Famous Choir Sings Tonight
 The majority of the 65 voice Concordia Choir appearing in Mills School auditorium tonight at 8:15 under sponsorship of the Klamath Lutheran Church, this city, are of Scandinavian heritage. Paul J. Christiansen, director, is the son of F. Melius Christiansen of St. Olaf Choir fame. The reception of the choir by musicians and laymen alike in Norway was overwhelming and at the first concert in Oslo, Norway's Crown Prince Olaf and Crown Princess Martha were honored guests. The following day the choir party was received at the royal summer home in Skaugum. The group is widely traveled both in Europe and this country. Tickets for the concert will be available at the door.

Lakeview Lists Pruning Session

LAKEVIEW—As a direct result of recommendations made by the home and community committee of the Lake County Planning Conference, Club Agent Al Hasbacher announces that the services of Ralph Clark, extension horticulturist from Oregon State College, have been secured for Thursday, February 20, to furnish information on pruning and landscaping. The pruning demonstration will be on ornamental trees and shrubs and those in the yard at St. Luke's Episcopal Church will be used for the actual work. This will begin at 10:30 and all interested are invited.

Five Men Listed For Shasta Post

MOUNT SHASTA — With two vacancies to be filled on the Mount Shasta city council in the April election, five candidates have filed for the race. These are David McDaniel, Ray Torrey, Herman Barr, W. J. Barlow and Frederick W. Merithew. Incumbents Mayor Phil Googins and councilwoman Mrs. Irma Coffeen did not seek reelection. A special tax of 30 cents on the $100 valuation for street working equipment will also be on the ballot for the coming election.

ASSESSOR NAMED

Klamath County Assessor Clyde (Hap) Caldwell recently received word that he has been named to the membership committee of the National Association of Assessing Offices.

CAR RECOVERED

Raymond L. Dencers of Klamath Falls reported to city police Friday morning that he had located his automobile which had been reported missing the previous evening. Dencers told police that he found the automobile parked in an Eighth Street grocery store lot. The machine was not damaged.

Judge Harry A. Hammond

Yreka Files For Election

YREKA — Judge Harry Hammond, incumbent as judge of the justice court of Yreka Judicial District, recently announced his candidacy for that post. He was appointed to the judgeship in 1957 to complete the unexpired term of the late Judge Claude L. Gillis. Prior to his becoming judge, Hammond practiced law for several years in Yreka where he still maintains his private offices. After careful consideration and at the urging of many friends and supporters, Hammond made the decision to seek election. He stated that he felt the Yreka judgeship "should not be filled by anyone who has been a public prosecutor; since it is obviously difficult for such a person to be fair and impartial where police officers are concerned in the outcome of criminal cases."

REV. ANDREW JARVIS

Pastor Fills Local Pulpit

The Rev. Andrew Jarvis, Havre, Montana, accompanied by Mrs. Jarvis (Darlene) and their 2-year-old son, David, has arrived to fill the pulpit of the Mt. Laki Community Presbyterian. The church has had no pastor since the Rev. William Ainley and his family left for a mission field in Africa. Rev. Jarvis grew up and attended school in Walnut Creek, California. He attended the University of California and transferred to Whitworth College in Spokane, Washington, where he later completed his preparation for the ministry with a B.D. degree from the San Francisco Theological Seminary. San Anselmo, in June, 1956. His first call to a pastorate was as assistant pastor in charge of youth activities at the First Presbyterian Church, Havre. Rev. and Mrs. Jarvis were honored with a reception recently, sponsored by the Cruiser Club of the church. The entire congregation was invited and the new arrivals were presented with gifts during the evening.

Wives To Form Dental Group

Wives of the Klamath County dentists held a meeting in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel on Tuesday, February 11, to form an auxiliary to the Klamath County Dental Society. The local dental society had written a letter to Mrs. John Cox asking that she and Mrs. George Goehring be instrumental in starting an auxiliary, and another letter had been received from the Oregon State Dental Auxiliary stating that they were interested in a group being formed in Klamath Falls.

Forger Faces Five

Jack O. Rowlin, Marysville, California, resident who was recently returned to Klamath County to face charges of forgery, was sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary Friday morning when appearing before Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg. Rowlin was recently released from the Arizona State Penitentiary where he was serving time on another forgery count.

Reckless Driving

Charles E. Mace, of 775 Old Fort Road, was cited on charges of reckless driving Thursday morning after the machine he was driving collided with one driven by Alice Guillemont near the intersection of Main and Mortimer streets. Neither driver was seriously injured, and the cars were not extensively damaged.
