21 Perish In German Plane Crash; Ball Team Hit Hard

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — Relays of weary doctors fought desperately today to save the manager of the British championship soccer team and two others critically injured in a plane crash yesterday which took 21 lives.

Among the dead were seven players and a coach of the Manchester United team, eight British sports writers and a steward of the chartered British European Airways plane.

Of the 23 survivors, 15 were hospitalized.

The most critically injured were Matt Busby, the Manchester manager and one of soccer's top masters; a United forward, John Berry; and sports writer Frank Taylor.

"We do not believe that the case of any one of these is hopeless," said the director of the surgical clinic. He added that Busby suffered serious chest injuries and was in a state of severe shock.

The other nine soccer players aboard the plane also were injured. For some it looked like the end of their playing careers, but all were expected to survive.

The team from Manchester, north England's industrial capital, was on its way home from Belgrade after tying Yugoslavia's Red Star team 3-3 and advancing to the semifinals of the European Cup matches.

The plane stopped in Munich to refuel. On the third try to take off in a snowstorm, it got about 60 feet above the ground, faltered and plowed into a two-story house. Then it hurtled into a wooded shed crammed with gasoline and oil cans, creating an inferno.

A woman and four children were in the house the plane hit but escaped injury.

The pilot, Capt. James Thain, declined to talk to reporters about the crash, saying he could tell nothing until directed by his superiors.

Farm Group Has Meeting

MONTAGUE — Grace Leavers, chairman, presided at the last meeting of the Shasta Valley Farm Women held February 1 at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Sears.

It was announced that a youth conference is scheduled to be held sometime in March at Asilomar Farm Center. The club named Mrs. Leavers and Mrs. George Flock as a committee to select two young people from the Shasta Valley area to attend the function.

Members of the Shasta Valley Farm Center have been assigned to decorate and to set up the tables for the annual county Farm Bureau dinner, which is to be held at the Montague auditorium on March 1. Mrs. Denny Leavers was chosen as chairman of the Shasta Valley area.

The women voted to send three care packages to foreign countries this year.

Further demonstrations on designing of corsages, with Mrs. Leavers illustrating how to tie bows to be used on them, climaxed the afternoon program.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following: Mrs. Aldee Davis, Mrs. Freda Deas, Mrs. George Flock, Mrs. Irene Garey, Mrs. Mary Lemos, Mrs. Denny Leavers, Mrs. Ralph Leavers, Mrs. Pauline McGowan, Mrs. Grace Rice, Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger, Mrs. Lucille Townley, Mrs. Ellen Walters, Mrs. Emma Walters and Arlene Sears.

Deputies To Get Wanted Pair

Two prisoners wanted on charges in Klamath County will be returned here in the near future.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Calfee left Friday morning for Portland to take into custody Leo T. Theford, 50, who is wanted here on charges of obtaining property under false pretenses.

Sheriff Murray Britton adds that Deputy Dale Mattoon will leave Monday for Omaha, Nebraska, to return Maynard Mulvey, 41, wanted here on forgery charges.

Merrill Lions Hold Meeting

MERRILL—Two new members were inducted into the Merrill Lions Club during a regular dinner meeting held Monday evening, February 3, at the Merrill Recreation Hall. The new Lions members are Ellis Wilson and Bob Graves. Induction officer was Dr. F. E. Trotman.

Plans were made for a Lion's basketball tournament scheduled for Wednesday, February 19, at Merrill. Participating in the tournament of which the proceeds will go to the sight conservation program will be the two Lions clubs from Klamath Falls and teams from Lakeview, Dorris and Merrill. The team that compiles the most points will be awarded the Leo trophy.

Lion president, Robert Trotman, and Robert Walker, last year's Citizen of the Year Award winner, will begin planning for this year's citizen award presentation. Final plans will be presented at the next Lions meeting, February 17.

Guest speaker of the evening, Clyde Caldwell, was introduced by Don Harris. Caldwell, Klamath County assessor, spoke briefly on several phases of taxation in Klamath County. With Caldwell was Ray Brackman, supervisor of personal property appraisal, who assisted with the question and answer part of the program.

Textile plants in the U.S. are expected to use about 8 1/2 million bales of cotton in 1958.

Seniors Top Honor Roll

DUNSMUIR — Nine seniors topped the Dunsmuir High School honor roll with all A's and B's. It was announced after semester grades were issued this week.

Top senior students were Ray Alcouffe, Ulla Bernston, Lorette Burgess, Shirley LaBarre, Merle Lynch, Norman McLean, Bill White, Wanda Wright and Gene Youtsey.

Juniors with all A's and B's were Richard Anderson and Manuel Macias. Sophomores with the same classification were Ardeth Asher, Sherman Ball, David Fischer, Lee Gass, Sam Griffin, Marco Romo, Tom Seed and Mary Tolin. Freshmen completing the semester with all A's and B's were Clinton Baughman, Toni Clarke, Theresa Fawcett, Michael Grenko, Adele Kenny, Karen Lee, Mary Speaker and Christine Wright.

Couple Hits Church Plan

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Construction of a church next door to their $90,000 home would lower property values and "create disturbances" in the neighborhood, a Phoenix couple contends.

Mr. and Mrs. David Keith filed a request for a temporary restraining order in Maricopa County Superior Court to prevent the Mountain View Church of Christ from building a new church next door.

"We just don't want anything that would collect lots of people and noise in the neighborhood," Keith, an investor, said. "We have nothing against the church."

SALE FIND
BARABOO, Wis. (AP) — A local woman received a pleasant surprise after paying 10 cents for a pendant at a sale of costume jewelry donated to Trinity Episcopal Church. She took the pendant to a jeweler who told her it was made up of garnets and diamonds valued at more than $200.
