

CANDLE MAKING is easy with Parowax. To make a one-pound candle, remove 4 quarters from the Parowax package and seal two quarters together by dipping the flat surface in a shallow pan of melted Parowax and pressing one on top of the other. Repeat the process with the other two quarters. Score one section down the middle with an ice pick or can opener to provide space for the wick which is dipped in melted Parowax and placed in the groove, leaving 1 1/2-inch at candle top. Then put two candle halves together with melted Parowax and turn the entire candle in the melted wax, including the wick end. "Frost" the candle by beating 1/2 pound of melted Parowax to the consistency of whipping cream and applying with knife blade. Decorate with sparkles, sequins, bells or bows.

DESERT FLOWER Beauty Clean is Shulton's new cleansing lotion. The rich, creamy cleanser penetrates deeply into the skin, removing all traces of skin soil and cosmetics. The beneficial natural oils which have been added to the cleanser smooth out wrinkles, soothe the surface and leave the skin satin-soft. Desert Flower Beauty Clean helps control excessive oiliness, blackheads and other blemishes; it revitalizes dry skin, making it clearer, brighter and younger looking. Desert Flower Beauty Clean should be applied to the throat and face with firm, upward strokes. It can be removed with tissue or lukewarm water. The bottle makes a lovely addition to the make-up table, as well.

EVENING BEAUTY
If you expect to be in a room of fluorescent lights for the evening, make allowances for the purple-blue toned effect they will have on your skin. Pass up foundations tinted with ochre and all blue-red toned lipsticks—and wear a clear, clear red lipstick.

STUFFED PEPPERS
If you are serving Mexican style stuffed peppers (the green chilis you buy in a little can), wash the seed out under the cold water tap and dry peppers on a paper towel. Then stuff with cheese, dip in egg batter and fry in butter. A thin tomato sauce made by running a can of tomatoes through a sieve and adding sauteed onion, a cup of broth and a teaspoon of oregano, goes with the stuffed peppers.
