THEIR BIRTHDAYS were celebrated by a joint party given in their honor at the Langell Valley Community Hall October 29. Ramona Boomer, left, became 8 years old and Susie Wootens, right, was 9.

Two Young Lasses Celebrate Birthdays

LANGELL VALLEY — A combination birthday and Halloween party was given at the community hall in Langell Valley on October 29 in honor of Susie Wootens ninth birthday and Ramona Boomer's eighth birthday.

The hall was decorated with black and orange crepe paper, pumpkins and other traditional Halloween decorations. Balloons with new pennies hung from the ceiling and were released for the children to catch. They played games, dunked for apples and ate doughnuts suspended from a string from the ceiling.

The big decorated double sheet cake, with "Ramona" and eight candles on one end and "Susie" and nine candles on the other, was flanked by gifts on each side. The party from 4 until 5:30 p.m.

Be Yourself Your Best Self

Developing your own style of beauty means that you study yourself with care, choose clothes and makeup most flattering to you, and, above all, never copy the current movie rage. It also means that you learn that what may be great for your best girl friend is poison for you. If pink flatters her but makes you look like something just helped from her coffin, pass up pink. It may be that blue does wonderful things for you. In that case, despite your secret yearnings for pink, learn to wear blue.

was attended by 45 youngsters. Sharon Husted and Scott Wooten helped with the games and contests. Other adults included Mrs. Bill Hartley, Mrs. Marvin Brown, Mrs. Robert Hartley, Mrs. Ross Clark, Mrs. Wooten and Mrs. Boomer.

MONTAGUE

ROTARY ANNS

Highlight of the evening's program of the Montague Rotary Anns recent dinner meeting was a talk given by Ann Griffith who told of her adventures while on her recent trip to Europe.

Following the dinner Miss Griffith, who had been away for one year, was introduced to the group by the president, Mrs. Charles Phillips. Miss Griffith lived the largest portion of her year abroad in Spain, taking many side trips during that time. Included in her itinerary were the Canary Islands, Tangiers, France, Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland and many others.

Mrs. Harold Cool and Mrs. Wilson Grazer were hostesses for the evening.

Those who still enjoy filling their winter pantries with home-canned goods know the value of proper sealing. Reusing old rubber rings is dangerous. These rings become porous and fail to do a proper job. Spoilage may result and cause illness or even death.

WEED

DANCING CLUB

The festivities of the Weed Dancing Club opened with the first dance of the season Saturday night, October 19, at St. Michaels Hall. Social tables were centered with duck decoys and lighted candles were set in paper duck blinds to carry out "duck hunt," theme of the evening. A centerpiece of cat-tails and reeds made up the table decorations for the buffet midnight supper served to three guest couples and 38 member couples.

Partners matched numbered ducks for a featured matched-partner dance of the evening. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Glica, John Laker, Betty Study, Betty Seltz and Sam Mazzei.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Rossetto were chairmen for the evening, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. John Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Rossetto, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mallory, Mr. and Mrs. Elvy Marzoni and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Soletti.
