

Nurse Trains In KF Clinic

Barbara Loehr, student nurse from the University of Oregon School of Nursing, is spending two months with the Klamath County Health Department. Public health is an area of training for the stuenables the student to gain a broader aspect of the field of nursing but also provides opportunity to recruit additional workers into the vital field of public health. Miss Loehr is the daughter of Mrs. Stella Chlopek of Bend. Her field experience in public health, she is living with her sister, Mrs. P. J. Chlopek Jr. of Klamath Falls.

Church Tells Crusade Plans

The Parrish Evangelistic Crusade being held by First Christian Church at Ninth and Pine streets has been marked by mounting enthusiasm and good attendance. Pastor Otis Bell said today. Eighteen members have been added to the local congregation and many others are expected to respond to the invitation before the end of the campaign Sunday night. Baptismal services have been held at almost every evening service.

Evangelist Parrish plans to speak tonight on the theme "The Sin Which Cannot Be Forgiven," and a gift is to be given to the Bible School class with the largest percentage of its enrollment present. Sunday morning his topic is "Why I Am A Christian," and Sunday evening at 7:30 he will present the final message of the crusade, entitled "The Holy City." Soloist Edith Parrish will sing the widely loved song of the same name.

A reception in honor of the members of the Parrish Evangelistic team is planned for the hour immediately following the final service of the crusade Sunday evening. The public is cordially invited to share in it.

LOS ANGELES (UP)—A little girl, whose gnawing conscience got the best of her, sent a letter to the city park and recreation commission with 10 cents enclosed. The unsigned letter said: "Dear Sirs, this is 10 cents I didn't pay at the pool because I posed as a girl under 12. Once my girlfriend paid for me like that. The other time I did it under those circumstances."

Grange Head Attends Meet

FORT ROCK—Members of Fort Rock Grange Saturday night voted to send their master, Edwin A. Eskelin, to the National Grange Convention at Colorado Springs via chartered Trailways bus. Eskelin left on Tuesday from Bend on a special tour of grangers which features sightseeing as well as attending key sessions of the national convention. Tribute was paid to Eskelin for his years of service to the local grange. He is completing his seventh year as master and has been reelected to the post for next year. He is also ending his first term as Lake County Farmers Home Administration loan situation for the basin, grangers voted to appeal to our senators and congressman. This will be in the form of a request for the transfer of this area from the Klamath Falls to the Redmond administrative office. In a conference with K. W. Sawyer of Portland, state director of FHA, a grange committee was informed in May that recent changes will permit districting of FHA areas rather than a county boundary setup. Sawyer pointed out at that time that this would make it more feasible for of collecting fees—that of 10 cents per head at terminal markets at the time of brand inspection—fearing that it would be too much of a burden on feeders." An effort will be made to rewrite the bill, he pointed out, to avoid having any segment of the bill unsatisfactory. Other discussion centered around efforts to obtain telephone service in the Fort Rock Basin.

SCOUTS MEET

DUNSMUIR — Jerrold Woods was inducted as the new scoutmaster of Troop 26, Boy Scouts of America, at ceremonies at the Methodist Church last week. Joe Kelby, neighborhood commissioner of the Shasta - Silverpit District, was master of ceremonies. Both parents and scouts attended this reactivation meeting.

Fort Rock Basin to be served by the Redmond office. Behind this request for transfer was a request that loans here had been approved but not granted because of lack of funds, yet FHA money was available in certain other areas, including Redmond.

Lake County's brucellosis testing program and an agricultural planning conference scheduled for 1 p.m. November 19 at Fort Rock were discussed by agriculture committee chairman Jess Miles. R. A. Long, a member of the state board of agriculture, reported on the results of the statewide hearings regarding the establishment of a beef commission. "Everywhere there were very favorable reports," he stated, "but in the grain country there was opposition to the suggested method
