Police Continue Investigation Into 'Horrors Chamber' Case

MADISON, Wis. (UP)—Ed Gein, 51-year-old bachelor, appeared to show no remorse, a state criminologist said last night, after more than five hours of questioning in connection with the slaying of a widow and the finding of 10 human skulls in his farm home.

Charles Wilson, head of the Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory, said he could not detect any remorse, "just a sort of detachment." Gein, brought to Madison for interrogation in connection with the butchering of Mrs. Bernice Worden of Plainfield, Wis., faced further questioning today.

As Gein's grisly story was being investigated, Sheriff Herbert Wanserski of Portage County said he recognized one of the skulls found on Gein's farm near Plainfield as that of a long-missing woman.

Wanserski told newsmen that he did not believe Gein's story that he had taken the assortment of skulls and grisly human remains from cemeteries.

The sheriff said: "We have found the face and head of Mary Hogan among the objects in Gein's farm home." He said Mrs. Hogan was a 54-year-old Portage County divorcee who disappeared in December 1954 from the rural tavern she operated at Bancroft, about six miles from Gein's farm.

Blaze Claims Six Children

DETROIT (UP)—Six little children died yesterday in the smoke and flames of a fire that swept the second-story flat occupied by a Negro family of 13.

About 15 minutes before the fire broke out, Mrs. Lucille Sanders, 33, mother of five of the children, went to a neighbor's house to use the phone. Other members of the family were away.

Returning to find her home ablaze, she screamed, "Oh my God! My babies!"

Prevented from entering the house, she collapsed and was treated for shock.

Dead on arrival at Receiving Hospital were Brenda, 6; LaDonna, 4; Calvin, 3; Algertha, 12; Carlton, 6 months; and a 6-month old grandchild, Ronald.

Firemen said an explosion of gas from a coal stove in the small parlor started the flash fire.

Girard, Wife Talk To Press

CAMP DREW, Japan (UP)—Haru (Candy) Girard, tears brimming from her eyes, said today her prayers were answered when her soldier husband escaped a prison term for the killing of a Japanese woman scrap collector.

"In my heart I am happy that the trial is over, but at the same time I am sad for the Sakai family," the Japanese wife of Specialist J.C. William S. Girard said.

Girard, wearing a fatigue uniform, stood beside his diminutive bride as the two talked with newsmen on the steps of the headquarters building at Camp Drew.

It was Candy's first public statement since a Japanese court yesterday gave Girard a three-year suspended prison sentence for shooting Mrs. Naka Sakai on a U. S. firing range last Jan. 30.

Candy smiled and put her hand shyly across her face when asked about family plans.

"All I can say is that I hope there is no more trouble," she replied and began weeping.

Girard kissed his wife and explained, "She's crying because she's nervous." He murmured to Candy, "Don't worry, honey."

Girard said they hadn't decided where they would live in America. Candy began crying again when newsmen asked her what she was looking forward to most in the United States.

The brief interview broke up after a newsmen asked Candy what she now thinks of Kayoko Sakai, 18-year-old daughter of the dead woman who has insisted that Girard should have been sent to prison.

Candy began to weep bitterly and wailed, "All I can say is that I am very sorry."
