Home Extension

ALTAMONT
Altamont Home Extension Unit members meeting on February 4 at Joan's Kitchen at the fairgrounds, heard Mrs. Orville Farrell report that a busy schedule to be followed by Ruth Gustavson, new home extension agent, a two-day project on pattern fitting would be held in place of the better dressing workshop. That workshop will be continued next year. Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, chairman, presided.
April 30 has been set as the date for the annual homemakers festival.

Four-H Club leaders present emphasized the need for more women to train for leaders. The March meeting will be on design in dress led by Dorothy Cramer and Thelma Thurman.
The project for the February 4 meeting was on freezing combination main dishes, presented by Laura Berry and Pearl Hansey. They prepared chicken a la king and potato puffs for 40 members and guests. Others prepared salad and dessert.
Ruth Gustavson and Lillian Hoffman were luncheon guests.

BUENA VISTA

By Grace Lester
Nina Berry and Ellen Doty, project leaders, gave a demonstration on the freezing of foods at the February 5 meeting of the Buena Vista Home Extension Unit, held in Joan's Kitchen at the fairgrounds.

They also demonstrated the making of combination main dishes, freezer meat sauce, mushroom, potato puffs, hamburger roll, garlic buttered bread, French bread and chicken a la king. These dishes were served for lunch.
Two new members, Mrs. R. M. Shaw and Mrs. G. Hoffman joined the unit. Thirteen members, two guests and four children were present.
The next meeting will be Wednesday, March 5.

GILCHRIST-CRESCENT
The Gilchrist-Crescent Unit of Home Extension met with the LaPine Unit in the grange hall Wednesday, February 5, for an all day session on accessories. Mrs. Donald Bertom and Mrs. R. D. Campbell of LaPine were the demonstrators.

A potluck dinner was served and hostesses were Mrs. Jess Kersten, Mrs. Lyman Kelley, Mrs. Dee Fletcher and Mrs. Jess Buck. The next meeting will be a social one on February 20.

BONANZA
The Bonanza Home Extension Unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Schmor, Bonanza, 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, February 11. Freezing main dishes will be demonstrated by Mrs. Harlan Prough and Mrs. Richard Brown. A potluck luncheon will be served. All interested homemakers are welcome.

Klamath Girl To Head Discussions

LEWIS AND CLARK COLLEGE, Portland (Special)—Virginia Martz of Klamath Falls is in charge of sorority discussion during the annual "religion-in-life" observance this week, February 10-14. "Christian Perspective" is the theme of the week-long series of public programs and informal discussion sessions. Key speaker is Dr. John S. Whaley, British theologian, teacher and author.
Miss Martz is a senior elementary education major and a member of Alpha Gamma sorority. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martz, Route 3.

FILES

LAKEVIEW—Harold M. Langset has filed his declaration as candidate for assessor of Lake County, a position which he now holds. He is seeking the Republican nomination. With March 7 the final date for filing, there has been one candidate each declared for the three positions open in the county. Chick Chaloupka has filed for district attorney, Jewel Corum for county commissioner, and Langset for assessor.

DARLENE BUCHHOLZ, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Buchholz, 2340 Garden Street, will be one of the contestants in the Klamath County Junior Chamber of Commerce Junior Miss Oregon of 1958 Contest, which will be held in the Mills School Auditorium, Tuesday, February 18 at 7:30 p.m. A senior at Klamath Union High School, Darlene, 17, is five-five and one-half and weighs 125. She will recite a humorous monologue as her part in the talent portion of the contest and if she wins one of the national prizes in Mobile, Alabama, will attend the University of Oregon and major in education.

VFW Group Initiates

MERRILL—Elected to membership and initiated into the Merrill VFW Auxiliary on Wednesday evening, February 5, was Mrs. Vivian Miller. Mrs. Robert Trotman, president, conducted the meeting attended by 17 members. Pro tem officers were Virginia Lampkins, junior vice president; Luana Ratliff, musician; Bertha McKoen, chairman; and Mary Lou Swisher, Blanche Maxwell, Dorothy Baxter and Barbara McKoen, color bearers.

The scholarship committee reported that two applications had already been filed for the $100 scholarship to be given by the auxiliary to a high school senior to further his education. All applications are to be filed by March 15. Final selection will be made by the teachers.
Barbara McKoen, member of the roller skating rink committee, reported that Dick Fenwick of Dorris wished to discuss with the committee the skating rink possibilities in Merrill.
Mrs. Grace Walker reported that work was progressing on schedule in the kitchen of the VFW Hall. Final plans were made for the food sale to be held in Klamath Falls on February 15.
Entertainment was planned for the VFW crab feed which will be held in early March.

KLAMATH COUNTY COUNCIL

By Mrs. Alexander Luft
A few of the many achievements and innovations of PTA during the last 59 years came to life in the form of skits for members at the Founders Day meeting of the Klamath County Council of PTA Tuesday, February 4, in the Roosevelt School.

Gary Robertson, Mrs. Robert Veatch, Mrs. James Swansen, Mrs. Arthur Farr with children Thurston Henzel, Robert Sandmeyer, Marianne Gallagher and Kathy Veatch enacted the skits as Mrs. Art Moore narrated. Mrs. Fred Ehlers accompanied with the piano and Billy Brinegar was prop boy.

The skits, written by Mrs. John Putnam were as follows:

4-H Club Has First Meet

MOUNT SHASTA—The VFW sponsored 4-H Club held its first meeting Thursday night and elected the following officers: Ethel Frazier, president; Carleen Hill, vice president; and Barbara Graham, secretary.

Others elected were Gene Lensing, publicity director; Susy Hubbard, song leader; with Mary Wilkinson heading the recreational activities.

Community leader Laurence Lensing with assistant leader, Mrs. Inadeen Hill, helped the club members in completing the organization. Lensing is a veteran 4-H worker from Wisconsin.

Mrs. Josa Cardoza, Mrs. Virginia Frederick and Mrs. Eunice Lensing will be in charge of the sewing project. Joe Cardoza heads the electricity division; Neil Lensing, the woodworkers groups; and Wilbert Frazier, the agricultural.

Strawberry Valley 4-H Club is the name chosen by the group. They will meet the first Thursday evening of each month in the elementary school cafeteria. With nearly 50 members now enrolled, and applications coming in each day, this is expected to be the largest 4-H group in Siskiyou County.

Dog License Total Grows

County Clerk Charles DeLap reports that approximately 1,200 dog licenses were issued between January 1 and February 5, and that an estimated 3,000 more will be issued between now and March 1.

The licenses are $2 for males, and $3 for females, and a penalty of $2 will be added to the regular license prices after March 1. Persons living in the immediate Klamath Falls area may purchase the dog licenses at the county clerk's office or at the county dog pound immediately south of town. For the convenience of persons living in outlying areas, County Poundmaster Bill Schlegel will visit Merrill on February 11; Malin, February 13; Crescent, February 17; Beatty, February 19; Sprague River, February 21; Chiloquin, February 25; and Bly, February 28.

The United States now grows more than half of the world's soybean crop. Other than its many food uses, it is planted to replenish nitrogen-starved soil.
