children's teeth in good condition? What kind of diet will prevent tooth decay?

One dental scientist has said that "American children have the dirtiest mouths in the world."

He meant that their teeth have a high rate of decay—caused in good part by candies and cookies and other sweets eaten between meals.

Each time a child eats sweets, the teeth are attacked by decay-producing acids. Sugars sticking to the teeth are turned into acids quickly by certain bacteria normally present in the mouth.

Sweets eaten between meals are particularly dangerous because they are left on the teeth for comparatively longer periods of time.

At meal times, some of the sugar can be brushed off the teeth by so-called detergent foods such as coarse vegetables and fruits.

If a youngster does have a sweet now and then, he should brush his teeth immediately afterward or at least rinse his mouth with water.

Dentists say children should keep the sweet cookies and cakes, candies and sweetened drinks for parties and special occasions. For between-meal snacks there are a number of tasty and attractive foods you can substitute: milk, celery and raw carrot sticks, nuts, cheese and crisp, fresh fruits. Not only are these foods better for dental health but they are also more nutritious than sweet snacks, which usually provide little more than calories.

Among the myths about teeth is the one that says if the body is supplied with large quantities of calcium and vitamin D, tooth decay will be prevented, especially in children. Both calcium and vitamin D are needed by the body, but a well-balanced diet contains enough of both. And, in large or small amounts, they will not prevent tooth decay.

A diet good for general health is adequate for dental health. The fact is that after the permanent teeth are fully formed, what children do not eat is most important for the prevention of tooth decay.

The rule is simple: to help prevent decay, cut down on sweets. Tomorrow: Fluoridation.

6 BIG BENEFITS YOU'LL ENJOY ... WHEN YOU DO BUSINESS WITH THE Bank of Klamath Falls

"I LIKE THE BANK OF KLAMATH FALLS BECAUSE"

I'm a busy man, I don't want to spend time looking for a parking place. A downtown bank with drive-in facilities suits me fine. I like prompt service and I can always count on that at Klamath's only locally owned bank.

"I LOVE THE CONVENIENCE OF PERSONALIZED CHECKS WHILE I WAIT, AT THE BANK OF KLAMATH FALLS!"

The people are all so nice at the Bank of Klamath Falls. It seems like they have a lot of friendly interest in me, even tho my balance runs mighty low just before payday. I think it's wonderful that we have a locally owned bank.

"THE BANK OF KLAMATH FALLS REALLY MAKES MY SAVINGS A GOOD INVESTMENT AT 3%!"

I'm a guy that likes to watch a bank account grow. Getting the extra interest that I do at the Bank of Klamath Falls is important to me. Just like my wife says, "It pays to do business where you get the most for your money!"

"PLENTY OF FREE PARKING MAKES BANKING A PLEASURE AT THE BANK OF KLAMATH FALLS"

I guess I'm just spoiled, but really I just hate to look for a parking space. At the Bank of Klamath Falls there's always plenty of parking room when I want to make a deposit or cash a check. My daughter and I am surely happy that we opened an account at the Bank of Klamath Falls.

"QUICK-CONFIDENTIAL LOANS TAKE THE STRESS OUT OF MY BUDGET - AT THE BANK OF KLAMATH FALLS"

You know my little gal Pat had to have her tonsils out all of a sudden last week and I just didn't have the money. So I went to the Bank of Klamath Falls; told them how much I needed and I had the money in no time at all. I didn't think banks were interested in small loans, but it sure sold me on the Bank of Klamath Falls.

"THE BANK OF KLAMATH FALLS HAS EVERYTHING PLUS CONVENIENT SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES"

At Christmas last year each of the kids got a $25 savings bond from their grandparents and it was a worry to me where to keep them. One day when I went in to cash a check at the bank I noticed all the safe-deposit boxes. And when I checked I found it cost just a little over a penny a day to have all that protection. We keep all our valuables there now.

23 Years Ago

Monday, February 4, 1935—Life in the poultry colony of Sergeant M. J. Barnes must have palled on a certain Plymouth Rock pullet. She stowed away in the state officer's car when he visited the ranch Sunday. When Barnes returned to town and parked the car in front of his apartment house, the pullet hopped out into the snow, all set to look over the city sights. With several assistants, Barnes ran down the chicken and decided to take her back to the ranch.

Tuesday, February 5, 1935—Dr. F. E. Trotman is high point man in the Merrill Rifle and Gun club since the opening of the northwest telegraphic contest sponsored by the Spokesman Review at Spokane. Merrill has won three out of five shoots, it was reported.

Wednesday, February 6, 1935—Walter Locke, Henry Sedmon and Clifford Richmond, members of the executive board of the Federal Building and Loan Association, were re-elected Tuesday evening at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the organization, to serve terms of three years each. The Federal Savings and Loan company was organized in September 1934.

Thursday, February 7, 1935—Gus Miller, Harry Molatore and Lloyd Selby, members of the local 20-30 club, motored to Alturas to make plans for the national convention to be held here next September, and to assist Alturas in their convention fund. They made the trip in a 1935 Chevrolet donated by the Locke Motor company.

Friday, February 8, 1935—Mrs. Glenn Kent, president of the Roosevelt PTA, entertained officers and executive members at luncheon at the Roosevelt cafeteria on Tuesday. Mrs. Clarence Humble gave an interesting discussion on Oregon Juvenile Legislation.

Saturday, February 9, 1935—The Women of the Moose will sponsor a card party Tuesday evening in the KC hall in the Loomis building. The committee in charge is as follows: Belle Tompkins, Peggy Long, LaVera McBride and Lulu Potts.
