

SANTA SERVES ADVANCE NOTICE in the picture above, that he's on his way to Toyland at St. Paul's Episcopal Bazaar in the parish hall on December 7. There will be gifts galore for children of all ages... cuddly toys for tiny tots, building blocks, dolls, etc., to delight all little boys and girls — besides a wide variety of other items to make shopping easier and Christmas Day merrier. Beautiful decorations, novel aprons, dish towels and goodies from the kitchens of Episcopal women, will tempt the careful shopper. The Christmas tree ornaments for your selection December 7 are exquisite. They are originals — all handmade artistic creations — glittering with colorful sequins, diamonds, silver, gold and colored sparkle — and some are fragile heirloom ornaments made of hand-painted blown eggshells with little "windows" to reveal enchanting scenes within. The bazaar will be open from mid-morning through evening, and the annual spaghetti feed will be cooked by men of the church and served to the public for a modest price. In the picture, from the left, are Lane Culver, Timothy Steers and Elizabeth Nordwall. Their mothers are all working on the bazaar as Santa's helpers to chairman, Mrs. R. E. Benoist — Photo by Otto Ellis

"COME IN COSTUME" ... say the Yacht Club committee members pictured above. The foursome above decided that a costume party will be the thing — so they planned a Beaux Arts Ball for December 7. Music will be by LaMar Jensen Trio for dancing in the Paris setting. Mrs. Murdo Morrison and Mrs. Fred Ehlers, co-chairmen both were enthusiastic over preliminary plans and said that they were sure everyone would have more fun than a barrel of monkeys! — Picture printed by permission of Clare Barnes Jr.

Library Club Applauds KUHS Drama Students

Library Club members and guests were delighted with the two Irish one-act plays presented by the KUHS drama department, under the direction of Mrs. Roberta Blomquist, at the November 18 meeting in the city library. Irish wit sparkled throughout "Spreading of the News" by Lady Gregory and the young thespians excelled in a more serious vein in the tragic drama, "Riders to the Sea" by John Synge.

Worthy Matron Of Chapter 536 Is Installed

DUNSMUIR — Elaine Dews took office as worthy matron of Dunsmuir Chapter, No. 536, Order of Eastern Star, in evening ceremonies at the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple, November 1. Installing officers were Selma Porter and Errol Beaughan assisted by Mrs. Alice Chandler and Helen Dabovich, installing marshals and Christine Allen, installing chaplain.

Mrs. Dews was presented a white Bible on which was laid a bouquet of rosebuds. Paisy Herrin made the presentation at the opening of the ceremonies. Officers took their obligations facing the east which was festively decorated with chrysanthemums and a huge scroll with the names "Elaine and Jim" inscribed. Incoming officers were James Haley, worthy patron; Frances Welch, associate matron; Cecil Welch, associate patron; Selma Porter, secretary; Errol Beaughan, treasurer; Marguerite Smith, conductress; Doris Morgan, associate conductress; Ila Brown, chaplain; Merle Haley, marshal; Jessie Herrin, organist; Ruth Caswell, Adah; Barbara Stewart, Ruth; Elizabeth Cavin, Esther; Grace Harris, Martha; Mina Kimble, Electa; Millie Aldridge, warder; Willie Aldridge, sentinel.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Welch, retiring worthy patron and matron, were thanked for their year of service and given appropriate gifts from the chapter. "This year's motto, 'By Love, Serve One Another,' displayed across the west completed the Blue Room decorations by Ed Dews and Mrs. Welch. Mrs. Adele Clark decorated the refreshment tables in the Maple Room with flowers, scrolls and batons. Mrs. Ila Brown was refreshment committee chairman and Mrs. Welch was hostess for the evening.

Thanksgiving

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. (Ron) Wood, former Klamath Falls residents, now of Great Falls, Montana, are expected today as Thanksgiving week visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin F. Brauner, 1010 North Seventh Street. Mrs. Brauner and Mrs. Wood are sisters. This will be their first Thanksgiving together in 10 years. Also home with her family for Thanksgiving will be Judy Brauner, a freshman at Marylhurst College in Portland. Mrs. John Groves, Florence Wood's and Opal Brauner's aunt, Salem, is expected later in the week to join them for Thanksgiving dinner.

Rinsing clothes in cold water after washing them in warm or hot suds means more work for the ironer. This rapid change in temperature sets wrinkles and creases in fabrics.

Kent. Other arrangements about the room were by the Klamath Falls Garden Club. Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh in charge. Tea chairman for the afternoon, Mrs. Eugene Favell was assisted by Mrs. George Proctor, Mrs. Fred Foulon, Mrs. Robert Kent and Mrs. Robert Harvey. Pouring were Mrs. Elmer Harnden and Mrs. M. E. Ferebee. Guests and members were welcomed at the door by Mrs. Olive Cornell, president and hostesses for the afternoon. Mrs. Warren Bennet and Mrs. Albert Roenicke. The next meeting on Monday, December 9, will be the Christmas Festival under the direction of Mr. Andrew Loney Jr.
