ALEX GRESCHOK, faller at Weyerhaeuser's White River tree farm teaches a new step to beginners in Enumclaw's Merry Mites folk dancing group. The Greschoks are ardent folk dancers. Alex and wife Lena belong to an adult group and help daughter Lorilyn teach 54 juvenile Merry Mites. Son Allan is a member of this group.

meet one of your forest industry neighbors...

Forest industry pay checks work for everyone. The average family spends $100 of income like this:

Food	$ 27
Housing	17
Clothing	9
Autos and transportation	14
Home furnishings	6
Medical and personal care	7
Taxes (income and property)	7
Recreation, savings, insurance, education, etc.	13
	$100

estimated from U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics Survey of Consumer Expenditures based on average wage earner family of 3.4 persons.

Active in Cub Scouts, Little League baseball and folk dancing, Alex Greschok's leisure-time interests center around his family and community. He is typical of today's forest industry people. Like Alex, most are permanent homeowners and taxpayers who make valuable social and economic contributions to this area.

Today some 160,000 men and women work in the Washington and Oregon forest industry. Their earnings total about 750 million dollars a year. Most of this money is spent locally... spreading out into all channels of trade. These payroll dollars help support healthy community growth and prosperity.

Pay checks and other expenditures of the forestry industry are the basis for about one-half of our regional economy. Balanced timber growth and harvest sustain continuous plant operations... a major factor in the economic stability of our region.
