CHARLES M. DEWITT

KF Railroader Gets New Post

A Klamath Falls resident, Charles M. (Chuck) DeWitt, was one of three men in the United States named as an interstate commerce locomotive inspector. DeWitt qualified after successfully completing a civil service examination, involving candidates from all parts of the nation.

He left this week for Washington, D.C. for an orientation period, to be followed by his assignments for duty. He has served for some time as a fireman on the Great Northern Railroad, operating on the Klamath Division. DeWitt is a native of Klamath Falls and received his early education here. During World War II he served with the Coast Guard.

Mrs. DeWitt will remain for a time in Klamath Falls. DeWitt is a brother of Mrs. Frank Steele, 3704 Cannon Avenue.

Home — Mr. and Mrs. James Rafferty of McCloud report that their son, Terry, has completed four years' service with the Air Force, including overseas duty in Italy, and received his honorable discharge at Alexandria, Louisiana.

Baby — A daughter, Lee Ann, weighing 6 lbs., 3 ozs., was born on November 2 in McCloud Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Halkyard, their second daughter. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jordon of McCloud.

Social Meeting — Fourteen members of the Past Noble Grand Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Ann Douglass of Mount Shasta with Mrs. Euphemia Hernohan of McCloud as co-hostess. Mrs. Helen Hegre of McCloud won high prize, Mrs. Hilda Stone, low.

Visit Ends — Mac MacDowell, who had been visiting at the Les Elder home in Summer Lake for the past month, left for his home in Los Angeles last Wednesday.

On Vacation — Mr. and Mrs. Kale Jeffries of Joseph, Oregon, have been spending their vacation in Paisley with his mother, Mrs. Melva Jeffries. They spent last Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. Les Elder and family in Summer Lake.

To Spokane — Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Harris left Tuesday morning for Spokane to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Fry. They expect to return to Summer Lake early next week.

To Seattle — Mrs. Louis Hanson and Mrs. George Hanson returned to Seattle November 1. Mrs. Louis Hanson had been caring for her mother, Mrs. Bud Currier of Summer Lake, following a recent operation. Mrs. Currier is sufficiently recovered to manager without her daughter's assistance.

Family Home — George Carlson left Summer Lake Friday, November 1, to attend the homecoming game at Oregon State College in Corvallis. He returned Sunday, ac-compared by his wife and two sons who had been in Portland for several weeks. Mrs. Carlson was able to return home much earlier than expected following complicated surgery in a Portland hospital last month.

Ill — Mrs. Guy Foster of Summer Lake has been restricted to her home for the past two weeks with bronchitis which followed an attack of the flu.

From Klamath Falls — Sunday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Foster in Summer Lake were their daughter, Mrs. Newman Kimes and family of Klamath Falls. They were all Monday dinner guests of the James Foster family.

Convention — John Withers, prominent sheep rancher in Summer Lake, left last Wednesday to attend the Oregon Wool Growers Association meeting in Portland. He returned Monday night.

Moves to Bend — Helmer (Shorty) Gustafson, a resident of Fort Rock for many years, came the past weekend to move his belongings to Bend, including his horse, Julia. Gustafson is to be in charge of the riding horses for a girl's camp which operates during the summer and has purchased property near Bend.

Fort Rock — Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Long over the weekend were her mother, Mrs. N. R. Workman, and her sister, Neva Workman, of Marcola. Miss Workman is an elementary school teacher.

Silver Lake — Terry Kinsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Kinsey, was home from Paisley High School for the weekend. He assisted with branding and vaccinating at the Ed Albertsen ranch.

Arrival — An 8 lb., 13½ oz. son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chapman of Merrill, on November 7, at 3:45 a.m. Named Dean Alan. He joins two sisters, Cheryl Lynn, four, and Vickie Ann, six.

Fifth Child — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jackson of Merrill became the parents of a fifth child and third daughter when Karen Jane arrived at Klamath Valley Hospital November 9, at 3:35 p.m. The little girl, who weighed 8½ lbs., and her mother are reported doing nicely and are now at their home in Merrill.

Fort Rock — Mrs. F. A. Frazee returned from Eugene Saturday, bringing her mother, Mrs. Josephine Chamberlin, for an indefinite stay.

Bonanza — Mrs. Mabel Maxwell spent several days at Redding with her mother, Mrs. Maude Pool, and other relatives.

Successful — The annual turkey dinner and bazaar given November 9 by St. Barnabas Guild of Langell Valley was a big success. There were 1,049 beans in the jar which caused so much fun and guesses as to the amount were from 250 to 2,000. Bill Cunningham was the nearest guesser.

Bill Nork — of Sweet Home spent several days in Langell Valley with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Nork. Weekend visitors at the Norks were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nork and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nork and daughter of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Nork of Bly.

Son Born — Mr. and Mrs. Donald Welch of Enid, Oklahoma, announce the arrival of John Wayne. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Welch of Langell Valley and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tidrick of Bonanza. The mother is the former Lillian Tidrick. Donald is in the Air Force at Enid.

Delbert Settle — son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Settle of Langell Valley is spending a few days here. He has been in the Air Force for the past four years. He was stationed at Austin, Texas. Mrs. Settle is with her parents in Grants Pass.

Meeting — The Bonanza Parents and Patrons Club will meet in the school auditorium on November 25. The 4-H awards will be given that night and 4-H members will put on the program after the business meeting. Public invited.

Guests — Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chandler came from Fresno to visit Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ayoutt at New Pine Creek last Monday and Tuesday. They had attended the wedding of Ivy Nelson and Eugene Van Leun at Halsey.

Ray Cloud — son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Cloud of New Pine Creek, attended a Future Farmers of America meeting last weekend at Chico as a member of the Alluras High School judging team.

Bill Partin — of South Prairie, Washington, arrived in New Pine Creek last Wednesday to visit his brothers, Roy and Mark Partin and their families and to do a little hunting.

New Pine Creek — Only two local persons, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McLaughlin, reported having their radio on when the dog-bearing Russian satellite came over San Francisco at 5:25 a.m. recently, giving its directional flight. They looked outside and saw it come through the Big Dipper to the southwest and disappear in seconds over Crane Mountain to the northeast.

Visitors — at the Art Lenkeit home in New Pine Creek recently were Mr. and Mrs. Max Zischank of Long Valley, California (who operate a motel near Bishop) and Mr. and Mrs. George Austin of Los Angeles. They visited for about a week and did considerable hunting, claiming afterward that the migratory waterfowl flights were more foul than fowl.

Grange — The regular meeting of the New Pine Creek Grange will be held Saturday evening with a program and dancing to follow the social hour.

Reception — will be held Saturday starting at 5 p.m. at the Carroll Mulkey home in New Pine Creek to honor the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. James Clayburn.

Helen Puckett — of Klamath Falls spent last weekend with her sister, Mrs. Juanita Robnett and family at New Pine Creek.

James Smith — Lakeview High School class of 1954, now living on his own homestead near Anchorage, Alaska, visited last weekend with his former classmate, Larry Fossum, at Willow Ranch. Jimmy has two Husky dog teams which he races professionally and uses for exploring and prospecting. His mother is teaching at Anchorage.

Motel Guests — Special guests at the State Line Motel at New Pine Creek and old friends of the Irvin Paris family included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham and son, Robert of Jasper, Oregon; Hugh Lube, Eugene's Emerald baseball team manager; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Laird of Bend, formerly of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thompson, owners of Cafe 58 on the Willamette Pass. They were guests at the grange bazaar on Saturday night after a week's hunting and were going to hunt at Summer Lake on their way home.

Visiting — Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Mulkey left New Pine Creek on Tuesday with Mrs. Kirt Mulkey to visit at Seio with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mulkey, former New Pine Creek residents.

Radio — The Rev. Jeff Swinney has started putting a 15-minute program on the air over KQIK, Lakeview, at 9 a.m. each Sunday morning and invites all Lake County listeners.
