

Tax Action Draws Praise

The president of the Klamath County Non-Partisan Tax League today highly praised the bipartisan effort of the state legislators when dealing with tax matters and financial surpluses during the recently concluded special session.

Mrs. Josephine Kittredge, president of the league, said the wish of the Oregon taxpayers to take taxes and state financial matters out of politics has been and will continue to be a strong influence with regard to the fiscal policy of the state of Oregon.

Mrs. Kittredge spoke at an organization meeting of the Josephine County taxpayers at Grants Pass Tuesday, and addressed the Illinois Valley Women's Republican Club of Cave Junction on Wednesday. During the appearances she outlined the state tax picture and evaluated the results of the special session of the Legislature.

OTI Yearbook Wins Award

The 1957 Ower, Oregon Technical Institute yearbook, has been awarded a first place certificate in the 22nd annual yearbook contest conducted by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association at Columbia University in New York City. Out of 1,000 possible points, the Ower amassed a total score of 853, which score resulted in the 1st place certificate.

The Ower staff included Conrad Hildebrand, editor; Robert Terry, co-editor; Erna Bleak, assistant editor; Spencer Etzel, art editor, and Dave Molatore, photographer. Advisers were Earl Bairy and Bill Finch of the graphic arts department and Virginia Kempston, dean of women.

Examiners Plan Ore Tech Visit

The Oregon Tech campus is being visited this week by two representatives of the Oregon State Board of Nurses Examiners for the purpose of reevaluating the practical nursing program at the school for accreditation purposes. While the program is already accredited, it must be reexamined each year and reaccepted for accreditation. In this way, the standards of the profession are kept at a high level of professional development.

The two examiners on campus include the executive secretary, Miss Donna Monkman, RN, and the assistant executive secretary, Miss Virginia Hildebrand, RN.

Recruiting Team Visit OTI Campus

A three-man recruitment team from the California Radiology Laboratory at Livermore, California, spent November 12 and 13 on the Oregon Tech campus interviewing fourth, fifth and sixth term students in the fields of electronics, engineering, diesel, gunsmithing and auto machinists.

The laboratory is a research division which works in connection with the University of California and for the past several years has been hiring many Oregon Tech graduates in the various fields. Representatives of the laboratory will visit the campus several times during the school year for the purpose of further interviewing and the hiring of prospective graduates.
