By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
California's Bears pulled in to sole command of the Pacific Coast Conference basketball standings over the weekend with a healthy lift from the University of Idaho. Pete Newell's defense-minded Bears knocked off Southern California 80-62 while Gary Simmons and his Idaho teammates belted former co-leader UCLA 73-67 at Moscow.

The meteoric climb of Roseburg's prep basketball team ran into double trouble over the weekend. The Roseburg squad, which last week vaulted into the No. 5 position in the Associated Press Poll, was beaten twice over the weekend. Friday night No. 8 South Eugene nudged Roseburg 49-30, and Saturday night sixth-ranked Springfield turned the trick, 42-38. Springfield sank 16 of 30 field goal attempts in its victory. Roseburg last week made a first appearance of the season in the poll after upsetting two of the top 10 teams in the state. South Eugene continued its winning pace Saturday night with an easy 71-48 victory over Cottage Grove. John Polhemus got 19 for the winners. Two other teams in the top 10 Saturday night clinched berths in the state A-1 basketball tournament. No. 1, Klamath Falls, got its tourney position by trimming Ashland, 70-37. And fourth-ranked Astoria clinched a place in the prep classic by downing Milwaukie 44-34 behind the 18-point scoring effort of 6-4 Gordon Scott. The only other team in the top 10 which saw action Saturday night was ninth-ranked Pendleton, which stepped out of conference play to edge Walla Walla, 52-50.

Nats Slice Celtics' Lead

By UNITED PRESS
Everyone has conceded the Boston Celtics will win the Eastern Division title of the National Basketball Association except the stubborn Syracuse Nationals. The second-place Nationals still can overtake the Celtics although it would take a near-perfect game of basketball. The Nationals and the Celtics' lead to 6 1/2 games by whipping the Cincinnati Royals, 113-105, Sunday. The Cincinnati team arrived one hour later for the game in Syracuse, N.Y., due to a heavy snowstorm. That same storm caused postponement of the game between the Celtics and New York Knickerbockers in Boston. No new date was announced. Walt Dukes tipped in a shot as the final horn sounded to give the Detroit Pistons a 100-98 win over the St. Louis Hawks, Western Division leaders. Veteran Vern Mikkelsen registered 31 points to lead Minneapolis to a 106-99 victory over Philadelphia.

Hoad Trips Pancho Twice

EVANSTON, Ill. (UP) — Lew Hoad, the 23-year-old Aussie who turned pro last year, widened his margin over Pancho Gonzales during the weekend in their international struggle for the pro tennis championship. Hoad defeated Gonzales, the defending champ, twice in matches in McGraw Hall at Northwestern University. The blond Aussie whipped Gonzales, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3, Saturday and then easily won in straight sets Sunday, 6-4, 6-4. Both players displayed their power game — a booming service and smashing forehands. But Hoad was superior with a sharp backhand slice. The victories gave Hoad a 13-7 lead over Gonzales in their tennis tour.

Dodgers Sell Sandy Amoros

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Speedy little Cuban Sandy Amoros, who saved the 1955 World Series for the Dodgers with a spectacular catch against the Yankees, has been sold to Montreal of the International League after failing to come to terms with the Los Angeles club. The Dodgers would not be quoted directly as saying the outfielder's sale to the farm club resulted from his holding out, saying only that the fact they could not come to terms spoke for itself.

meet traditional-rival Stanford while UCLA's Bruins battle Washington at Seattle. The Bears' triumph Saturday was a team effort with the scoring spread among Don McIntosh with 17, Bob Dalton with 14, Earl Robinson with 13 and Jack Grout with 10. Jim White made 14 of 15 free tosses and three field goals for 20 to lead the Trojans. Idaho's Vandals took charge after the second half started and kept UCLA off balance from then on. The Bruins rallied in the closing minutes but couldn't get closer than five points. Simmons hit 37 points and set a single season scoring record at Idaho. He came into the game needing only 19 points to break the old mark of 414 set by Hartley Kruger. The 5-foot-11 senior pumped in 22 of his points in the first half to keep the Vandals in the game. Then as the second half started Gary McEwen hit a pair of hook shots, Whaylon Coleman sank a free toss and Jim Branon pushed through a jump shot to push the Vandals into a lead they never again relinquished. In the Oregon-Washington game Franklin missed a shot and a short jump shot through the hoop to tie the thing at 79-79 as regulation play ended. In the overtime session Bud Kuykendall sank a long shot and Franklin poured in another, Washington's George Grant hit but Oregon's Chuck Rask drove in for two to keep the Webfoot four points ahead. Grant connected again with a minute left, but Franklin layed in another field goal as the game ended. Next Friday Cal faces the Idaho Vandals at Moscow, Stanford journeys to UCLA and Oregon State goes south to play Southern California.

On Saturday it's Cal at Washington State, Stanford at Southern Cal, Oregon State at UCLA and Washington at Idaho. SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UP) — Club professional Bill Johnston, who plays only the winter tour — and not too much of that — was showing the big names of golf a thing or two today. He was the only player winning money in all tournaments this year. The Provo, Utah, municipal course pro, a deadly swinger off the tee, won his first tournament in two winters of trying yesterday as he galloped in with a 3-under-par 68 for a total of 274 on 72 holes and $2,000 first money in the Texas Open. He vaulted from 24th place to 8th in the official money winning list. He has banked $3,518.33. Johnston overtook Dave Marr of Cedarhurst, N.Y., on the final round of the Texas Open and finished three strokes ahead. Bob Rosburg, Napa, Calif., almost won it with a 6-under-par 65 on the final 18 holes. He wound up second at 277 and got $1,500. Marr could manage only a 73 and finished in a tie for third at 278 with Jimmy Demaret, Kiamasha Lake, N.Y.; Bo Winger, Odessa, Tex.; and Billy Maxwell, Odessa.

MIAMI, Fla. (UP) — Washington was assured today of having at least one baseball champion in 1958. He is rookie outfielder Albie Pearson, who Sunday won the national baseball players golf tournament with a 1-up victory on the 19th hole over Johnny Gray, lanky pitcher for the Philadelphia Phillies. The five-foot-six inch Pearson also had to beat three-time winner and defending champion Alvin Dark of the St. Louis Cardinals in the morning semifinals, 4 and 2 for a shot at the title in his first appearance. Gray, meanwhile, upset Chicago White Sox manager Al Lopez 3 and 2 to gain the finals. Pearson twice came from behind to tie the match with Gray and send it to the extra hole. He sank a 25-foot putt for a birdie, two on the 16th hole, lost the 17th, then dropped in a winning 13-foot on 18. On the 19th, Gray missed a three-footer and Pearson stroked in an 18-inch shot for victory. He is the first left-hander to win the tournament since Paul Waner in 1935. Waner, a Hall of Fame member, lost out in the finals of the inactive major league division Sunday to Lou Fonseca, motion picture director for both major leagues. Don Bessent of the Dodgers scored the first hole-in-one in the 27-year history of the tournament during a morning match. But he lost in the finals of the consolation flight, 4 and 3, to Ray Boone of the Detroit Tigers.

Bad Weather Hits Eastern Sports Meets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Horse racing, basketball, boxing, soccer, boat racing and horse shows and even such winter sports as skiing, hockey and speed skating were dealt blows by the blizzard which swept the Atlantic Coast over the weekend. Bowie, where several thousand fans were stranded after Saturday's horse races in a blinding snowstorm, canceled today's program. In New England, the Boston Celtics canceled their National Basketball Assn. game with the New York Knickerbockers yesterday. Numerous small college basketball games in the South were postponed because teams were unable to travel. Opening of Eastern Parkway in Brooklyn for boxing was postponed until March 1. In Bronxville, N.Y., a horse show was canceled when a judge and many exhibitors were unable to reach the Saddle Tree Farms Club. A soccer game between the First Vienna team of Austria and an all-star American aggregation in New York also was canceled. An Eastern Hockey League game between Johnstown and Washington was postponed. High winds and subnormal temperatures resulted in the postponement of four regattas in Florida and competition among frostbite dinghies on Long Island. The National Ski Jumping Championships at Iron Mountain, Mich., were postponed for the second straight day because of high winds and subzero temperatures.

Malin Athletic Club Wins District AAU Maple Playoff

Malin's Athletic Club took a step closer to the state AAU basketball tournament by whipping Medford's Big Y Market entry 74-71 in the district playoff game Sunday afternoon at Malin. Led by big Rod Detrick, the ex-COP star, the MAC pulled the game out of the fire in the last few minutes to gain the right to meet the winner of the Coos Bay-North Bend area this Sunday at Medford or Ashland. The time and site will be announced later this week. Detrick scored 31 points in paving the way for the MAC victory, including two clutch field goals in the last-minute drive that carried the Malin club to the win. Malin led 60-52 early in the fourth quarter, but Big Y cut the margin to 63-62 with four minutes to go. Dale Bates and Don Lawrence, two former Southern Oregon stars, led the Medford team into a 71-70 pull before the MAC was able to lead away. Virgil Rick "iced" the win with two free throws in the last minutes. Malin led 38-23 at halftime. Detrick's 31 points was high for the game. Teammate Jim Conroy and Big Y's Don Newton each had 15. Summary: BIG Y (71) — Hejns 12, Lawrence 15, Smith 2, Johnson 2, R. Spinas 3, Bates 19, D. Bates — A. S. Hanow 2, B. Johnson 2, Detrick 31, Conroy 15, J. # Floyd Awaits European Fight; Valdes To Meet Miteff Friday

Floyd Patterson's manager will be sitting home by the telephone Friday when Joe Erskine risks his chances for a heavyweight title bout in a European championship match with Ingemar Johansson in Sweden. Cus D'Amato already has reached an agreement with promoter Harry Levane for Patterson to defend against Erskine in London next summer if — The big IP is Erskine's ability to beat Johansson on his home ground. Erskine, a Welshman who holds the British crown, has a 32-1-1 record as compared to Johansons perfect 18-0 since he turned pro. If the amateurs, Johansson was beaten by the late Ed Sanders of the U.S. in the 1952 Olympic finals at Helsinki. If Johansson whips Erskine, he'll be in the running for a shot at Patterson along with all the other top contenders. Nino Valdes, the giant Cuban, also has an important fight Friday. He meets Alex Miteff, the young Argentine, in New York's Madison Square Garden. Big Nino has won six straight since he was beaten by the 1-2 contenders, Eddie Machen and Zora Folley. Consequently he is rated No. 5 by the National Boxing Assn. and No. 6 by Ring Magazine. Miteff, knocked out in one round by Mike DeJohn in October for his only defeat in 15 fights, is ranked No. 9 in both systems. The 10-round match will be carried on network (NBC) radio and TV. Gene (Ace) Armstrong, the unbeaten Elizabeth, N.J., middleweight, faces his most serious test this Monday night at St. Nicholas Arena in New York where matchmaker Teddy Brenner has paired him with Charlie Joseph of New Orleans. Kid Gavilan and Ralph (Tiger) Jones, two men who have been around the top for many years, meet for the second time Wednesday in a bout to be staged in Miami Beach hotel. Gavilan has Jones on a decision way back in 1953. Network (ABC) TV will bear the show across the nation.

Delany Disappointed In Baxter Mile Win

NEW YORK (UP)—Ron Delany, eyes on the world indoor record of 4:03.6. "I ran in front most of the time because no one else wanted the lead. But I took it easy, waiting for Rozsavolgyi to make his move. He has gone under four minutes outdoors so you must admit I couldn't take any chances." Rozsavolgyi, who arrived in the United States only two days before the race, wasn't exactly celebrating, either. "Is Delany disappointed?" he repeated. "Me, too. All that smoke bothered me, a lot more than I thought it would. But I ran poorly, I think I can do better with more experience." Delany has little chance for the world record now until the New York Knights of Columbus meet March 8. The field figures to be too large this Saturday night in the National AAU championships and the competition too dull the following week in the IC4A meet. For the record-happy, the highlight of the New York A.C. meet was a 61-foot, 5 1/2-inch shot put by Parry O'Brien, the 245-pound bank manager from Los Angeles. It bettered his listed world record by a quarter inch but fell three inches short of his heave the previous Saturday at Frankfurt, Germany. Other winners here included Dave Sims of Duke in the 60-yard dash (6.2 seconds, equalling the world record), Velsa Muga of Yugoslavia in the two mile (8:59.0), dark horse Tom Murphy of Manhattan in the half mile (1:52.6), Charlie Jenkins of Villanova in the 500 (56.8 seconds) and Elias Gilbert of Winston-Salem (N.C.) Teachers in the 60-yard high hurdles (7.4 seconds). Mel Schwarz of the Baltimore Olympic Club tied Don Bragg of the Shanahan Catholic Club of Philadelphia in the pole vault at 14-feet, 9-inches. Phil Reavis of Villanova and George Dennis of the Shanahan Club each cleared 6-feet, 7-inches to share first place in the high jump.

G. Halas To Take Bear Job

CHICAGO (UP) — Owner George Halas of the Chicago Bears is going to make a coaching comeback at the age of 63 with some "new ideas" he's itching to put into practice. The National Football League pioneer yesterday announced he will succeed Paddy Driscoll as head coach of the team he organized as the Decatur, Ill., Staleys in 1920 and moved to Chicago in 1937. It will be Halas' third return to coaching. He celebrated his other two comebacks with championships in 1933 and 1946. Two years ago, he handed the coaching reins to Driscoll, saying administrative and coaching duties were too much for him. Driscoll piloted the Bears to the Western Division title in 1955 only to lose the playoff championship to New York. The Bears were preseason favorites last year but finished in the second division with a 5-7 record. Halas said Driscoll would become administrative vice president in charge of team organization and added there would be no other staff changes. That means retention of assistant coaches Phil Handler, Luke Johnson, Clark Shaughnessy, George Connor and Sid Luckman. "When I quit coaching," said Halas, "I couldn't think of any reason to induce me to come back. But sitting back and looking over the situation the last two years, I felt coaching methods in pro football were changing and I developed some new ideas. Now I want to try out those ideas."
