Merrill BPW Hears Talk

MERRILL — The rudiments of parliamentary procedure were explained by Mrs. Paul Lewis, parliamentarian, to members of the Merrill Business and Professional Women's Club at a meeting held Wednesday evening, November 20, at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Brickner.

Presented for the interest of the BPW members and guest Mrs. Jim Kirby was a brief outline on the aims and purposes of BPW by Mrs. John O'Neil Jr., membership chairman.

Dinner menus were planned by Mrs. Roland West and committee to be served at the Lion's Club dinner meetings.

All members are to purchase Christmas gifts to be sent to the Mental Health Association of Oregon for use at the hospital in Pendleton. Mrs. Frank Trotman is in charge of the gift collection and mailing.

Before the close of the meeting, a discussion was held on a recent news topic introduced by Mrs. Harriet Fotheringham.

Church To Hold Bazaar

MERRILL — Various organizations of the Merrill Presbyterian Church are sponsoring a bazaar which will be held on Saturday, November 30, at the Merrill Recreation Hall. The date is one week earlier than originally announced, due to other scheduled activities in the community.

From 6:30 until 8 p.m. the Ladies Aid will serve a dollar chicken pie dinner. Tickets for the dinner may be purchased at the door. There will be no charge for preschool children. Mrs. Frank Hunnicutt, president of the Ladies Aid, is general chairman of the bazaar.

In addition to the dinner, the Ladies Aid will have a toy and novelty booth for the children and fancy work booths.

Other booths will be a candy booth sponsored by the Mariners, an apron booth by the Women's Association and a cooked food booth.

Entertainment will be provided throughout the evening for the children.

The cost of all accidents in the United States last year would build 100,000 class A schoolrooms which would provide facilities for an additional nine million new students.
