Lucille Van Keuren Weds Eduardo de los Reyes

McCLOUD—Mr. and Mrs. Eduardo de los Reyes, (nee Lucille Van Keuren of McCLOUD) are honeymooning in San Francisco, following their marriage in Chico on January 25. Attendants were the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mario Fackin.

Pair Honeymoons At Lake Tahoe

WEED — A double-ring nuptial service read in San Jose St. Francis Episcopal Church on January 18, at 4 p.m., united in marriage Geraldine Lois Kner, Weed, and Gerald B. Abney, Middletown, Ohio, both students of San Jose College.

The Rev. A. Wickham was officiant for the informal ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morton A. Kner, Weed, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Abney, Middletown, Ohio.

For her wedding the bride wore a jewel-encrusted dress in antique white with matching accessories. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds and small mums.

Linda Burdette, sorority sister of the bride, was honor attendant. She wore a pale pink knit dress with matching accessories and her flowers were pink rosebuds.

Jack Morgan, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and Charles Womer, cousin of the bride, was usher.

Following the ceremonies, a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Womer, Campbell, California. Mrs. Womer is an aunt of the bride.

The ornate three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the newlyweds and served to the guests by Dorothy Cook, a sorority sister of the bride.

They honeymooned at Lake Tahoe and other resort spots and stopped in Weed last week before returning to college.

The bride is a graduate of Weed schools and is a member of Alpha Phi sorority at San Jose. She will graduate with the class of '58. The bridegroom graduated from the Middletown High School and after active duty with the Coast Guard entered San Jose State College this year to complete his education. He is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Besides the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Keuren, McCLOUD, others in the wedding party included Arthur Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dutter, Janet Marado, Chico; and Helen Crum of Ria Vista, all are attending Chico State College. The nuptial service was read in the chambers of Judge W. E. Rothe, Chico Justice Court.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom were entertained at a home of the newlyweds, who cut a wedding cake made by Mrs. Louise Swanson of McCLOUD. The bridegroom's parents are the late Mr. and Mrs. de los Reyes of Quebec, Canada.

Farewell Dinner

ALTURAS — The Rose Room of the Hotel Niles was the scene of a large farewell dinner party given for Dr. H. N. Tragitt, vicar of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, and Mrs. Tragitt, when parishioners and friends assembled Friday night at the invitation of Dean Hall and Mrs. O. W. Boyd, co-chairmen of arrangements.

Piano selections were played by Nadine and Sharon Enderlin, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Russ Enderlin, and Phyllis Graham, older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Graham.

The Tragitts have left for his new church assignment at Bishop, California.

A gift of money from the group to the honored guests was presented by Don Weston.

Dancing Club

WEED — "Snow Scene" was the theme for the Weed Dancing Club midwinter event on January 18 in St. Michael's Hall. Miniature snowmen were interesting figures in the winter wonderland centerpiece on the buffet table. Similar greenery arrangements in the snow theme centered the social tables that were illuminated with tall lighted tapers for the midnight supper.

Two guest couples, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Winchell, Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. George Ruth, Longview, and 31 member couples attended. The cocktail hour was at 8:30 and dancing to music by the Hotentots was from 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bordin, chairmen, were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Seitz, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. David Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Hoy and Mr. and Mrs. G. Gaynor.

Milly's Mirror

OLD—but not very! school friends of Stanley Kuhlman from Florence and Lloyd Timmons — who live at a resort in the summertime — specifically Rocky Point, Oregon — and loll around in the southern sunshine most of each winter. Of course the livin' ain't so easy for the Timmons at the summer resort — because they run the thing. But those sun-drenched winter days in the southland! — and only once was I successful with a rain-cats-and-dogs hex while they were down there.

Next summer he will teach mountain climbing for the second time. Last year Sgt. Kuhlman was one of a very few Marines out of hundreds tested who qualified as an instructor in mountain climbing. Stan was always rated as a better-than-good dancer—and maybe that neat and nimble footwork on the dance floor was a valuable factor in successful mountain climbing. And don't forget—mountain climbing Marine-style is FOR-REAR—not for fun!

THE INVITATIONS looked like genuine travel folders—but opened up read that Britta and Martin Franz were giving a surprise bon voyage party for the Robert Nichols—Nick and Fran—and that the "secret mission" was to "launch" the N's on their recent voyage to view the "Lake-view."

They are settled there now with a permanent view and Nick has begun a new chapter in his law career—in the law offices of Forrest Cooper.

Dunsmuir Pair Weds In Reno

DUNSMUIR — Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hannan are now at home in Dunsmuir following their recent marriage in Reno.

Mrs. Hannan, formerly Margie Lucille Bowlin and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowlin of Dunsmuir, is continuing her high school studies. The bridegroom is completing some special high school preparatory work for a television and radio technical course in Southern California.

For the civil ceremony in the Reno Courthouse, the bride wore a black and white tuxedo suit with black accessories and a pink carnation corsage. Although the couple's engagement had been announced last year, their marriage came as a surprise to their relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hannan of Dunsmuir are the bridegroom's parents.

As a post-nuptial event, Dianna Spearin and co-hostess Nancy Rah-john invited 24 classmates and friends to a shower for the new bride at the Spearin home.
