The Southern Oregon Conference Champion KU Pelicans left this morning to accept a final regular season two-game series challenge from the Crater Comets on the Central Point floor.

The statewide top-ranked Pels, proudly carrying a 13-1 record, wrap up conference play against the cellar-dwelling Comets who have won three while losing nine.

In the last meetings of the two clubs, played on Pelican court, KU swept the series 61-29 and 67-30. Wayne Allen, currently riding the number six spot in the SOC scoring with 136 points and a game average of 11.3, led the Comets with 16 points for the doubleheader. Teammate Bill White supplied 14 points for the losing Crater cause.

Randy Campbell, Kerm Bennett, Joe Teeter, Chuck Turner, and Jerry Kime round out the group from which coach Don Anielak will pick his starters for this weekend's contests.

Coach Don Megale will pick his starting lineup from Glenn Moore, Bob Niles, Bob Peterson, Dave Robinson, Smiley Herrera, Tom Ankeny and Don DeLap. An attack of shinsplints suffered by Moore during the week's preparatory scrimmages may keep the tall all-stater on the sidelines for a good portion of the games.

In conference score standings released today, four of the Whitebirds are listed among the top five. Moore, who has hit 276 in SOC play for an average of 19.7 per game heads the roster while Bill Maurer of Ashland holds down the number two position with 177 and a 12.6 average. Pel Bob Peterson with 167 and an 11.9 average is number three with guard Dave Robinson running fourth with 149 counters and a 10.6 mark. Big Bob Niles, rangy KU forward is number five, having collected 137 tallies for a 9.8 average.

Practice sessions at the KU gym during the past week were aimed primarily at sharpening the Pel fast-break offense with stress added on rebound work.

Because of their conference schedule, the Pels face two weeks of comparative idleness, following their stint at Central Point, while waiting for the state tournament at Eugene to begin on March 18.

Megale's charges face the task of having to reach and maintain a peak without the benefit of competition, a chore that will test both player and coach's ability.

Both tonight and Saturday's games start at 8 o'clock following preliminaries at 6:30.

Cal Bears Meet Uclans In PCC Battle

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

California, on top of the Pacific Coast Conference basketball heap, seeks to improve its position Friday night against a UCLA team that is fighting to stay in contention.

The well-balanced Bears — only 2.4 points separates the scoring averages of four starters — are fresh from three straight victories last weekend. They hold an earlier 61-58 victory over the Bruins.

The Uclans travel to Stanford Saturday night. Idaho, the Stanford Indians' opponents Friday night, move to Berkeley Saturday to wind up the Cal weekend.

UCLA is in third place, two games behid Cal's Bears, who are the defending PCC champions. Idaho is fourth, out of contention.

Cal triumphs Friday night and Saturday would wrap up at least a tie for first place. The Bears have a 11-2 record with three games to go. Second place Oregon State is 9-3 and UCLA is 9-4.

Other action Friday night finds Southern California at Oregon and Washington State at Washington.

Saturday night, USC plays second place Oregon State and Washington State journeys to the Oregon campus at Eugene. It's WSC against Oregon State Monday night.

A victory for the UCLA Bruins over California would give coach John Wooden his 100th PCC triumph and 200th since joining the Los Angeles school 10 years ago.

Wooden, to get more speed into his lineup, is starting Rafer Johnson, the world decathlon record holder, in place of sophomore Benny Crum. Johnson, who played most of the game last week in a losing effort against Oregon State, boasts speed, jumping ability and size—6-3, 200 pounds.

Cal Coach Pete Newell, with the top defensive club in the PCC, will be counting on Don McIntosh at 6-6, Al Buch, Bob Dalton, Earl Robinson, Jack Grout and George Sterling. The coach calls McIntosh, top Bear scorer with a 11.6 per game average, the steadiest player he's ever coached.

The Bears are averaging 60 points a game, whole holding their rivals to 52.1 points per game.

Idaho leads in scoring with a 69.9 average with OSC next at 65.2. The Beavers from Corvallis also rate the second spot in defense, 54.8 points a game.

Conference officials announced earlier this week that if California and Oregon State tie for the title, a playoff to determine the team for the NCAA regional playoffs—March 14-15 in San Francisco—will be held not later than March 11. No site has been selected, but it is likely it would be at the San Francisco Cow Palace where the regionals will be played. UCLA is ineligible for the playoff because of NCAA penalties.

SF Pitchers Slow Hitters

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UP) — The pitchers got down to business at the San Francisco Giants' training camp here Thursday and the batters—who had been rattling the fences all week—found themselves swinging at air.

Marv Grissom, the Red Bluff, Calif., veteran who'll be 40 next month, set the example for the young hurlers. He was bending tosses in for 10 minutes that even had Willie Mays kicking up dirt.

Manager Bill Rigney said there was little doubt that the aging reliefer would make plenty of late inning appearances during the regular season.

However, Rigney didn't give the pitchers all the credit. He pointed out that stiff and sore muscles always bring a letdown in the first week of drills.

Preppers Eye A-1 Cage Bids

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four prep basketball teams this weekend can clinch trips to the Oregon Class A-1 high school basketball tournament.

Three of the berths could be won Friday. One could be taken with a sweep of a two-game weekend series. And two other teams will open a series for a tourney spot that will end next week.

One of the most crucial Friday games will match South Eugene, fourth-ranked in the Associated Press Poll, at No. 6 Springfield.

A victory would scoot Springfield into the tourney and give the Millers the District 5-A-1 title.

South Eugene has improved greatly in the past two weeks, however, since high-scoring Charlie Warren returned to form after being side-lined with a back injury.

Both teams are idle Saturday.

In the Portland League, seventh-ranked Roosevelt goes up against Jefferson, and a victory would put the Teddies into the tournament.

Jefferson and Franklin must win their Friday games to remain in the running for the third tourney berth allotted to the district.

The district's first tourney position earlier was won by third-ranked Grant, which meets Washington Friday. All Portland League teams are idle Saturday.

Unranked Crants Pass could clinch a tournament position this weekend, but needs a sweep of a two-game series with Medford Friday and Saturday night to do it.

Tenth-ranked Hermiston Friday opens a playoff series with The Dalles that will decide one of the tourney spots given to the Blue Mountain League.

The winner of the best-of-three series will enter the tourney. The second game will be played March 7. If a third contest is needed, it will be the following night.

The other crucial game will be played Friday night at Corvallis. Corvallis could reach the tourney by downing visiting Lebanon.

Tournament positions already have been won by seven teams—Grant of Portland, Astoria, Beaverton, Klamath Falls, Pendleton, North Salem and Bend.

In all, 16 teams eventually will qualify for the prep classic.

Klamath Falls, the No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll, already has won a tourney spot, but will be out to defend its first-place ranking in a pair of games Friday and Saturday nights at Central Point.

Second-ranked North Salem will be host to Sweet Home Friday in the only game of the weekend for both squads.

Fifth-place Astoria will wind up its conference season by entertaining Parkrose Friday and traveling to Gresham Saturday.

Pendleton, No. 8 in the poll, is idle this weekend, but ninth-rated North Bend travels to Roseburg Friday night and then returns home for a Saturday game with Cottage Grove.

Ortiz Meets Tommy Tibbs

NEW YORK (AP) — Undefeated Carlos Ortiz isn't taking Tommy Tibbs lightly Friday night despite the Bostonian's 43 defeats.

Ortiz, a 21-year-old New Yorker, is an 8-5 favorite over the 23-year-old Tibbs for the Television (NBC, 7 p.m. PST) 10-rounder. It marks the Madison Square Garden main event debuts for both.

There are several reasons why the sleek, fast-punching Ortiz will be primed for a tough battle. For one, Tibbs, an aggressive little fellow has won five straight, including a decision over the once great and still formidable Willie Pep.

Then Ortiz thought he had an easy fight the last time out and that proved a big mistake.

The Puerto Rican-born youngster met unknown Harry Bell in a 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena Sept. 23, the same night Carmen Basilio won the middleweight crown from Ray Robinson at Yankee Stadium.

Instead of a soft touch, Carlos ran into lots of trouble. He was cut over both eyes and barely pulled out the decision in a fight that few remember. Carlos had to undergo a plastic surgery operation to get his brows fixed up.

Tibbs, who has become a winning fighter in the last two years, has an even 43-43-3 won-lost-draw record. He has scored 11 knockouts and has been stopped three times. Ortiz' record is 24-0 including nine knockouts.

Yardley Eyes Mikan Record

By UNITED PRESS

George Yardley, the balding sharpshooter who helps build guided missiles during the off season, now has George Mikan's one-season professional basketball scoring record within range of his big guns.

Yardley, the Detroit Pistons' league - leading point - maker, racked up 41 tallies Thursday night in leading Detroit to a 112-109 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers at Philadelphia. The win gave the Pistons a 1½ game grip on second place in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association.

In the only other game Thursday, the Philadelphia Warriors moved within two games of second place in the Eastern Division by beating Syracuse, 97-91.

Canadiens After Hockey Loop Record

MONTREAL (UP)—The Montreal Canadiens—their 10th National Hockey League championship clinched at one of the earliest dates in history—may write a grand climax to their fabulous season by equalling or setting four league records.

The Canadiens mathematically wrapped up the title when they whipped the Toronto Maple Leafs, 4-1, Thursday night to give them 85 points in 60 games. The second-place New York Rangers would finish with only 84 points if they won their last 11 games and the Canadiens lost their last 10.

But coach Toe Blake made it plain that he'll do everything he can to keep the Canadiens "up" for the Stanley Cup playoffs — and that could mean a netfull of new marks for his team.

—By scoring 23 goals in their last 10 games (only 2.3 per game), the Canadiens will equal the all-time mark of 236 set by Detroit in 1950-51.

—By winning seven of their last 10 games the Canadiens would equal the record of 45 wins in a season by the 1955-56 Montreal club. The Canadiens' current record is 38 wins, 13 losses and nine ties.

—Eight wins from now until the end of the season would enable the Canadiens to equal the 1950-51 Detroit Club's mark of 101 points in a season.

—The Canadiens' current margin of 23 points over the second-place Rangers is only one point fewer than the all-time winning margin of 24 points established by the 1955-56 Montreal club. Six or seven more victories probably would be enough to give them that mark.

"The Stanley Cup is the big thing, of course," said Blake in the surprisingly subdued Montreal dressing room. "We want to win that more than we want to accomplish anything else.

"But," he added, "it would be nice to equal or set at least some of those records and you can bet we'll be going all-out in every game. If we let down in our remaining league games, how can we be sure we can get 'up' again for the playoffs?"

Baylor Can Capture Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A bag of 47 points against little Pacific Lutheran Friday would hoist Seattle's Elgin Baylor back into the individual scoring lead in major college basketball.

Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati, the current leader, is idle Friday night with his 34.4 average on the shelf. Baylor, with a 33.8 average in 21 games going into Friday night's contest, will have a 34.45 mark if he can snag 47 against the West Coast club.

Mantle, NY Agree To Terms

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's just no pleasing some guys. Only a few hours after he became the third highest on all-time New York Yankee salary lists with a $72,000 contract, Mickey Mantle wound up throwing a golf club into a lake when he blew a two-foot putt.

The round of golf (he shot an 86) capped a busy day yesterday for the Mich, who now ranks behind only Joe DiMaggio ($100,000 in 1949) and Babe Ruth ($80,000 in 1930 and 1931) in Yankee salaries.

Mantle's quick agreement with the Yankees, who first had offered about $68,000 while Mickey insisted on $75,000, stole the spotlight form Roy Sievers, who snatched Mantle's American League home run and runs-batted-in titles last season.

While Mantle edged up behind Boston's Ted Williams ($135,000) and St. Louis' Stan Musial ($100,000) as No. 3 on the high price list among active players, Sievers agreed to $36,000 with the Washington Senators—who never paid more to any player.

Sievers hit 42 home runs and drove in 114 last season. For that display, he wanted his 1957 salary ($19,000 doubled. Instead he picked up a $17,000 boost, also high for the Senators, who previously had paid as much as $35,000 to Joe Cronin and Tris Speaker.

Several other players came to terms, beating the "holdout" stage that begins officially tomorrow—March 1.

The world champion Milwaukee Braves signed second baseman Red Schoendienst. He got a raise to about $40,000.

Still to be signed by the Braves are pitchers Lew Burdette, Bob Buhl, Gene Conley and Don McMahon; infielders Johnny Logan, Frank Torre and Felix Mantilla; and outfielders Wes Covington and Bob Hazle.

The Chicago White Sox ended their contract contest by giving veteran first baseman Earl Torgeson what was termed a "slight raise." The Yankees also signed pitcher Bob Turley, for a reported $20,000, but still have to talk with first baseman Bill Skowron and pitcher Tom Sturdivant.

New Dates Set For Crosby Test

PEBBLE BEACH (AP) — Bing Crosby's $50,000 pro-amateur golf clambake gets new dates next year — Jan. 15-18.

The three-day tournament, played over three courses, thus moves back a week.

Golfers in the past have come here from the Los Angeles Open. Next year, the Tijuana tournament will come between the Los Angeles and Crosby meets.

Palmer Holds Baton Rouge Tourney Lead

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Husky Arnold Palmer, steadily whipping his golf game into shape for the Masters Tournament, battled an ambitious field today to protect his one-stroke lead in the $15,000 Baton Rouge Open.

The 28-year-old Latrobe, Pa., player, who said he was pacing himself this year for an all-out bid to win the Augusta, Ga., tourney, took only 27 putts yesterday for a 3-under-par 67.

He faces not only the toughest competition in the seven-year history of the event, but also a jinx that has knocked out the first day leader in the last five tourneys. Not since 1952, when Jackie Burke won, has the 18-hole leader been on top at the end of 72 holes.

One stroke back of Palmer were Peter Thomson, Melbourne, Australia, and Otto Greiner, Tenafly, N.J.

Ken Venturi, San Francisco, and John Barnum, Grand Rapids, Mich., each had 69, while Eddie Griffiths, Youngstown, Ohio; Bill Ogden, Chicago; and Ted Kroll, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., were together at 70.

A total of 23 golfers shot sub-par golf over the par-72, 6,450-yard Baton Rouge Country Club course, still soggy after weeks of wet weather.

Palmer played amazing golf on the last four holes, shooting three birdies for a 32 on the second nine after touring the first nine in 1-under-par 35.

Henley Suffers Loss In Sub-District Play

ASHLAND — The Henley Hornets fell victim to Eagle Point 53-42 in the opening round of the sub-district 6-A-2 tournament in progress on the Southern Oregon College court here Thursday night.

The contest was a see-saw scrap until late in the fourth quarter when the intent Eagle Pointers strung 13 consecutive points while holding Henley scoreless, to pull away from a too-late effort by the Hornets.

Top scoring honors for the test went to Eagle Points' Bill Turner, who netted 24 for his night's work. The lone Klamath County A-2 entrant, sparked by high-pointers Jim Herringshaw with 11 and Burrell Gober with 10, got off to an 11-8 margin at the first-quarter stop and maintained their position until the close of the first half which ended at 21-all.

Eagle Point, after gaining and losing the lead seven times during the test, edged to a 34-31 bulge at the three-quarter post.

In the fourth frame, Eagle Point scored first blood on a free toss by Hubbard to boost their count to 35-31 only to have the Hornets buzz back into contention on a pair of charity tosses by Gober, a driver by Kaylor followed by a successful free throw by Kaylor to grab a momentary 36-35 lead.

Here, the Hornet action stopped as the Eagle Point crew garnered the fateful 13.

In other games of the opening day, Brookings beat Illinois Valley 47-36, and Glendale turned back Rogue River 36-28.

Friday's schedule calls for Henley to meet Illinois Valley in the consolation round, while Phoenix and Glendale tangle in the first game of the championship round. Eagle Point contests Brookings in the nightcap.

Summary:
Henley (42) — J. Herringshaw 11, Curry 6, Kaylor 3, Born 1, Swisher, Chapman 5, Gober 10, Larson 2, Ferguson 2, Tacchini, Kammerer, Jackson, D. Herringshaw.
Eagle Point (53) — Turner 24, Hubbard 3, Christian 6, Veach 10, Nelson 4, Smith, Gerbing Knudsen, Cooper 2, Greb 4.

NBC Awarded Grid Games

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association announced today its 1958 football television plan had been approved overwhelmingly by member schools.

The NCAA said the National Broadcasting Company had been granted rights to carry the nine national televised games.

NBC, which has telecast the series the past three years, will be required to submit a schedule of games for the national dates within two weeks.

NCAA Executive Director Walter Byers said the association's membership voted 194-14 to approve the plan, which is identical in most of its basic features to the plan which has controlled telecasting of college football the past two seasons.

The plan specifies five dates for national telecasts, Sept. 20, Oct. 4, Nov. 27, (Thanksgiving Day), Nov. 29 and Dec. 6. The four additional national game of the week dates are to be selected by sponsors within two weeks.

There's been some talk about unemployment lately . . . but the picture isn't all as dark as a black cat in a coal mine at midnight, I notice that the U.S. government is looking for cooks and mechanics to work in the Arctic. For anyone who is tired of the hot pace of daily living around these parts, this offer sounds like a good chance to cool off.

Well, cooks are cooks, I suppose . . . but some of the mechanics are needed for machinery maintenance, others for airstrip construction. Applications should be sent to the Personnel Management Division, U.S. Weather Bureau, Washington 25, D.C. The pay is better than $4000 a year . . . plus a bonus of $200 or more a month. And there aren't many hot spots in the Arctic to spend it on. It's a great chance to make a little cold cash.

Congratulations and welcome to our new neighbors here on East Main. . . .Steinseifer Electric at 833 East Main . . . and Laura's Cafe 1124 East Main . . . hope you folks will stop in and see these fine folks for your electrical and eating needs!
