

MEREDITH RUGE has smiled at patrons of Western Union Telegraph Company in Klamath Falls for 15 years. The 15th anniversary rolled around while she was on vacation a short time ago and this week the Herald and News photographer caught up with her at her desk where she adds up figures as accountant and district cashier for the Klamath Falls office and its agents. Meredith also handles the keys to send and receive messages.

Drunk Charge Fine Issued

DORRIS — Larry Smooth, 23, who gave his address as 634 North Eighth, Klamath Falls, entered a plea of guilty to driving while intoxicated and driving a car with an expired registration when he appeared Tuesday before Judge Les Chase in Dorris. Smooth was arrested by California Highway Patrolman Virgil Winkelman Jr. about 1:15 a.m. on Sunday. Winkelman said he was driving south on Highway 97 and was in the northbound center traffic lane on the Dorris hill at the time he stopped him. Judge Chase imposed a total fine of $273 or 55 days in the county jail. Constable Archie Brimmer left with Smooth on Tuesday night for Yreka where he will serve his sentence.

Soviets Planning Trip To Moon With Mouse Rocket

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet scientists are calculating the course of a rocket flight to the planet Mars in the hope this can follow a much shorter round trip voyage by a mouse to the moon. The United States Air Force received this report of Russian technical intentions last June, in a "Casebook on Soviet Astronautics" prepared by the Rand Research Corp.

Segregator Seeks Trial

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Arguments for a new contempt of court trial were planned today for Northern segregationist John Kasper and six east Tennesseans in U.S. District Court here.

Kasper and six residents of the nearby Clinton, Tenn., area were convicted by an all-white jury last July of criminal contempt in violating Judge Robert L. Taylor's injunction against interfering with desegregation at Clinton High School.

Taylor ordered the defendants to be present for the oral arguments today. He was expected to pronounce sentence immediately in the event the new trial motions were denied. Maximum sentence for each is six months in jail and $1,000 fine.

Electrical Helpers Aid US Workman

CINCINNATI (AP) — A Chicago man said Wednesday that each factory worker has the equivalent of 279 helpers in the form of electrical work.

Addressing the convention of the National Electrical Contractors' Assn., Edwin Vennard, said that "98.5 per cent of our work is done by machinery."

"Our American factories produce more than half of all the world's goods with the help of machinery," Vennard said.

"By placing more and better tools in the hands of the American worker, we enable him to increase his real income in terms of what he can buy, as well as raising the standard of living in the entire nation."

Vennard is managing director and vice president of Edison Electric Institute.

TALKS PROGRESSING

CAIRO (UP) — Anglo-Egyptian financial negotiations in Rome are progressing, "although differences of viewpoints still exist," the Egyptian Finance Ministry said today. A ministry spokesman said Hassan Zaki, chief of the Egyptian delegation, received fresh instructions Tuesday from Finance Minister Abdel Kaysouni. The negotiations deal with financial problems resulting from the Suez crisis last year.
