

MRS. MARVIN KUHLMAN is pictured above by the living room fireplace in the Kuhlman's new home. The recently completed dwelling was designed to fit the present family circle that is now four instead of six, with one of the sons in the service and another away at college.

Stan is a sergeant in the USMC stationed at the Cold Weather Training Battalion in the High Sierra; and Kenneth is a student at Shasta Junior College, Redding. The two children at home are son Terry, a senior at KUHS; and daughter Kathy, who is especially happy to live "real" close to Gonger School where she is a student.

The Kuhlman's lived at 430 Riverside Drive for nine years, leaving there for Donald Street around the first of this year.

The conniving couples, who engineered the surprise housewarming for their ex-neighbors, were Bill and Beverly (Calhoun) Evans, Beverly's parents, Loren and Virginia Calhoun, Howard and Pauline Pernell, Carroll and Nadine Colvin, Fred and Ethel Goeller, Al and Daisy Carlson, Jesse and Bea Blackburn, Clyde and Diane Hutchens, Albert (Al) and Muriel Conforti, Darrell and June Potter and Adolph (Duke) and Vi Zamsky.

A few have moved away from "The Drive" to new Klamath Falls addresses—but all are still "neighbors."

Before her marriage, Beverly Evans lived with her parents next door to the Kuhlman's on Riverside. Now Beverly and Bill are just across the street from Peggy and Marvin.

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge 104 Honors Only Charter Member

Laura D. Uerlings, only charter member of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104 was honored by officers and members at the regular meeting Thursday, February 6, at the IOOF Hall.

Red valentine hearts inscribed with Laura's name decorated the lodge hall where she was crowned "Rebekah Sweetheart" after being escorted to the Noble Grand's station. Bernice McCracken, noble grand, presented her with a corsage and a gift from the lodge. A barbershop quartet, The Klamath Kraters, Vernon Durant, Lyle Smith, Jimmie Perkins and Bill Evans dedicated special songs to the honored guest.

During the business meeting, conducted by noble grand, Bernice McCracken, plans were announced for the forthcoming district convention slated for August 9, with Prosperity Lodge as hostess.

The social club meeting on February 17 will be at the home of district deputy Irene Rickman.

Nina Beck, Julia Williams and Margaret Hageman surprised members by staging a skit, "Court Scene" arranged by Mary Wells.

A reception followed in the dining room decorated in the heart motif. Velma Krauss, vice grand, and Edith Wiard poured; Vera Fritsch and Lorene McCollum served cake. Arrangements for the reception were made by noble grand, Bernice McCracken assisted by Vera Fritsch and Lorene McCollum.
