

Russ Pledge More Economic, Technical Aid To Egyptians

MOSCOW (AP)—Egypt's war minister, Maj. Gen. Abdel Hakim Amer, today is carrying home a new Soviet agreement pledging economic and technical assistance to President Nasser's government.

Premier Bulganin announced the aid pledge at a Kremlin banquet last night honoring Amer, who has been conferring with Soviet leaders and visiting military installations.

Agents Seize Cuban Rebels

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Security agents and a federal grand jury dug into Cuban rebels' south Florida machinations Wednesday— including the fitting out of a revolutionary expedition in the Florida Keys.

The Department of Justice ordered a grand jury investigation, U.S. internal security agents came here to assist.

The action followed seizure Tuesday of 31 Cubans and a seagoing yacht they were loading at out-of-the-way Big Pine Key.

All the men face prosecution for violation of the Arms Export Law.

Customs and immigration agents said they found guns, ammunition, machetes, uniforms and medical supplies aboard the Philomir III, owned by Belarmino Fernandez of Tampa, when the officers broke up a cargo-loading operation they had watched for concealment.

W. B. Lankford, customs agent who directed the raid, said officers had known for several days that the group was preparing to sail for Cuba, presumably to reinforce Fidel Castro's revolutionary army.

Lankford said several of the men told him they were political foes of Cuban President Fulgencio Batista and wanted to go to Cuba to fight Batista forces.

The expedition was termed the largest of its kind discovered since Batista took over Cuba's government in 1952 on deposing President Carlos Prío Socarras, who now lives in exile here.

The Cubans arrested at Big Pine Key made no resistance, although some wore sidearms. All were held in bond ranging from $1,000 to $2,500.

Five Cubans gave New York addresses; twenty-four said they lived in Miami; four gave no addresses.

The yacht, as well as seven automobiles from which the Cubans unloaded supplies, were impounded.

"In response to the desires of the Egyptian government and President Nasser, the Soviet government has expressed its readiness to render Egypt economic and technical assistance in the development of her national economy."

It appeared likely that a Soviet mission would be sent to Cairo to work out details with the Nasser regime. This was the procedure followed after Syria's defense minister visited Moscow last August and obtained an aid pledge.

Presumably the Russians will give the Egyptians low-cost loans for development projects and will supply technical advisers. This is the aid that has been announced for Syria. Egypt already is trading a large part of her cotton crop—her major export—for Communist-bloc arms.

Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev stood by smiling as Bulganin announced the aid promise.

Bulganin declared that imperialists "continue to exert pressure upon the Arab countries and attempt to inflict the yoke of a new colonial slavery under the guise of the Baghdad Pact, the Eisenhower Doctrine and by other dishonest means."

But Russia's "contributions are selfless, based on the mutual interests of our two countries and on preserving peace and stability in the Middle East," Bulganin declared.

The Premier said the Soviet government regards its friendship with Egypt as inviolable and considers Nasser the outstanding political figure in the Arab East.

LONDON (UP)—Soviet scientists claimed today they have discovered an active volcano in the North Pole area, Moscow Radio reported. The broadcast said the claim was made in Leningrad by Prof. Yakov Gakkel, who said minerals of volcanic extraction had been discovered in samples of soil collected from the underwater Lomonosov Mountain Range.

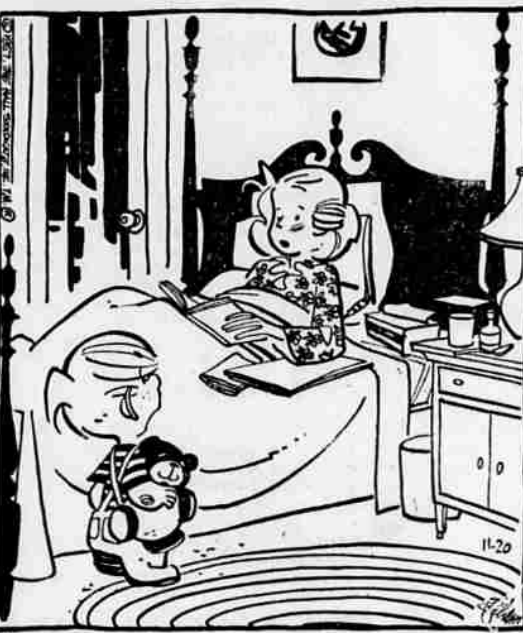

VOLCANO AT POLE

LONDON (UP)—Soviet scientists claimed today they have discovered an active volcano in the North Pole area, Moscow Radio reported. The broadcast said the claim was made in Leningrad by Prof. Yakov Gakkel, who said minerals of volcanic extraction had been discovered in samples of soil collected from the underwater Lomonosov Mountain Range.

NEWLY ELECTED officers of the Girl Scout Planning Board of Klamath Area Girl Scout Council are, left to right, Donna Foltz, Beverly Warner, Terry Terriere, Gail Brotherhood, Phyllis Webb, Margaret Dotson and seated, Kaylene Johnson and Charlotte Schoor. The girls represent all troops in the Basin and meet to express the views of the individual troop. Each troop sends two girls to the board. These are from Alturas, Newell, Tulelake and Klamath Falls. The next meeting of the group will be January 25, 1952, and the girls will serve for a one year period.

"I SURE WISH MRS. WILSON WOULD BRING YOU SOME MORE GOUP. I'M GETTIN' PRETTY SICK OF DAD'S COOKIN'!"

Mother, Son Have Reunion

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Nellie Thomas, 52, glanced from her apartment and noticed a sailor or hobbler across the street on crutches.

"Hey, Vern, come here," she shouted.

The sailor swung around. "That you, mother?"

Vern Baker, 43, a son by a previous marriage, hadn't seen his mother in 17 years but he said he would know that voice anywhere, any time.

They last saw each other in Coos Bay, Ore., where Mrs. Thomas was working as a waitress and her son was a logger.

"I left town and joined the Navy—I've been in and out ever since," Baker said. "What with the war and moving around a lot, we just never got together."

"Neither of us are much at letters," Mrs. Thomas said. "We just lost track of each other."

Baker is a Seabee and has been recuperating at the San Diego Naval Hospital since breaking a leg three weeks ago.

He said he decided to take a bus ride and just happened to get off near his mother's apartment.

"It's sort of strange, isn't it?" he said.

Margaret Davies will be timer. Peggy Barnes, typist, will speak on "Facts and Fantasy."

Rowena McDowell will give the invocation. Betty Boyll will serve as lexicologist, Edna Howell and Ingeborg Pex, critics. The educational feature will be by Eunice Bunnell.

Three groups of talks will be given: "Emphasizing Speech Construction," by Fanny May Thompson. "What Will It Be Like?," Leigh Fenning. "How About You?" and Margaret Davies, "No Less Loved."

The second subject will be "Vocal Variety," by Chris Young, Marjorie O'Connor and Hope Brader; the third, "Evangelical Speeches," by Sally Damon, Evelyn Natale and Reba Martz.

Guests will be welcome.

REPEAT PERFORMANCES: ELK CITY, Okla. (AP)—Joe Moyer hit a big hole in the pavement and his hub cap flew off his car and into the bushes. He searched for the cap and couldn't find it. But, he found two others which apparently were jarred loose by the same hole.

Trujillo Foe To Testify At Trial Of Ex-FBI Agent

WASHINGTON (AP)—An old ally but now a bitter critic of Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo faced cross-examination Wednesday on his testimony that John Joseph Frank held a Dominican Diplomatic passport in 1954.

The witness was German Emilio Ornes, who broke with Trujillo in 1955 and now is a free lance writer living in New York.

Frank, 42, Washington attorney and former FBI agent, is on trial on charges of acting as an agent of Trujillo and the Dominican Republic without registering under the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

Ornes testified Tuesday that he first met Frank in the Dominican capital in May 1954. He said he saw the Dominican diplomatic passport with Frank's picture on it in the office of Secretary of State Anselmo Paulino, who, like Ornes, now is a political exile.

Ornes was a lawyer, newspaper owner, journalism teacher, government official and member of Congress in the Dominican Republic before he broke with Trujillo.

He testified that Frank was a much in evidence when he went to Kansas City late in 1955 to tell Trujillo that he wasn't going back home. Ornes said he phoned Trujillo's hotel suite and that Frank came to the lobby and escorted him to the suite.

An earlier witness, FBI agent Fred C. Woodcock, said that Frank told him of setting up security precautions for Trujillo on three occasions. These involved a trip to Spain, the Kansas City visit, and a fair in the Dominican Republic.

Under cross-examination by Defense Atty. Edward L. Carey, Woodcock said Frank related to him that a State Department official, Robert F. Cartwright, put Frank in touch with Trujillo. Cartwright now is U.S. consul general in Mexico City, but formerly served in the State Department division of security and consular affairs.

Ornes described Trujillo as "sort of a super-chief of state" and said that by law he is "father of the new fatherland." Although his brother Hector Trujillo has been president since 1952, Ornes said, Rafael Trujillo remains commander of all armed forces and chief of the republic's only political party.

Ornes said Rafael Trujillo "practically owns the country" and that "unfortunately there is confusion between the national treasury and Trujillo's pocket."
