

Score Tests Injured Eye In Batting Cage

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Herb Score is more confident than ever that he will be able to resume his place on the mound for the Cleveland Indians after giving his vision its stiffest test since he was hit in the eye by a line drive.

The 24-year-old southpaw went through a private session of batting practice in the cage at H. Corbett field yesterday that wiped away any doubt about his depth perception.

Iron Mike, the mechanical pitcher, was cranked up to fast-ball tension, but Score timed the ball to near perfection.

"It looked as clear and sharp coming up there as it ever did," he said.

Except for a few pepper games late last season, it was the first time Score had had a bat in his hands since he was struck in the right eye by a line drive from the bat of New York Yankee shortstop Gil McDougald at Cleveland last May 7.

"I think that I'll ask Bobby Bragan to put me in the outfield," Herb said after the batting session. "It would be a shame to waste a hitter like me just pitching every fourth day."

Will he be "gun-shy" as a result of the accident that nearly ended his career?

"I expect I'll be hit by a lot more line drives before I'm done pitching," he said. "All pitchers get hit, mostly on the legs. But to catch one smack in the eye—that's a million-to-one shot. It happened once."

He said he usually loses sight of the ball after it has left his hand because in the follow-through his head goes down to nearly knee height. But he has no intention of trying to revise his natural delivery.

"I have to pitch my way," he said, "and my way is to follow through in a fashion that makes it impossible to follow the ball on its way to the plate. If I tried to change I'd probably lose more of my speed and maybe hurt my arm. I'd rather take that million-to-one chance of being hit on the head by a line drive."

The 60-year-old former Air Force Academy and San Francisco Forty-Niner coach, signed a three-year contract at an estimated $20,000 a year. He becomes the sixth Eagles coach since 1950, succeeding Hugh Devore who was fired last Jan. 13, more than a month after the AP disclosed he was through. The Eagles are paying off the final year of Devore's three-year pact.

Devore got the gate after two losing seasons—last in the NFL Eastern Division in '56, next to last in '57.

Shaw, a veteran coach who guided the San Francisco 49ers for nine years, resigned at the Air Force Academy three weeks ago. He still had three years left on a five-year pact.

The reason he quit: his business commitments in San Francisco, where he is an official of a container firm, made it impossible, he said, to devote as much time to the coaching job as Air Force Academy authorities wanted him to.

His academy teams won 9, lost 8, tied 2.

His 49er teams—four years in the old All-America Conference (38-14-2) and five in the NFL (32-23-2)—won 70, lost 40, tied 4.

Indian Teams Vie
The Chiloquin Townies and Sprague River Indians host two outside teams Saturday night in a basketball doubleheader scheduled for Chiloquin High School's gym at 7:30 o'clock.

The Townies play the Warm Springs Magpies in the featured game and Sprague River tangles with Alturas' Red Devils in the opener.

TIME OUT

"I was determined my day at Hialeah wouldn't be a total loss. . . . You know a recipe for Southern fried flamingo?"

Marr Leads Texas Open Golf Tourney

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Texan Dave Marr, one of the brightest youngsters coming up in golf, led the $15,000 Texas Open by a whopping six strokes going into the second round today.

He showed they had been looking in the wrong place for the best bad weather player. He had an 8-under-par 63 yesterday over the soggy 6,490-yard Brackenridge Park course.

It was another recommendation for the Claude Harmon School of Golf at Mamaroneck, N.Y. This school produced such stars as Dick Mayer, Jack Burke, Mike Souchak and Shelley Mayfield.

Marr, a native of Houston but now playing out of Cedarhurst, N.Y., credits Harmon with making him what he is today. He was an assistant to Harmon during his five years of pro experience. He's a cousin of Burke.

Many faltered under some of the worst conditions ever faced during the winter tour. Marr appeared to thrive on it. He was close to the pin on practically every hole and he was banging in putts from all distances.

Only 15 of a field of 150 players were able to better par.

Only four players could better 70. They were Tony Holguin, Middlethan, Ill., former Texas Open champion; Dave Ragan, of Orlando, Fla.; Bill Johnston Provo, Utah; and Stan Leonard, Vancouver. Each shot a 69.

Jay Hebert, Sanford, Fla., the defending champion, had a 74.

Jackie Pung Open Leader

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UP)—Jackie Pung of San Francisco, a hot golfer on a cold course, teed off with a seven-stroke lead in the second round of the fifth annual St. Petersburg Open today.

The veteran Californian shot a record - breaking 66 Thursday, despite cold temperatures and strong winds, to take a comfortable lead over runner-up Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S. C., who finished with a 73.

Miss Pung's 66, the best card she ever marked, set a women's record on the Sunset Golf Club course, a tight - tree-lined 6,116 yards. She also set a ladies PGA record when she birdied five holes in succession, starting with the fifth, to go out in 31 strokes, five under men's par.

Miss Pung had only 24 putts for the 18 holes and only 10 on the first nine holes. She had only one bogey, which was at the 17th hole when she missed a six-foot putt.

Miss Rawls, who shot a 73 Thursday, won the Tampa Women's Open last month. She was trailed by Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., and Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., who shot first-round 74's.

Mary Ann Reynolds of Albany, Ga., led the amateur entries by carding a 76.

County Cagers In Final Tilts

Klamath County "B" schools bring their regular basketball season to a close tonight with three league and one non league game scheduled.

The Malin Mustangs, currently number one in the standings, host the tied-for second place Bly Bobcats on the Malin court in the feature game of the evening.

The Merrill Huskies who share the number two slot, travel to Bonanza for a contest with the fifth-place Antlers. Wins by Merrill and Bly would knot the league lead in a three way tie.

Fourth-ranked Chiloquin tangles with Sacred Heart, number 6, on the Panthers home floor.

In the non league game the Gilchrist Grizzlies meet the Henley Hornets at Gilchrist.

Henley will enter the Rogue League Tourney next weekend while the "B" schools will hold their tournament on February 27, 28 and March 1.
