Watchmaker

We'll bet you faithfully get the car greased every 1000 miles without fail, and that's good . . . because with proper service it will run trouble-free for years. But how long has it been since your watch has been lubed, had the oil changed and checked over? This delicate piece of machinery needs an oil change once in a while, too. Bring yours in for a FREE check up and give it a chance to serve you better for years to come.
