OTI Students To Graduate

Twenty student nurses graduating from Oregon Technical Institute will be capped as licensed practical nurses Monday evening, 7 o'clock, at the First Christian Church.
Nineteen students were graduated in the first class in 1952 and since that time 10 classes of 81 graduates have completed the year's course.
Jack Douglass, business manager of OTI, will act as master of ceremonies. The Rev. Otis Bell of the First Christian Church will deliver the invocation. On the program as soloist will be Ray Lundgreen.
Featured speaker of the evening will be Dr. Hugh Currin who will speak on the "Responsibility of the Licensed Practical Nurse."
Teacher and Coordinator Mrs. Natalie Reichenberg will present the pins. Mrs. George Beddow will do the capping.
The public is invited to attend the graduation exercises.
