The Bly Bobcats, by virtue of a resounding 7-2 win over the helpless Gilchrist Grizzlies at Bly Friday night, took over the top spot in County "B" League standings; the heretofore leading Chiloquin Panthers having dropped a chiller to the Bonanza Antlers on the same night.

The Bly quintet, behind a fine 22-point performance of forward Jerry Patzke and runner-up center, Walter Lee, who collected 17 tallies, worked like a well-oiled machine as they got off to a healthy 23-8 edge in the first quarter.

International Committee Sets Opening Day For Pacific Area

SEATTLE (UP)—The International Pacific Halibut Commission has set May 4 as the opening date for halibut fishing in all areas except a portion of Alaskan waters.

The commission Friday announced the following regulations: Area 1A—south of Heceta Head, Oregon. One fishing season, without a catch limit, from May 4-Oct. 16 or until the closure of area 3A, whichever is later.

Area 1B—between Heceta Head and Willapa Bay, Wash. Two fishing seasons without a catch limit. The first runs from May 4 until 26½ million pounds have been caught in Area 2. The second season will start Aug. 31 and run for seven days.

Area 2—between Willapa Bay and Cape Spencer, Alaska. Two fishing seasons identical with the area 1B.

Yvon Durelle Scores TKO

NEW YORK (UP)—"In Canada, they like murder. A little more blood and thunder."

Thus did Yvon Durelle, the winner, protest the decision of Referee Harry Kessler in stopping Friday night's Madison Square Garden bout and declaring him the winner on a technical knockout in 1-46 of the seventh round.

Clarence Hinant, Washington light heavy, hadn't been down. However, he was glassy-eyed and rubber-kneed.

Durelle needed the victory to strengthen his claims as a challenger in the light heavy division. The only fight he lost last year in 12 starts was a TKO to Hinant in Miami Beach, Feb. 19.

"I took that fight on four days notice," he explained. "I had to show him I was a different man this time."

Durelle, who weighed 175½ Friday night was six pounds heavier for the Miami Beach scrap. Hinant at 171½ was five pounds lighter than he was in the first match.

Next in line for Durelle may be a March 7 Garden date with Tony Anthony, Friday night's original opponent until the flu bug floored him and Hinant was rushed in as a sub. At least that's what the International Boxing Club has in mind.

Chris Shabon, Durelle's manager, has ears only for a title match with Archie Moore, the 175-pound ruler, in Montreal. Lew Meyers, the Canadian fisherman's New York representative, wants Anthony or Yolande Pompey in New York or Montreal.

Durelle led on all three official cards. Referee Harry Kessler and Judge Joe Agnello had it 4-2 and Judge Harold Barnes 3-3 in rounds with Durelle in front on points 3-4. The AP card showed Durelle with a 4-2 edge after six rounds.

Hebert Secret Wins Money

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UP)—Handsome Jay Hebert, who learned "positive thinking" from baseball's Carl Hubbell, has a great secret for golf success:

"Don't be greedy."

Jay, who won some $20,000 on the tour in 1957, was in a good position to annex his first golf championship of 1958 Saturday as he teed off in the third round of the $15,000 Phoenix Open tournament with a one-stroke lead over the field.

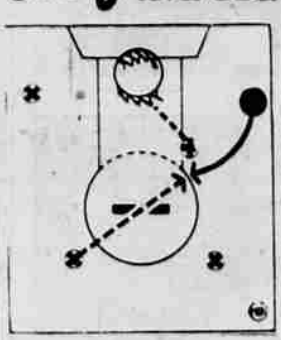

Hebert—34-year-old senior member of the golfing Hebert brothers—fired his second sub-70 round Friday as he added a 67 to an opening 69 for a 36-hole score of 136.

That gave bachelor boy a one-stroke lead over Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex.; and two over Julius Boros, Mid Pines, N.C.; Ken Venturi, San Francisco; Paul Harney, Worcester, Mass.; Al Balding, Markham, Ont.; and Shelly Mayfield, Westbury, N.Y.

YANKS SIGN TWO

NEW YORK (UP)—Catcher John Blanchard and infielder-outfielder Dick Sanders have agreed to terms with the New York Yankees. They were the ninth and 10th Yankee players to sign their contracts.

Pointers On Points

By ED CONLIN Syracuse Nationals

I try to keep moving all the time to make it tough on the man guarding me.

Usually I'll come out of the corner (dark circle) and come off around the pivot man on the high post by the foul line.

I can use him for a screen and take the pass from a guard (dotted line).

I then have three basic shots—a two-handed set, a jumper and a drive.

If my man doesn't come after me behind the pick, I'll set. If he does I'll either try to drive around him or, finding trouble there, go with the jumper.

Chiloquin Panthers Bow To Antler Quint

The Chiloquin Panthers relinquished their hold on the County "B" League lead Friday night on their home court as they bowed to the Bonanza Antlers in a last four-second, 46-45 loss. Bly, by virtue of a solid 7-2 win over an ice-cold Gilchrist five, slipped into the top spot.

The Chiloquin quintet appeared to have their game under control at two or three places in the game but they reckoned without Ron Roberts, Bonanza fireball, in their thinking.

Chiloquin coach, Gordy Kuist, said of Robert's performance, "The boy couldn't do anything wrong; he was a one man ball team. Of course, he had help, but the lad was really afe." Kuist went on to say that he is looking forward to meeting the Antlers again in the County Tournament.

Whirlwind Roberts of the Antler squad went virtually wild as he canned shots from any place and every place to ring up a tremendous 33 points. Jumps, tips, lay-ups and long shots were all the same to the red hot Roberts; they each netted two points apiece.

The Panthers got off to an easy 13-2 lead at the quarter pole and although it narrowed to 25-19 at the half and 33-30 at the three-quarter, it appeared to be enough, until Roberts stole the ball for the Antlers and drove for a layup with one minute left in the tussle. He missed but in so doing he got fouled.

When he stepped to the foul line, there seemed to be no doubt in his mind; both shots were perfect to give the Antlers their 46-45 edge with only four seconds left in the game. It wasn't enough time.

Although the Panthers' Mike Ravizza hit 20 points, three buckets from the field and a perfect 14 from the free throw line as Chiloquin collected a total of 17 for 26 charity tosses, his efforts were to no avail in the final counting.

Number two man in the point department for the Panthers was Steve Pope, who collected 11 tallies, to be the only other man in two figures for the night.

B. Tofell collected eight markers for the Antlers and the rest of the squad contrived only five points between themselves.

In the preliminary game the Chiloquin JV also garnered a loss as the Bonanza "Bees" measured them for a 57-43 count.

Mustangs Slip By Hornets 57-56, In Overtime Contest

The Malin Mustangs edged by the Henley Hornets in an overtime basketball game in Malin Friday night by a squeaky 57-56 margin.

While the schools met in a non-conference tilt, the intense rivalry afforded the Hornets a real thrill as the Mustangs battled back from first quarter 16-9 deficit to finally catch up to the Mustangs at the 46-46 mark with three minutes left in the ball game.

In the last three minutes the lead was a nip and tuck affair and regular play ended on a 52-52 count.

Malin's Bill Rajnus, high pointer for the night with 25, coolly sank two free throws in the last 40 seconds to bring the Malin quint from the short end of a 56-55 count to their narrow win.

Number two point producer for the test was agile center, Jim Toffell of Malin, who netted 17 tallies. Henley's Kaylor was third with 16 while his teammates, Henningshaw and Gober were third and fourth with 13 and 12 respectively. Forward Farrell Wilson, counted 11 for Malin before being benched in the third quarter, after collecting four fouls.

The game was a close one every step of the way as Malin had a 30-26 edge at the half and slipped one point to a 41-38 margin at the three quarter pole.

Henley collected 12 for 23 attempts from the charity line and a hearty 400 from the field.

The Malin five, not to be outdone, hit 11 for 18 for the best free throw effort of the season and shot a sizzling 420 from the floor.

Malin coach, Jack McGoldrick, was understandably happy about the fine performances of Rajnus, Toffell and Wilson although he was the first to admit that a lot of their success had come from the play of the balance of the squad.

John Tuft Quietly Leaves UW Five

SEATTLE (UP)—University of Washington basketball player John Tuft, a senior, has been removed from the squad, it was learned Friday night.

The report said Tuft was removed by Coach Tippy Dye during a time out in the Washington-Stanford Pacific Coast Conference game here, which the Huskies won, 69-58. "Insubordination" was said to be the cause of the action.

The crowd which viewed the game thought only that a substitute had gone in for Tuft, who left the floor quietly and could not be located for comment.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UP)—Big name golf stars are the highest paid teachers in the country; and they vie for prizes that make them the biggest gamblers next to race horse owners.

Big Mike Souchak played the second round of the Phoenix Open with Bo Winger. Bo shot a 68; Mike had a 74. Immediately after the round, the two went out to the practice tee, where Bo showed Mike just what he was doing wrong on his drives. "We found that I was leaning way

Shea Declares NL Officials Must Act Fast

NEW YORK (UP)—The chairman of New York's baseball committee declared Saturday that the city is unlikely to have a new National League franchise until 1959—and then only if NL officials act quickly.

William Shea, head of Mayor Wagner's four-man committee, said Friday's promise to construct a new stadium "tossed a hot potato" back in the NL's laps and warned, "we are not going to construct anything on speculation."

Earlier, Wagner made the same point when he emphasized that the city "would require a firm commitment" before actual construction began.

"We can't build a stadium without a firm commitment," he said. "Our commitment is here. Now it's up to the National League."

This was in answer to the National League's recent invitation to the mayor to appear at its annual meeting in July to discuss whatever progress New York had made toward building a stadium. City officials interpreted the invitation as an "ultimatum" and Shea made it plain the mayor was responding in kind.

"I'm going to press for an earlier meeting with Warren Giles (president of the league) than July," Shea said. "I want to meet with Giles sometime this month and find out if we've got a franchise. If we have, we'll start building. But not one drop of cement will be poured until we've got a team."

over to reach for the ball on the tee," Mike said later. "Bo straightened me out. I'll be all right tomorrow."

And the chances are he will. And he may wind up taking some prize money out of Bo's pocket. But that's the way it goes in the game of golf. Mike would do the same for Bo.

There are two men on the tour who have been having their troubles the last year or so: Gene Littler and Frank Stranahan. They have received sympathy and lessons from everybody and his brother.

Some say that these two men have listened to so much advice that they have become confused to the extent that they use half a dozen different "systems" while playing a single round.

Former PGA champion Walter Burkemo was having putter trouble. He had Dow Finsterwald look at his stroke. Walter then proceeded to tank the next half-dozen practice putts.

"I learned something there," said the veteran Burkemo. "Think I've got it now."

But Finsterwald probably has learned more from his traveling companion, Doug Ford, than anyone else. Ford has helped Dow on the game around the greens so well that Finsterwald, currently is gunning for money in his 71st tournament in a row.

The men run one-two in the top ten player list, Ford receiving $400 each participating tournament guaranteed personal appearance and Dow $260.

"The question now is," says Ford, "should I stop giving him lessons?"

"We can't build a stadium without a firm commitment," he said. "Our commitment is here. Now it's up to the National League."

Martin, who has headed the football coaching staff at Virginia University the past two years, takes over the Falcons when they are entering their fourth year of football. They take on such powers as Stanford and Iowa for the first time this fall after playing weak schedules their first three seasons.

Col. George Simler, Academy athletic director who personally recommended Martin, did not disclose the new coach's salary. But it was believed that Shaw was receiving $15,000 a year.
