

BASIN BRIEFS

Talent Show — The Dorris Baptist Church starting Sunday, February 16. Dr. Hunt is editor of the Missionary Baptist monthly publication, which is printed in Fresno, and has had 40 years of experience in ministerial and evangelistic work.

Return Home — Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Johnston, New Pine Creek, have returned from a month's visit with relatives in Indiana and Pennsylvania. They reported having no trouble on the 6,000 mile trip, but encountered icy roads around St. Louis and farther east.

To Sacramento — Mrs. Katie Dick, New Pine Creek, accompanied Marjorie Hickerson, Modoc County assessor, Alturas, her mother, Mrs. Reta Hickerson, and George Cambron to Sacramento last week.

To Paisley — Mrs. Buna Faris and her mother, Mrs. Alpha Hartog, were in Paisley Monday evening to attend the local PTA meeting.

Crescent — Community Club sponsored a March of Dimes dance Saturday evening with the proceeds of $30 turned over to the polio fund.

Luncheon — The WSCS of the Mount Shasta Methodist Church will serve a 50 cents a plate luncheon on Tuesday, February 13, at 12:30 in the church basement. This will be followed by a one act play given by the Ruth Circle which will be directed by Mrs. A. B. Cooper.

To Sale — Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robnett, New Pine Creek, accompanied Will Vernon to the bull sale at Red Bluff last week-end, leaving on Tuesday so they could visit relatives on their way.

Evangelist — Dr. C. E. Hunt will hold a series of evangelistic meetings at the New Pine Creek Yreka BPW Holds Benefit

Yreka BPW Holds Benefit — The Yreka Business and Professional Women's Club sponsored a benefit program to raise funds for the American Field Service which was held in the Melody Room of the Yreka Inn on February 13. The program featured slides taken by Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Young on their three month trip to Europe. Several foreign aid students have been guests in different homes in Yreka since 1955 when the Yreka Rotary Club sponsored the first one through the American Field Service. This year's student is Marja-Leena Raatikainen of Finland, who is the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Everett Barr, Yreka. Dr. and Mrs. Young felt that in sharing their European trip through pictures they will arouse an interest in the American Field Service and interested persons will wish to help promote its continuance in Yreka. Members of the BPW committee who were in charge of Thursday evening's program were Mrs. Ray Kelly, Mrs. Kenneth Young, Mrs. R. D. Baumbach and Mrs. L. B. Waters.

played a variety of water colors and oils at a recent meeting of the group held at the Yreka Inn, Yreka. Jerry Jenkins, president, gave constructive criticism of the paintings.

Candidate — Estelle Isaacs, who was unanimously appointed to the office of county tax collector-treasurer by the Siskiyou County Board of Supervisors in November, 1956, has announced her candidacy for that office in the forthcoming elections.

Visitors — Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arrington, formerly of Yreka, and now residents of San Rafael were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Meek, Yreka. The Arringtons attended the joint installation ceremonies of the Yreka Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges while there.

To Mexico — Mr. and Mrs. Warren Torney, Yreka, left last week for a six week vacation in Mexico.

Business Trip — Recently returning from a short business trip to the Bay Area were Mr. and Mrs. George Wacker, Yreka. They visited their son, Mike, who is a student at the University of California, Berkeley.

Fairhaven — Home Extension will hold a special meeting on textile painting on February 20 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Jack Brandon, 31 Weyerhaeuser. Members are asked to bring paints, if possible, soft board, blotter, glass to paint on and one medium.

sized brush. Coffee will be furnished for the sack lunches. Interested people welcome.

Married — Word has been received in Chemult of the marriage of Maxine Fletcher, Chemult, who is stationed in the Air Force at Carswell AFB, New Mexico, to A.I.C. Glenn D. Henry, stationed at Altus AFB, Oklahoma. Maxine will make a short visit with her parents in Chemult in June.

New Pine Creek — Mrs. Cora Cook, New Pine Creek, accompanied Mrs. Albert Waterhouse, Lakeview, to Klamath Falls recently where she visited her daughter.

Chula Post — No. 92 American Legion members of McCloud held a dinner meeting the evening of February 10 with 94 members present. It was voted to donate $10 to the Heart Fund.

ter, Mrs. Margaret Anne Waterhouse and the OTI campus. Gary Waterhouse, Margaret's husband, is a student at OTI.

Meeting — Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple, Bonanza, attended the meeting of the Twelfth District rural route mail carriers at Central Post recently. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gowen of Klamath Falls accompanied them.

Vacation — Mrs. Billy Bell, Dairy, left for several weeks to visit with relatives in Sacramento and Los Angeles.

In Oakland — Mrs. Lu Penner, Langell Valley, is visiting friends in Oakland.

Medical Care — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fernlund, Bonanza, are in Portland where Mrs. Fernlund is receiving medical care.

Moved — Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hankins and family have moved back to Bonanza from Grants Pass.

Granddaughter — Travis Heuston, Langell Valley, has a new granddaughter born in Klamath Falls on February 10 to his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Zane Heuston.
