

20-30 Club In Busy Slate

ALTURAS—The 20-30 Club members have a busy schedule for November and December, according to Shinn Yamagata, publicity chairman.

The 20-30 bicycle safety check is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at the close of the school day. All parents are urged to cooperate in this project to help insure the safety of their youngsters.

The community birthday calendar project is underway and the proceeds will be used in further youth programs in Alturas.

November 30 will mark the kick-off of the merchants' Yuletide season with the appearance of Santa Claus and the distribution of candy to the youngsters.

The Alturas 20-30 Club's annual pre-Christmas show, co-sponsored by the Sacramento Bee and KFBK, will be held at the Niles Theater, through the courtesy of the owner, Johnnie Dolezal, on December 16.

On December 17 is planned the biggest basketball attraction of the season when the famous Harlem Clowns will meet the well known House of David team.

At last week's meeting, the local 20-30 Club added another youth program to the list by sponsoring Boy Scout Troop 49.

PTA In Host Role To CTA

DORRIS — The local PTA was host at a dinner at the Dorris City Hall last Thursday evening for the California Teachers Association.

Teachers attended from Tulare, Macdon, Mt. Hebron, Red Rock, Grass Lake and Dorris. The turkey dinner was prepared by PTA President Barbara Egeline; Virginia Hamilton, hospitality chairman; Dee Ann Stubb, finance and budget chairman; Lois Maxwell, magazine chairman, and Winnie Barnett. Tables were decorated with horns of plenty, bowls of mixed mums and lighted candles.

Bob Manley, Mount Shasta High School teacher and chairman of the state committee, was guest speaker. His topic was "Moral and spiritual values."

Three members of the county school supervisors staff who attended were Paul Fisher, Yreka, association superintendent; Mrs. Paul Fisher, of the audio-visual office and Bob Dias, county staff, Yreka.

High school girls serving the dinner were Thaya Olson and Sandy Miller, seniors; Kay Hamilton, Beverly Houston and Lindell Hamilton, juniors.

More Than 150 Attend Carnival

NEW PINE CREEK—More than 150 persons attended the Willow Ranch Carnival, sponsored on Halloween night by the Willow Ranch PTA.

The evening started with a costume parade with prizes for outstanding costumes. Popular vote elected Billie Morgan as king and Jeanie Fossum as queen. Carol Griffin won the prize for the prettiest costume, Robert Thompson the ugliest, Vickie Mulkey the most elaborate, Vern and Robbin Vincent, the best pair, Darla Vincent, the youngest and Jeff Griffin, the best character.

Police Ball Set For Wednesday

The annual Klamath Falls Police Men's Ball will be held Wednesday evening, November 27, at the armory, Spring and Main streets. Furnishing the music will be Billy Jack Wills and his all western band.

Police Beneficiary Association President James M. Brown adds that all money received from the sale of tickets will be used for the education, recreation and welfare funds of the police department.

Proceeds from previous dances have been used for financing construction of the police shooting range which is the site of Klamath Falls Police Junior Rifle Club training courses.
