Klamath Potatoes Scalloped With Ham

Scalloped potatoes become a whole meal when slices of ham are added, along with cheese in the sauce. Well-seasoned Scalloped Ham and Potatoes make a fine hearty meal for a crisp day, and there's a minimum of preparation involved, as this is made with canned white sauce. There's no curdling when this smooth creamy sauce is used as a base for scalloped potatoes.

SCALLOPED HAM AND POTATOES

1 (10½-ounce) can white sauce or make your own
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 cup grated American cheese
4 cups sliced raw potatoes
½ pound sliced ham (raw or cooked)

Combine white sauce, mustard, salt and milk, and blend well. Stir in cheese. Arrange potatoes and ham in layers in greased baking dish. Pour sauce over all, and jiggle dish to allow sauce to run down through potatoes. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 1½ to 1¾ hours, until potatoes are tender. Cover dish first hour of baking.

Makes five to six servings.

MUFFINS
