Picture-Book Hairdos

ONCE UPON a time it wasn't easy to keep a little girl in curls—unless she had natural ones. Then along came the home permanents made specially for children, and even the wispiest and most stubborn hair fell under their spell. But permanented locks must be put up every once in a while, too, if they're to look picture-book pretty. With this in mind, we present a trio of flattering hairdos for little ladies. And just to make sure this story has a happy ending, follow the sketches carefully for direction and placement of pin curls.

Her name... Phyllis McMeen
Her school... U.C.L.A.
Her shampoo... Halo

This year's Homecoming Queen at U.C.L.A.—pretty Phyllis is majoring in Elementary Education in preparation for a teaching career.

Because of its unique cleansing ingredient...

Halo Shampoo leaves hair
Cleaner, Softer, Brighter than any oily, greasy, soapy shampoo

Charming Phyllis McMeen prefers Halo because no other shampoo, liquid, lotion or cream, offers Halo's unique cleansing ingredient, so mild yet so effective. What's more, there are no unnecessary ingredients in Halo. No greasy oils or creamy substances to interfere with cleaning action. No soap to leave dirt-catching film. That's why hair with the fresh, young Halo Look is so soft, so bright, so whistle-clean. Halo reveals the hidden beauty of your hair.
