Pair Married Despite Many Big Delays

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (AP)—Three times Howard Lawson and Mary Sylvester heard the minister intone, "I now pronounce you man and wife."
Once in the minister's parlor, a second time under a street light in rural Mansfield and finally in a car 35 miles from home against the background of "The Star Spangled Banner."
And only the last ceremony—Saturday—really counted.
The trouble could all be laid to red tape and geography.
Howard, of nearby Normal, and Mary of Bloomington decided last Thursday to get married. They drove some 60 miles to Urbana for their blood test and returned to Bloomington for the legal three-day waiting period.
Saturday morning they learned the blood samples had been spilled and they would have to take another test. They did and then went to the Champaign County clerk to pick up the marriage license. But the clerk said there was an error on the certificate. Another dash to the laboratory and then seconds before the noon closing time the clerk issued a marriage license.

Howard and Mary were married Saturday evening by the Rev. Roy Doland of Bloomington. But the minister noticed that the license was issued in Champaign County and the ceremony wasn't legal in Bloomington (McClean County).
So the wedding party—bride, groom, minister and two witnesses—drove to Mansfield, where the Rev. Doland obliged a second time beneath a street light.
That seemed to take care of everything, so the newlyweds headed back to Bloomington to celebrate.
But at 10:30 Saturday night the Rev. Mr. Doland telephoned and told the couple: Mansfield isn't in Champaign County either—it's six miles short, in Piatt County.
A two-car motor caravan sped to Mahomet, where it was ascer-

U.S., Russian Talks Backed

LONDON (AP)—George F. Kennan urged the Western Allies last night to abandon their opposition to bilateral negotiations with the Russians.
"Coalitions are poor negotiators, particularly when anything positive is to be achieved," said the leading American expert on Soviet affairs in the second of a lecture series he is giving over the British Broadcasting Corp.
The United States, Britain and France have steadfastly rejected Soviet suggestions for U.S.-Russian talks on major world issues. The British and French fear such bilateral negotiations would force them into the back seat.
"I am sure the people of the world would prefer that we make some sort of progress privately rather than that we continue to get nowhere in a series of sterling public demonstrations of Atlantic unity," said Kennan, the former U.S. ambassador to Moscow and author of the West's containment policy.

Swim Star, Husband Part

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Swimming star Esther Williams and her husband of 12 years, Ben Gage, have separated.
Gage, 45, a former radio announcer, also is the business partner of Miss Williams.
The 34-year-old actress said, "Ben has moved out of the house so we can try to work out our difficulties without disturbing the harmony of the home."
She disclosed that there had been two previous separations, hitherto unpublicized. The couple has three children, Benjie, 5; Kimball, 7; and Susan, 4.

Probers Seek Union's Files

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today that Senate racketeers investigators have subpoenaed files of the International Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners.
The investigators refused yesterday to say what they were looking for, a Washington dispatch to the newspaper added.
The story also said in part:
The move is expected to "refuel the political controversy" over the Senate committee investigating racketeers in the fields of labor and management.
Maurice A. Hutcheson, head of the union, like his late father William who preceded him in the job, is a Republican.
Frank Chapman, union treasurer, said investigators appeared Friday at union headquarters in Indianapolis with a subpoena.
Chapman said the subpoena was a broad one, and he did not know specifically what was wanted. "We are cooperating with them," he added.
Robert F. Kennedy, chief counsel of the Senate committee, declined to say what he was seeking or when he expected hearings on the Carpenters' affairs. The union has about 750,000 members.
