

THE MAKING OF DECORATIONS for holidays is a fascinating venture. Members of the Klamath Art Association have spent hours preparing for the Christmas Art Fair to be held at the Mountain View Art Center, November 22, 23, 24, 29, 30, and December 1. Clockwise, starting lower left are Paul Guest, Polly Nixon, Bette Shoenoe, Mrs. B. B. Blomquist and Mrs. Ed Casey.

Tulelake Club Has Meeting

TULELAKE — Members of the Tulelake Nite Club, meeting November 14 in regular session at the home of Mrs. H. A. McGee, took donations for the Thanksgiving box and made plans for the annual Christmas party. The meeting followed a 1 p.m. potluck luncheon.

Thanksgiving readings were given by Alma Coulson, Ruth Roderberger, Dorothy Ager, Hollis Boyd, and Polly Kappen, Macdoel club president.

The Christmas party will be held at the Sportsman's Hotel, at 7 p.m., December 12, husbands of members to be guests. All Daughters of the Nile members and their escorts will be welcome. Reservations for the dinner should be made by calling Mrs. Dorothy Ager at Tulelake, 7-2222. Members of the club are to take gifts for men guests to be sent with other gifts to the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital.

Four members of the Tulelake club attended the ceremonial in Grants Pass on November 16, including Mrs. A. G. Boyd, Mrs. A. W. Hardman, Mrs. Earl Ager, and Mrs. Betty Kelley. Mrs. Don Porterfield and Mrs. Stanley Brown were initiated into the Tulelake club.

The ceremonial honored the official visit of Supreme Queen Gladys W. Chapman, San Antonio, Texas. During the meeting, the Tulelake group presented a $25 certificate to the endowment fund. Tulelake and Macdoel husbands of members present for the banquet during the ceremonial were Elmer Kappen, A. G. Boyd and Earl Ager.

REBELS KILL SIX
