WEED TALENT SHOW

Members of the Butte Valley Federated Womens Club show committee outlined plans for the club-sponsored annual talent show when they met recently at the home of Mrs. Cy Cramer, Dorris. The show is scheduled for March 8, at 8 p.m., in the Butte Valley High School gymnasium. Deadline for entries is March 5, and entry blanks are available at all Butte Valley Schools or from Mrs. Virginia Hamilton.

For further information interested individuals or organizations should call Mrs. Naoma Neyerlin, chairman, who said that the club is seeking a wide variety of talent.

Show committee members are Mrs. Virginia Hamilton, Anna Mutschenbacher, Mrs. Clifford Stumbaugh, Mrs. Herman Johns, Mrs. Carl Sierra, Mrs. Winnie Barnett, Dorris; Mrs. Vera Gilmer, Mrs. Mae Dieter, Macdoel; and Mrs. Adam Miller, Klamath Falls.

President Hilda Stumbaugh reported that the club's project to bring one of Southern Pacific's old steam engines to Dorris is shelved for the present. She said that although the SP has been donating engines to towns as monuments to the era of steam propelled locomotives—a spokesman for the railroad told her that no engine is available now for Dorris.
