

RR, Unions End Dispute

CHICAGO (AP) — The Santa Fe Railroad today entered into a union shop agreement with 15 non-operating unions, ending a seven-year dispute and heading off a strike scheduled for Friday morning.

The settlement, affecting some 42,000 Santa Fe employees, was reached about 2 a.m. It climaxed 16 hours of nearly continuous meetings among union representatives, company officials and federal mediators.

The agreement, announced by Francis A. O'Neill, chairman of the National (railway) Mediation Board, was termed "a complete victory" by union spokesmen. O'Neill was assisted in the final negotiations by mediation board member Robert Boyd.

George E. Leighty, president of the Railroad Telegraphers Union and chairman of the 15 unions' joint negotiating committee, said the agreement is similar to pacts signed with the nation's Eastern railroads five years ago.

The unions, representing the railway's off-train employees, announced a Nov. 22 strike date last Friday after meetings in Washington broke up without making any apparent headway.

The only point at issue was the union shop, a point which makes union membership a condition of employment.

The agreement provides that all present nonunion and new employees, who otherwise would be required to become members of the nonoperating unions, will not be required to become full members, but will be required to pay dues, fees and assessments.

Fred G. Gurley, chief executive officer and chairman of the board of Santa Fe, said the agreement is therefore a modified union shop, since under many union shop clauses employees are required to become full members.

He added in a statement: "Now that this controversy is behind us and the public has been spared a costly transportation strike, our entire organization will be able to devote their full energies to providing necessary services for our shippers and passengers."

Gifts From Pupils Banned

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Competition in gift giving has caused school officials in a Rochester suburb to rule that there are to be no more apples for teacher.

The principals of the 13 schools in the West Irondequoit School District said in a letter to parents, "In the last few years, the monetary value of gifts to teachers by pupils has increased to a point where a problem has been created."

"Since children are required by law to attend school, it is our feeling that they should not be subjected to competition in the presentation of gifts to the teachers."

Both girls attend Mills School. A potluck dinner prepared by mothers of the members was served to 342 daughters, their fathers and other guests. Seventeen Camp Fire groups of Fairhaven, Mills, Riverside elementary schools and Fremont Junior High School, of the central district, were present. Sheriff Murray Britton spoke on the theme, "Meet the People," which is this year's Camp Fire project.

U.S. Ousts Red Leader

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Russian woman, described by government witnesses as an active Communist party organizer after she entered the United States, has been ordered deported.

Mrs. Jean Kramer, 44, a native of Gomel, Russia, is the wife of Harry Klotz-Kramer, former circulation manager of the left wing weekly, People's World. She refused to testify at the hearings out of which the deportation order stemmed.

Her attorney, George Anderson, said the order by the immigration hearing officer, Monroe Kroll, would be appealed.

Christmas Club Checks Mailed

DUNSMUIR — Christmas saving account checks amounting to $50,707.97 were mailed to Bank of America Christmas club members in Dunsmuir and vicinity on Friday according to Paul Alcouffe, bank manager.

This sum is $15,000 more than club members saved last year. Alcouffe said, and should supply a year end spending spurt for the community. There are 386 local Christmas club savers receiving these checks. While some depositors save for Christmas spending, others save during the year for insurance and tax payments through the club savings system.

TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE is the way we Dodge dealers feel about competitors' efforts to match the Swept-Wing 58. They lowered the roof some, but left the sides high. Their windshields got smaller while ours got bigger. So much for styling. Then, for another important comparison, take ride. Here's Dodge with Torsion-Aire suspension that just about everybody admits is the greatest advance in sway-free, dip-free, silent going that any car offers. So what do these other cars do? They borrow an air suspension system that's been used in buses for two years! (Costing well over $100.00 extra.) And most of 'em still don't have push-button driving—much less Dodge TorqueFlite—the proven automatic transmission. If you're a little disappointed in the '58 version of your car, come on in and see our Swept-Wing 58. The others are catching on—but they can't catch up.
