ALTURAS — A highlight at the installation of officers of Northern Rebekah Lodge No. 208, Alturas, January 17, was the presentation of gavels by Mark Getty of Lakeview. The gavels, made by Getty from box elder, were presented to the noble grand, Mrs. Fred Ash, and the vice grand, Mrs. William Luckey.

Officers of both Cedar Rebekah Lodge, Cedarville, and Northern Rebekah Lodge were installed in the Odd Fellow's Temple in Alturas, by deputy officers of District 49, Rebekah Assembly of California.

District deputy president, Mrs. Lena Smith, was installing officer. Other deputy officers were Geneva Wilson, marshal; Grace Brown, warden; Edith Partridge, chaplain; Della Pengelly, secretary; Dixie Leah Broadhurst, treasurer; Cora Hafer, inside guardian; Ethel Prock, outside guard; and Mabeth Starr, musician. Installation was open to the public.

MRS. W. L. GREGORY
(Jane Burgess)

Jane Burgess Weds William L. Gregory

Of interest to friends here is the wedding of former local resident, Jane Burgess, to William L. Gregory, ICFN, of Portland.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Elva E. Burgess, now of Beaverton. The Rev. Clay James Pomeroy of Portland Methodist Church read the service in the parsonage on December 27.

The couple honeymooned in British Columbia. The bridegroom has returned to San Diego, where he is stationed aboard the USS Ajax. His bride, a senior at Beaverton Union High School, will remain in Beaverton to continue her studies.

A LATE MAY wedding is planned for Jeanne Davison and her fiance, Richard F. Pierce, according to the announcement made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Davison, 2120 Home-dale Road. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pierce, 2117 Laurel.

OTI Student Wives

OTI Student Wives first meeting of the winter term was on January 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the campus YMCA Community Center.

New advisers are Mrs. George Marostica and Mrs. Ole Lund.

Guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. Julia Brown, acting Klamath County public welfare administrator. Mrs. Brown discussed the function of the welfare office in Klamath County.

Mrs. Mary Jane Dalrymple was appointed to investigate possibilities of a cooked food and rummage sale.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Betty Bayne, Mrs. Reva Satter, Mrs. Mary Jane Dalrymple, Mrs. Marian Ward and Mrs. Jackie Demko.

After the meeting interested members went to the OTI Campus bowling alley to discuss with John Klavohn, bowling alley manager, the possibilities of forming a Student Wives Bowling League.

MONTAGUE

JAPANESE PARTY

A Japanese tea party highlighted the meeting of the Montague Women's Society of Christian Service when they gathered at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hegg on Friday afternoon, January 24.

Members had been requested to bring items from Japan, which they were to give brief talks on, while others brought readings relative to habits and customs of Japan. Among some of the items on display were tea sets, ivory carvings, kimono, sashes, and teakwood carvings.

Refreshments of rice cakes and tea were served by Mrs. Hegg to the following: Mrs. Harold Cooney, Mrs. George Dexter, Mrs. Wilma Center, Mrs. Hugh French, Mrs. Grace Boersma, Mrs. Ted Hargreaves, Mrs. Frank Kouts, Mrs. Ada Johnstone, Mrs. Barbara Raab, Mrs. Dorothy Hegg, Mrs. Hazel Selby, Mrs. Ruby Stafford, Mrs. W. S. Swigart, Mrs. Tom Toulouse, Mrs. Charles McGowan and Mrs. Bertha Wert.

Refreshments concluded the activities for the afternoon.

RAINBOW GIRLS AND THEIR ESCORTS are pictured above at the annual Rainbow For Girls formal at the Yacht Club on December 27. The 1957 theme, "Diamonds in the Snow," was carried out with scattered silver diamonds on the wall and a ceiling of pink and white. The decorations were made even more effective by the use of lighting that changed colors on them and the dancing couples.

Ridenour - Gentry Vows Taken At Home Wedding

CHILQUIN — Nancy Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence (Bud) Gentry, became the bride of Sidney Ridenour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Ridenour, Modoc Point, in a quiet ceremony at the Ridenour residence on New Year's Eve. Only the immediate families and attendants were present. The service was read by the Rev. Harley Zeller, pastor of Williamson River Mission.

The bride wore a white street length dress with a low oval neckline and full skirt. A small, simple headpiece held her circular veil. Cecelia Lopez, school friend of the bride, as maid of honor, wore an aqua dress similar in style to the bride's. Jim Hoback, close friend of the bridegroom, was best man.

The young couple is living at Modoc Point in a home they have remodeled. Both are 1956 graduates of Chilquim High School and both attended OTI last year. Nancy was Klamath County rodeo princess two years ago and queen of the OTI rodeo last spring.

Two weeks before the wedding, a large shower was given for the bride-to-be by Mrs. Ray Hobbs, Mrs. Bill Nicholson, Mrs. Merton Nutritionists point out that foods rich in vitamin A add to eye beauty by keeping the eyes healthy. Carrots are always on the list for vitamin A. Other recommended foods include spinach, kale, escarole, broccoli and lettuce. It also pays to eat apricots and peaches and beef and calf's liver for vitamin A.
