

Tiger Brass Happy In Trade And Hope To Get Vic Wertz

DETROIT (AP)—They're all nice fellows and I hate to see them go. But we never did much while they were here. We're going to go places — and you can't go any place standing still.

Detroit Manager Jack Tighe was discussing the 13-player deal that was announced yesterday by the Detroit Tigers and the Kansas City Athletics.

General Manager John J. McHale says he is ready to make more trades. The Tigers would like to get back Vic Wertz, the heavy-hitting first baseman whom they traded to the St. Louis Browns in 1952.

In the latest trade, the Tigers lost Bill Tittle, Frank House, Duke Maas, Jim Small and John Taitouris and two minor league players to be named later. They received Billy Martin, Gus Zern, Maury McDermott, Lou Skizas, Tom Morgan and Tim Thompson.

People around Detroit feel the Tigers got the better of the deal. Tighe said, "We did real well."

The five Tigers named in the deal average 24 1/2 years in age. The six players coming to Detroit have an average age of 29 1/2. The Tigers elected not to hesitate, hope and wait two or three years for players who might become front-line major leaguers.

McHale worked hard on the trade. It was in the talk stage for more than two months. He spent three days in Chicago last week with Arnold Johnson, A's president, and their general manager, Parke Carroll. McHale was in close contact with Tighe.

Martin, when informed of his trade, demanded a cash settlement from the Athletics and indicated he might hold out on the deal.

He said "I told Kansas City before this trade that if I wanted a slice of my sale price if they traded me. Well I want it now or maybe I just won't go... If I refuse to go maybe the deal will blow up."

Later however he said "there's only one way I'll go to Detroit and that's to help them win the pennant. Anyone would be overjoyed going to the Tigers."

Officials of both clubs, however, expressed little concern over Martin's demand.

Today's Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UP)—Good guys always win and bad guys always lose — or almost always — and thus it is nice to reflect today that razzlin' justice still reigns triumphant.

This fact was driven home, and into the blondined skull of a medicine man of the mat named Dr. Jerry Graham, during the latest physical culture extravaganza at Madison Square Garden. The good doctor, being a "baddie," had to visit a sawbones himself.

Seems that he got out of line and ran into (a) an outraged Latin named Antonio Rocca and (b) a riot.

Us red-blooded razzlin' fans see our clean-razzlin' heroes get the bad end of it every once in a while. It makes our blood boil. One of our set, a dynamic Latin known only as "Hat-Pin Mary," used to take matters into her own hands and chapeau spike and the "baddies" were always sorry, I'll tell you, when she dove into view of the apron.

So this here now Doctor Graham brought it all on himself the other night at the Garden when he stepped out of line and began to bust our pal Antonio with villainy vim and vigor. Rocca stood it just about as long as any clean-living, decent, honest, heroic razzler could. Then he takes the doctor and busts his head up against the ring post real good, as any clean-living, decent, honest, heroic razzler would have.

The doctor's type B started to run down his villainy kisser and it sure excited all of us razzlin' fans who believe that clean-living, decent, honest, heroic razzlers ought to win every time anyhow.

The first thing you know, us fans was throwing bottles and chairs and a few sneak punches here and there and it was great fun until the gendarmes figured even razzlers who aren't clean-living, decent, honest, heroic got a right some protection.

By this time, fortunately, the doctor had got his come-uppance, anyhow, so it was okay. And you can bet that it was a real lesson to the doctor about how not to go around villainously belting clean-living, decent, honest and heroic razzlers.

It took those Duseks a long time to learn the same lesson. There was one night that one of our clean-living, decent, honest and heroic razzlers and he won. But not for long.

As he walked out under a balcony, a fan piled up five folding chairs and dropped them — smacko — right on his villainous noggin. He didn't razzle for several weeks.

Which just goes to show you that maybe you don't believe even the clean-living, decent, honest and heroic razzlers is on the level. But us fans are, and you can bet your last dropkick on that.

And the "baddies" are going to be awful cautious around here for a while, anyhow. Because, as I said, good guys always win and bad guys always lose. Or almost always, anyhow.

SEATTLE, Wash. (UP)—Coach Jim Owens of the University of Washington experimented with four reserve backs Wednesday as the Huskies continued preparations for their traditional encounter with Washington State Saturday.

Owens had halfback Carver Grayton and fullbacks Kirk Wilson, Dan Wheatly, and George Pitt alternating with regular fullback Jimmy Jones and halfback Don Millich.

PULLMAN, Wash. (UP)—Washington State Coach Jim Sutherland said today that he was worried the field in Seattle would be muddy for Saturday's tilt with Washington.

But Sutherland added that his Cougars would have a few offensive and defensive surprises ready for the Huskies muddy field or not. Wednesday, Sutherland sent his squad through a long offensive workout, concentrating on a running attack.

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UP)—Coach Tommy Prothro of the Oregon State Beavers said today that his squad is in its best condition since early in the season.

The Beavers, still hoping for a tie for the PCC football title, went through a spirited workout Wednesday in preparation for Saturday's annual "civil war" with Oregon. Prothro has yet to beat the Ducks since he has been at the Oregon State Helm.

EUGENE, Ore. (UP)—With the exception of center Norm Chapman, Oregon's Ducks were pronounced in top shape today for Saturday's showdown battle with Oregon State.

Chapman broke a leg in the Washington State game a month ago. Tackle Jerry Kershner, who suffered a thigh injury against USC last week and reserve guard Larry Newsom, who has been out of recent games, were both said to be ready for action.

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—The University of California Bears went through a light workout on both offense and defense Wednesday.

Braves Eye Juan Pizarro

SAN JUAN, P. R. (UP)—Juan Pizarro's record 19-strikeout performance in the Puerto Rican winter baseball league provided the Milwaukee Braves with strong evidence today that the 20-year old speedballer may be a powerful member of their mound corps in 1958.

Pizarro, who had a 5-6 record in 24 games for the world champions this year, set the new Puerto Rican league mark Wednesday night while pitching Caguas to a 1-0 victory over Ponce. Pizarro fanned Carlos Bernier four times and yielded two of the three hits he gave up in the ninth inning.

Pizarro's performance eclipsed the league strikeout mark set by the fabled Satchel Paige 20 years ago and equaled in 1954 by Bob Turley of the New York Yankees.

The major league record of 18 strikeouts is held by Bob Feller and the National League mark of 17 is held by Dizzy Dean.

Coliseum Eyed For Dodgers Home Games

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers, still not sure just where they're going to play in 1958, have announced a 77-game home schedule that includes 35 night games and only 3 doubleheaders.

The expectation is that the transplanted Brooklyn team will play most — if not all — of its home games at spacious Memorial Coliseum. The big hold holds more than 100,000 people, about four times as many as the alternate playing site, Wrigley Field.

The Dodgers said in announcing the schedule Wednesday that a decision on the playing site, or sites, probably will be made in two weeks or less.

"The big factor," said Business Manager Harold Parrott, "is availability and adaptability of the Coliseum. Our engineers are studying the problem. That's all I can say now."

The Dodgers will open the National League season in San Francisco against the Giants April 15 and will play their first home game against the same team April 18.

Ticket prices here will be $3.50 for box seats, $2.50 for reserved grandstand and $1.50 for general admission. The box seat prices were set 50 cents higher than those of some other clubs because of the additional expense of flying teams into California.

Parrott said advance ticket sales are the heaviest in the history of the club.

There will be no free television and the question of whether pay-as-you-see TV will be inaugurated next season has not yet been settled.

Caffie Leads Bison Hitters

MONTREAL (UP)—Outfielder Joe Caffie, now with the Cleveland Indians, today was certified as the International League batting champion for 1957 on the strength of his .330 batting average with the Buffalo Bisons.

Although Caffie led the league in hitting, veteran Luke Easter, also of Buffalo, paced the circuit in runs batted in, home runs and total bases, according to figures released by the IL office here.

Despite his 279 average, Easter drove in 128 runs, clouted 40 homers and hit for 300 total bases. Big Luke also drew the most walks, 100, and was high man in strikeouts with 140.

Post Office Pays Tribute To Big Birds

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The U.S. Post Office Department formally unveils its tribute to the whooping crane Friday while embattled protectors of the big bird still have something to whoop about.

But not much. There are only 31 whooping cranes alive today, and that is since 1950.

Last spring 21 wild whoopers started their perilous 2,000-mile journey from the Gulf Coast to the summer breeding ground in northwestern Canada.

By this week, 26 — including five young birds — had returned to the Aransas refuge near Corpus Christi, Texas.

The captive population includes Rosie, a resident of the San Antonio zoo; Crip and Josephine, the pair that this year brought off a successful hatch of two chicks at the New Orleans zoo; and a couple of unidentified birds who decided the heck with traveling and stayed at Aransas instead of flying north last spring. There was a third one in this group, but he passed away in the process of being caught as a bridegroom for Rosie.

The Post Office Department's memorial is a three-cent item, fourth in a series of wildlife conservation stamps. It is a blue, green and yellow stamp showing a female whooper bending attentively over two downy youngsters.

Terry Sawchuk Holds Down Ranger Scoring

By UNITED PRESS

Goalie Terry Sawchuk must have the New York Rangers number.

Every other netminder in the National Hockey League has had trouble handling the high-flying Rangers this season — but not Sawchuk, who has limited New York to five goals in four games.

The veteran Detroit Red Wings' goalie thrilled a crowd of 12,628 at Madison Square Garden again Wednesday night in holding the Rangers to a 1-1 deadlock.

The deadlock enabled pace-setting New York to move two points ahead of the Montreal Canadiens.

Second period goals by Bob Pulford and George Armstrong ended the Toronto Maple Leafs' defeat of the Chicago Black Hawks, 2-1, at Toronto. The game was witnessed by members of Russia's touring amateur hockey team, who termed the play "unnecessarily rough."
