another live dog aboard.

The reports said Sputnik III will weigh a ton and will be sent even higher into space than the second Soviet moon. The latter went up just over 1,000 miles.

The next launching was described as part of a long range program in which Soviet scientists will probe farther and farther into space.

Malin Youths To Attend Meet

MALIN—Attending a Westminster Youth Fellowship Conference in Eugene, November 9, 10 and 11, will be eight Malin youths from the Community Presbyterian Church.

Meetings will be held at the new Central Presbyterian Church in Eugene and will be attended by young people from Oregon and Washington. Guest speaker will be Sara E. Perkins, the Presbyterian missionary most recently released from Red China after over four years in a prison camp.

Those attending from the Malin Westminster Fellowship group will be Nancy O'Riley, Karen Rajnus, Phyllis Unruh, Ed Stastny, Stan Petrask and Jim Long. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Ed Greene.

A film, "Prisoner Triumphant," the story of a courageous missionary in China, Sara Perkins, who was held a prisoner in that country for four and a half years by the Communists. Jack Horn, Bonanza, sponsored by Odd Fellows and Rebekahs from Klamath and Lake Counties as one of a group of 16 young people sent from Oregon to sessions of the United Nations in New York, also showed a film, "United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth."

The speaker was well-informed and his presentation of the subject was inspiring. Membership in the Lower Klamath Basin United Church Women includes women from churches of Newell, Tulelake, Dorris, Malin, Merrill and Mt. Laki.
